Foreword

THE READER will observe that we are presenting several innovations in this edition of The Illio. Notable among them are the independent, sorority, and fraternity group stories, which members of these particular groups have compiled themselves, and which seek to give the reader a colorful picture of student life on this campus.

Another innovation will be seen on the pages of Illio Beauties. The girls pictured there have been selected by John Robert Powers as the eight most beautiful girls in this university. In picturing these students, we honor the traditional charm of the college girl, and seek to prove that Illini girls are not to be surpassed for loveliness.

We, the editors, hope these innovations will meet with the reader's approval, and that he will find this edition a satisfactory digest of life at the University of Illinois for this year. To the ex-Illini who scan these pages in faroff places, may The Illio of 1945 bring many happy memories of campus days.

IN MEMORIAM . . .

With the passing of President Emeritus David Kinley on December 3, 1944, the University of Illinois lost a great leader. David Kinley had a vision of a great university and made the University of Illinois fulfill that vision. He believed in educational opportunities for all, and hence, urged expansion of facilities instead of curtailed enrollment. During the 37 years he was associated with the University, it rose to front rank among American institutions of higher learning.

President Kinley was a friend of the humblest student, and knew several thousand of them by name. He was an able and fearless fighter, and was esteemed by his colleagues and fellow citizens for his character and his ability.

As an economist, he was an international authority on money and banking, and represented his country at several Pan-American economic conferences. During his administration, many campus buildings, such as the University Library and Huff Gymnasium, were erected. Today's fighting Illini are better prepared to face the hazards of war because of President Kinley's wise policy of establishing an ROTC unit here, following World War I.

Because he was an outstanding scholar, educator, and gentleman, and because he will live on as one of America's greatest university presidents, the Illio of 1945 is respectfully dedicated to David Kinley.

President Emeritus (1930-1944)

David Kinley was born Aug. 2, 1861, in Dundee, Scotland, and migrated to America with his father in 1872. He attended Yale, receiving an A.B. degree in 1884, and then became a high school principal at North Andover, Mass. In 1890 he went to Johns Hopkins University where he studied under Woodrow Wilson. He later completed his work for a Ph.D. degree at the University of Wisconsin in 1893. He then joined the University of Illinois faculty as assistant professor of political economy and social science, was dean of the University's College of Literature and Arts from 1894-1906; dean of the Graduate School from 1906-1920; University vice-president from 1914-1920; and University president from 1920-1930.

Views

Nothing about this campus is more significant or more beautiful than the Broadwalk, with its lovely archway of trees. The giant elms are dark and majestic against the winter snow, and their green branches sway gracefully in the summer breeze.

ADMINISTRATION

The educational, academic, and research programs of the University are the primary objectives of the institution. Simultaneously, there operates another program, quietly and in the background, namely, that of administration. The administrative staff includes many officers of the University who do no teaching and no research. They are the operators of the University, the managers, the welfare officers, the business agents, the record keepers, the engineers, and the public relations officers.

The President of the University is the chief of the administrators. He is the coordinator of all the work of the University, both academic and operational. He is aided by a group of specialists, each with his own staff and field of operations. These specialists consist of the Provost, the Comptroller and his staff, the Director of the Physical Plant, the Registrar, the Dean of Students, and the Public Relations officer. Other administrative officers are in the Illini Union, the Personnel Bureau, the Alumni Association, the Athletic Association, the Bureau of Institutional Research, the High School Visitor's Office, the Press and Information Office, the Radio Station and the Retirement System offices.

The administrative organization is established to contribute the most effective operational methods and procedures in order that the educational, academic, and research programs may go forward smoothly and effectively.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
URBANA, ILLINOIS

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

December 12, 1944

TO THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS:

From its beginning the University of Illinois has been responsive to public needs and has constantly tried to fulfill its mission as a Land-Grant College and state-supported university.

When World War I began, the University immediately offered all of its facilities and services to the country. Thousands of students and alumni served in that war and 184 made the supreme sacrifice. With the beginning of World War II, the University again made its facilities and services available for the successful prosecution of this war. Over 17,000 Illini are serving in the armed forces and over 300 of them have paid the last full measure of devotion. On the campus, the University has provided both college grade and technical training programs for the Army and the Navy, and various departments have contributed materially to the war effort through their research and extension programs.

By establishing a Division of Special Services for War Veterans, the University has been a pioneer in providing an educational and counselling service for the benefit of returning servicemen. In the post-war period the University will adjust its programs to meet the changing conditions and the needs of the people. We hope that when victory comes we shall be prepared to deal wisely and effectively with the problems which will confront both the State and the University of Illinois.

Cordially yours,

A. C. Willard
President

During your student days on the campus we want you to become acquainted with the personnel and work of your Alumni Association. It maintains contact with and records of 80,000 alumni, more than 18,000 of whom are now serving their country in all parts of the world.

To assist them in following one another and in knowing what is taking place on the campus, the official publication of the Association, Illinois Alumni News, is sent and will be sent to others who will furnish their address upon their departure from the campus. These records are available to you at all times. It is our hope that we may always keep track of you and demonstrate our interest in your welfare while in school and after you leave.

We stand ready at all times to do what we can for the best interest of the University and our thousands of alumni, and your suggestions and cooperation in helping us with this program will be greatly appreciated. While the work of the Alumni Association presumably "begins where student days end," we hope we may get acquainted and assist you in every way possible while you are on the campus.

COLLEGES AT URBANA

Many an Illini . . . now 18,500 to be exact . . . serves his country in foreign fields . . . in muddy foxholes in France and Holland . . . in India and China. But he dreams of the traditions . . . of the campus he left behind him. The days he strolled down the Broadwalk beneath the elms . . . perhaps the trees were budding in the spring . . . or it was raining . . . He used to think it could never rain as much as it did in Champaign . . . now he knew.

Old Alma Mater . . . Homecoming . . . the Gettysburg Address in Lincoln Hall . . . Chemistry and Rhet . . . the sings at night in the University Auditorium . . . the fighting Illini. He left them. Now he was fighting . . . to preserve the American way of life . . . the Illini way of life he hopes to return to . . . to the research his University has contributed . . . is contributing . . . to the science and culture of the world. The first soil experiments in the country . . . the first instruction in architecture . . . the betatron.

He knows it is a little different nowadays. 290 of the 2100 instructors of the University are in service now. And there are more girls in school now . . . 3,862. And many of the men on campus are in uniform . . . 483 ASTR's . . . 374 V-12's. And 350 veterans already returned from World War II.

The eight colleges at Urbana await the return of the Illini. They plan accelerated programs, new housing—even an airport. The Colleges at Urbana . . . the buildings . . . the traditions . . . will still be here . . . unchanged. The soldier dreams of the day he will come back. His school waits.

Service personnel walk through the archway of the Dental and Medical Building, leading to the Hospital

CHICAGO CAMPUS

On the Chicago Campus are the Colleges of Dentistry, Medicine and Pharmacy with related work in the Graduate School. Important hospitals and clinics add to the value of the work and make the University of Illinois outstanding in the study of the medical sciences throughout the world. The completion of the Illinois Neuropsychiatric Institute, affiliating with Illinois Eye and Ear Infirmary, affiliating with Rush Medical School and Presbyterian Hospital, developing the service in Research and Educational Hospital, have combined to give the medical students unsurpassed facilities to observe and study patients. The dental laboratories and clinics have also become famous. In the College of Pharmacy students prepare for one of several interesting specialties, doing advanced practical work in the hospital pharmacy. The University is offering work in Occupational Therapy, training students who will aid in the rehabilitation of service men.

Most of the medical students are either in Navy V-12 or Army Specialized Training Program, and the Navy V-12 program includes a good number of dental students. The three colleges are on an accelerated plan and graduation takes place in three calendar years.

There are a number of student activities including several musical groups, a monthly student magazine, intra-mural sports, dances, Student Councils in each school and several fraternities. Women are accepted on the same basis as men.

Extensive plans are under way to provide refresher courses for the thousands of alumni who are in military service and who will need such courses before returning to private practice.

COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

Dr. Allan G. Brodie
Dean

The College af Dentistry has cantinued to aperate on the accelerated wartime curriculum during the past year. Since the lost issue of The Illio twa classes have been graduated, cantaining a tatal of fifty-six in their respective branches af the Services.

The Army Student Training Pragram was discontinued as of September 15, 1944, with the exceptian of those students who were in their senior year. The Navy has cantinued its pragram af training dentists at the undergraduate level and six candidates far both degrees and cammissians entered the College of Dentistry on January 2, 1945.

It is expected that undergraduate enrallment in dentistry will suffer a sharp drap during the next two years, but the return of men fram the armed farces ta civilian life will create a great demand far refresher and post-graduote work in the various fields af dentistry. Such men will receive a minimum of one year af post-graduate study at government expense. The College af Dentistry is making every effort ta plon for this anticipated demand and is also entering on a pragram af recruiting greater numbers af qualified men into the field af dentistry. The professian has suffered a falling index far the past fifteen years, more men leoving because af death ar retirement than are entering it.

Dr. Allan Gibsan Brodie was barn in New Yark City in 1897, and received his D.D.S. degree from the University af Pennsylvania in 1919. After studying at the Angle College af Orthadantia in Pasadeno, Dr. Brodie jained the faculty of the University af Illinais, later becaming head af the department af Orthodantia in 1937. He wos appointed as Acting Dean of the College af Dentistry on September 1, 1944.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

Dr. Raymand B. Allen
Dean

The Callege af Medicine is part af the hame frant, for it has an extensive training pragram for Army and Navy trainees wha are ta become medical afficers and far students wha are ta practice medicine among civilians. Of the total enrollment of 677 in the Callege af Medicine, 566 students are in unifarm.

During the war special programs in trapical medicine, aviatian physialogy and medicine, first aid, and physical medicine including accupatianal therapy have been established, and phases af these programs will became integrated in the pastwar teaching pragram. Research prajects having ta da with military medicine have yielded valuable findings af benefit in the war effort.

The program in occupatianal therapy has invalved cooperatian between the Urbana calleges and the Chicaga campus. This pragram was organized in time to help to meet the need for specialists in this field for the great convalescent and rehabilitatian pragrams of the armed services just now caming to full develapment. Postwar plans include develapment af postgraduate caurses far returning medical officers and building pragrams far the Research and Educatian Haspitals af the Medical Center.

Dr. Raymand B. Allen was born in Cathoy, Narth Dakata in 1902, and received his M.D. degree fram the University af Minnesata in 1928. After receiving his Ph.D. degree fram Mayo Foundatian in 1934, and serving on the faculty af Calumbia University's College af Physicians and Surgeons fram 1933 to 1936, Dr. Allen served as Dean of Wayne University College af Medicine until 1939. He then taak up his duties as Executive Dean af the Chicaga Colleges af the University of Illinais, becoming Dean af the College af Medicine in September, 1943.

Dr. Earl R. Serles
Deon

By the time this valume af the Illia is released by the press, it wauld seem logical ta conclude that the severity of the war effart will have became modified, ond that many of the men now in service will have been releosed ta civilian life. With this thought in mind, the staff af the College of Pharmacy has been busily engaged in preparing caurses af instructian which it hapes will best serve the needs of the veteron, whether he be fram the ronks af thase whase college training was suddenly interrupted, or whether he be a farmer graduate who has envisioned new fields during his periad af service and desires to broaden the scope af his farmal educatian.

The civilian pragrom of instructian has been steadfastly maintained, and in certain areas marked impravements in the physical facilities af the College have been established. The Hospital Pharmacy has undergone o complete renavatian, mare than daubling the farmer space occupied, thus affording an opportunity far both graduate and undergraduate training in the field of Hospital Pharmacy. New caurses hove been added in Chemistry and Pharmacognasy, and plans are well under way far the development of a Drug Plant Experiment Stotion, where the student will have an oppartunity ta study all phases of this importont industry.

Dr. Earl Roy Serles was barn near Salem, Sauth Dakota, in 1890, and received his Ph.G. and B.S. in Phormacy, and M.S. in Chemistry and Physics fram South Dakota Stote College. After serving as Deon of the College of Pharmocy af South Dakata Stote College fram 1923-1940, he came to the Chicogo Campus of the University af Illinais, as Dean of the College of Pharmacy. Deon Serles is well known far his discoveries and experimentatian in the field af Pharmacy.

ALPHA KAPPA KAPPA

Born of a fraternity at Dartmouth known as "The Ace of Spades" in 1888, Alpha Kappa Kappa has emerged into the third largest of the medical fraternities in the United States. Unlike social fraternities, professional fraternities have grown from the desire of men preparing for specialized vocations such as engineering, law, and medicine, to better their future associations in their profession. Such an organization is the medical fraternity of Alpha Kappa Kappa.

Alpha Kappa Kappa has forty-four active chapters with a membership of 18,752 scattered throughout the country at all the better known medical schools. Eta chapter at the University of Illinois Medical School has an active membership of over seventy-five, a third of which live in the chapter house.

All the members, most of which are in the Army or Navy, are students in medical school, and Eta can boast of a well rounded group active in intramurals, music, and student politics.

Officers for this year as are follows:

Don Ferry President
Vernon Guynn Vice-President
Joe Fortner Secretary
Bill Glascock Treasurer
Lee Stevenson Social Chairman

ALPHA OMEGA

The story of Alpha Omega, national dental fraternity, dates back to the year 1910. Alpha Omega was organized at the University of Pennsylvania. It is a national Jewish fraternity with its membership extending to almost every dental college in the nation. Here at the University of Illinois, Alpha Alpha chapter was organized in 1928 by a handful of men. Today Alpha Alpha is one of the largest and most proficient chapters of Alpha Omega.

The social events provide some of the highlights of each school year. During the year several dinner meetings are held, at which time guest speakers proficient in the dental and the medical field are invited to present their viewpoints on various subjects of interest. The Senior farewell, the grandest event of the year, is presented in the form of a dinner dance. At this time, the fraternity honors graduating seniors by presenting each with a gift which in years to come will always be symbolic of his activities with Alpha Omega.

Alpha Alpha has compiled an excellent record on the athletic field, as well as in the scholastic field. In the recently completed intramural football tournament, Alpha Alpha was named co-champion of the Chicago Campus.

The men who have provided the leadership and the executive council for the year 1944 to 1945 are: Ira Goldberg, Chancellor; Joseph Solow, Vice-Chancellor; Joseph Rubenstein, Treasurer; Frank Garfin, Recording Scribe; Bernard Greenstein, Corresponding Scribe; David Tauman, Chaplain; and Marvin Jacobson, Historian.

ALPHA EPSILON IOTA

Alpha Epsilon Iota is a national fraternity of medical women—both students and practicing physicians. There are 21 active chapters in medical colleges from coast to coast. At the University of Illinois, the Delta chapter was founded in 1899, and numbered among its alumnae are many able medical women. The present student membership numbers 21 women. Officers are: Florence Walters, president; Evelyn Kosar, vice-president; Mary R. Richards, recording secretary; Camille Hill, corresponding secretary; and Clarice Faul, treasurer.

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA

Alpha Omega Alpha is a non-secret medical honor society, membership to which is based entirely upon scholarship. It was founded by Dr. William W. Root at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Chicago, then the Medical Department of the University of Illinois, on August 25, 1902. It is the only order of its kind on this continent. At the present time charters have been granted to 47 chapters in medical schools in the United States and Canada.

DELTA SIGMA DELTA

Delta Sigma Delta fraternity was founded at the University of Michigan on November 15, 1882. Rho chapter at the Chicago campus, University of Illinois, was founded December 9, 1901. The fraternity is national in its scope and has thirty-three subordinate chapters. Continental chapters were provided for in 1923 and embrace in their membership men of renown in the profession of dentistry who are practicing abroad.

Membership in Delta Sigma Delta is restricted to students and practitioners of the profession of dentistry who keep high the standards of scholarship, and strive toward scientific, ethical, and professional progress. There are two general membership classifications: the undergraduate students in the subordinate chapters, and the alumni membership in the Supreme Chapter.

Rho chapter of the Delts enjoys its many social activities. Each year members especially anticipate the "Hobo" dance and the Senior Farewell dinner-dance. These gala affairs are supplemented with frequent house parties and smokers. With the advent of the accelerated University program, beach parties, picnics, and other outdoor activities have been initiated during the summer months.

DENTAL STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of the College of Dentistry, an organization similar in function and purpose to the Student Council of the College of Medicine, consists of a group of elected representatives of the Dentistry student body who act in the interests of the students and endeavor to solve any problems pertaining to students in the College of Dentistry. The Student Council works in conjunction with the administration, faculty, students, and other individuals interested in matters pertaining to students of the College of Dentistry.

The Dental Student Council organizes and runs the Student-Faculty All-College Dance, which is an annual event. It also is responsible for the organization of the annual Senior Dinner program—also a traditional event.

LAMBDA KAPPA SIGMA

Since its founding in 1913 at Boston, Massachusetts, Lambda Kappa Sigma has been fostering lasting friendships among women studying and practicing the use of mortar, pestle, and graduate. Gamma chapter, third oldest of the 26 chapters, chooses its members from among the female students in the College of Pharmacy on the basis of scholarship and character.

Chapter activities involve tradition, social work, and fun. For tradition there is Hygeia Day with its professional program in honor of the patroness of Pharmacy, Founder's Day, the formal pledging and initiation ceremonies, the annual installation dinner, and the presentation of the honor key to the outstanding senior member. For social welfare, there are plays and programs for the children in the research hospitals. For fun, there are beach parties, theater parties, Hell Week, and chatter sessions. Chapter officers: Virginia Mularz, president; Mary Janet Grant, vice-president; Dorothy Dunovsky, secretary; Carlene Friedley, treasurer; and Eleanor McElhaney, social chairman.

PI KAPPA EPSILON

Pi Kappa Epsilon is a professional fraternity composed of men elected from the medical fraternities on the Chicago Campus, and from the more popular members of the medical faculty of Rush Medical College and the University of Illinois. The fraternity was founded in 1921 by Dale P. Osborn and others at Northwestern, its two chapters being at Northwestern and Illinois. The officers this year are: Richard Matlavish, president; Francis Flannery, vice-president; Dale Sunderland, treasurer; and Julian Lorenz, secretary.

NU SIGMA NU

Nu Sigma Nu is the oldest "professional fraternity devoted to the study of, and the practice of medicine and medical arts," since it was founded at the University of Michigan on March 2, 1882 by students Will Mayo, Ben Strong, Fred Bailey, Bob Stephens, Charles Frye, and John Gish. The Eta chapter of Illinois was founded ten years later as the first medical fraternity at the University of Illinois.

To carry on the high standards set by the first group of students in 1882, members this year have succeeded in doing their part. Don Auten, Don Michels, Don Tarun, and Joe Interlandi are in Alpha Omega Alpha scholastic honorary. Tom Coriden, Bill Grater, and Joe Interlandi are A.S.T.P cadet officers, and Al Swanson is president of the freshman class. Nu Sig's six-man football team holds the Saturday afternoon touch football championship. The large group of alumni on the faculty, eighty doctors, is headed by Dr. Francis Senear, Head of the Department of Dermatology, Dr. Warren Cole, Head of the Department of Surgery, atnd Dr. Hugh McGuigan, Head of the Department of Pharmacology.

The two groups of officers serving this past year are: Presidents, Gordon Sauer and Jim Hines; Vice-Presidents, Jim Aplington and Gordon Hasse; Secretaries, Fred Whitlark and Jack Falls; Treasurers, Homer Lyman and Bob Morgan; Custodians, Bill Nielson and Lee Noll; and Historians, Jim Hines and John Lowe.

Occupational Therapy was intraduced as o curriculum on this campus in the fall of 1943, under the directian of Beatrice D. Wode. This course, the first ta be administered by a college of medicine, consists of ten semesters af study, six af which are given under the direction af the Liberal Arts College an the Urbana compus, and four in the College of Medicine in Chicaga and affilioting hospitals. On November 19, 1944, this curriculum was accredited by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Associatian.

Illi-Sata, the official name of the Illinois Student Occupationol Theropy Assaciatian, recognized as a campus activity in March, 1944, seeks through monthly meetings to acquaint its members with each other ond with the activities af their future profession. Similor arganizations exist in the majarity af the seventeen accredited schools of Occupational Therapy throughout the country. The first president af the organizotian, Patricia Sheppard, together with seven other students, began her cambined clinical and medical instructian on the Chicago Campus in October.

PHI BETA PI

Phi Beta Pi ranks with the oldest medical fraternities, having been established at the University of Pittsburgh on March 10, 1891. Iota chapter was established at the University of Illinois in March, 1902, and is today one of the strongest of forty chapters located at every important medical center in the United States.

Believing that scholarship is the primary interest of every medical student, Phi Beta Pi has always made every attempt to contribute to the study of medicine. In 1938 Iota established an annual lectureship in honor of Dr. Carl Hedblom, who until his death was Professor of Surgery and Head of the Department. Dr. Hedblom has an international reputation in the field of chest surgery and every lecturer is an authority in this field.

While emphasizing the need for good scholarship among its members, the social side of medical school is not neglected at Iota. The chapter social program includes a pledge dance, a faculty-alumni reunion, a formal dinner-dance, and numerous other informal gatherings throughout the year.

Since no medical fraternity can justify its existence if its members do not maintain the high standards of responsibility and learning which the profession has established, Phi Beta Pi's aim is to inculcate into every incoming members the responsbility he holds to himself and to the public he will serve.

PHI CHI

Phi Chi, the largest international medical fraternity, had its inception at the University of Vermont in 1889. Since then, sixty-five active chapters have been established in the United States and Canada. The Illinois chapter was chartered in 1918 and named Upsilon Iota in accordance with a tendency of the times to select the initials of the chapter's school. Among the noted faculty members of Phi Chi are Dr. Carl C. Almquist, Dr. David S. Bullin, Dr. Paul C. Bucy, Dr. Henry P. Dorman, Dr. Francis J. Gerty, Dr. John W. Harned, Dr. Harold H. Hill, Dr. David S. Jaffray, Dr. Robert N. Jensik, Dr. Claude N. Lambert, Dr. Rocco V. Lobraico, Dr. Coye C. Mason, Dr. John C. McMillen, Dr. Alexander J. Nedzel, Dr. James E. O'Malley, Dr. Arthur S. The first chapter of Phi Delta Epsilon was founded at Cornell University in 1904, and the Illinois chapter, Alpha Alpha, was established in 1912. Pledges are chosen from the student body of the College of Medicine. Alpha Alpha is the largest of the fifty-six chapters of Phi Delta Epsilon.

In scholarship, this group rates high among campus organizations, with Paul Schutz, high-ranking senior and member of Alpha Omega Alpha honorary, indicative of scholastic prowess. In athletics, Phi Delta Epsilon has won the Chicago Campus intramural championship in football and baseball for the past few years. Abe Golum has become, by popular acclaim, the most outstanding intramural football star on this campus.

The student publication, the Illini Scope, has been well represented with Phi Delta Epsilon members for some time. Lee Ehrlich and Mike Kulwin have been past editors of the publication, with Arch Gordon now acting as co-editor-in-chief, and Herb Loseff as present business manager.

Numerous Phi Delta Epsilon coke dances are held in the Chicago Illini Union on Saturday evenings. An annual Senior Farewell and Initiation dinner-dance is the fraternity's outstanding social event of the year. Luncheons are sponsored by this group at which outstanding medical authorities are presented as lecturers.

There are fifteen faculty men in the College of Medicine in Phi Delta Epsilon. Among them is Dr. Ben Lichtenstein, professor of neurology, and noted clinician, teacher, and humorist, who is the fraternity's advisor.

PHI LAMBDA KAPPA

Phi Lambda Kappa is a national medical fraternity founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1907. The fraternity has as its object a brotherhood of Jewish physicians actuated by similar ethical ideals, and as its goal, the fostering of fraternal fellowship, unselfishness, an appreciation of obligation, tolerance, individuality and high scholarship. In addition to active and alumni membership, the fraternity confers honorary or faculty memberships on outstanding medical personalties. Among the five honorary members of the fraternity are such noted men as Dr. Simon Flexner, Emeritus Director of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and Dr. Bela Schick, the originator of the Shick test for diphtheria.

The organization was originally divided into three divisions: the Eastern, functioning as Aleph Yodh He fraternity, the Western, as Phi Lambda Kappa, and the Mid-Western, as Zeta Mu Phi. At a convention held in Chicago in December, 1921, the three organizations were merged in the Phi Lambda Kappa Fraternity. The fraternity roll includes thirty-seven chapters and five alumni clubs. There are over 11,000 alumni now fighting in the armed services of the country. The official publication is the Phi Lambda Kappa Quarterly and the official colors are blue and white.

The Alpha Alpha chapter was established at the University of Illinois in 1908. At present, there are fifty-six undergraduate members in the chapter. The faculty advisor is Dr. Benjamin Pearlman, and the present officers are: George Pollock, President; Irving Friedman, Vice-President; Herbert Grossman, Treasurer; Rueben Beezy, Secretary; and Samuel Matlin, Sergeant-at-Arms.

PSI OMEGA

Psi Omega was organized in 1892 and at the present time has 34 active chapters with a total membership of 18,630 members. Beta Alpha chapter at the University of Illinois consists of 25 active members.

The chapter resides in a fraternity house at 312 S. Marshfield Avenue. Officers for this year are: Dan Watkins, grand master; Earl Feldman, junior master; Alan Cerney, secretary; and Phil Wersching, treasurer.

PHI RHO SIGMA

Phi Rho Sigma is a national fraternity founded in 1890 at Northwestern University Medical School, and has forty-four active chapters in the United States and Canada. This chapter, Beta, founded in 1894, has grown into a vast organization of fine medical men . . . for example, Dr. Frederick H. Falls, Head of the Department of Obstetrics, Frederick Tice, Medicine, and Eric Oldberg, renowned neurosurgeon.

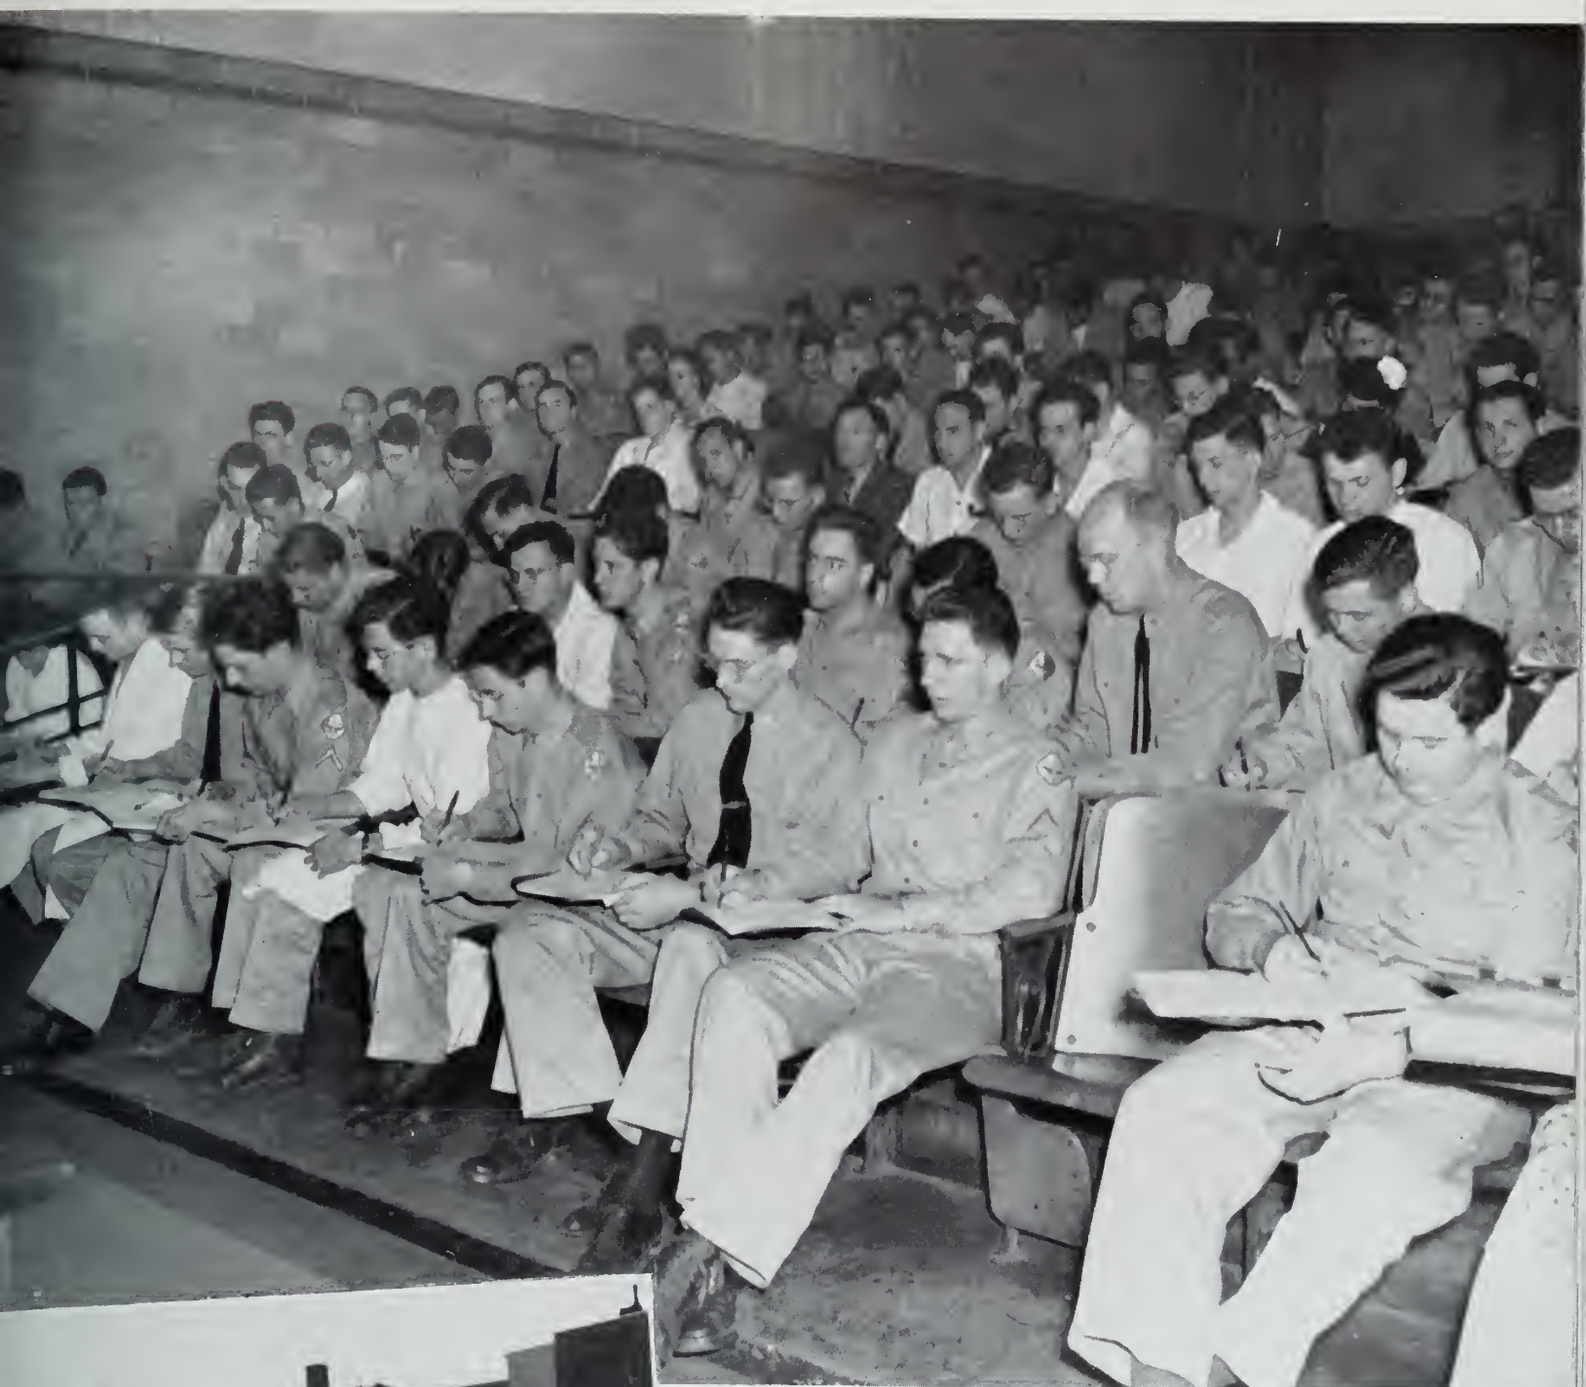

In order to qualify for membership, a candidate must be a medical student at the University of Illinois and have no affiliation with any other professional medical fraternity. Formal pledging occurs after the candidate successfully completes, according to university standards, one quarter of scholastic work. Pledges are initiated in the middle of their freshman year.

Social events include one large formal dinner dance held at one of the downtown Chicago hotels. Approximately once a month there is a lively dance and party held at the chapter house. During the year there are periodic stag parties, alumni dinners, and reunions. One evening a week is set aside for a fireside chat with some faculty member. These chats are informal, and extremely interesting and profitable to the medical student. Members of Phi Rho Sigma are active in intramural ahtletics which include football, baseball, and basketball games.

Phi Rho Sigma inspires high professional and moral standards. The members aid each other scholastically and socially, with attention centered around the freshman and his initial entry into a difficult profession.

FOOTBALL

When the 1944 football season ended, sports writers voted Illinois the most colorful team in the nation. Members of our football coaching staff feel that it would be more proper to label it the champion freshman eleven in the country and one that for courage had no peer. Against teams with similar material the Illini won five games, lost none, outscored their opposition 209 to 35. That's why we feel that Illinois fielded the championship freshman team—and often there were nine first-year men in our eleven starters.

Our four losses and a tie during the season were to teams which had seasoned personnel or the benefit of extensive naval and marine training programs from which to select players. Yet, against such opposition the Illini were always a dangerous foe. Never was this team humiliated; never was it hopelessly "out" of any game. The youngsters gave everything they had all the time; they played their best and that is the important thing in inter-collegiate athletics. Illinois may well be proud of the record of courage and ability which our 1944 squad members displayed. They were truly "The Fighting Illini."

ILLINOIS TROUNCES NORMAL

Coach Ray Eliot's third war-time football eleven unveiled a lightning-like ground attack coupled with a smooth aerial assault to bury Illinois State Normal's young team 79 to 0 in the 1944 inaugural in Memorial Stadium.

With everyone of 58 players getting a chance, the Illinois scoring drive kept clicking from the moment Paul Patterson, freshman halfback from East Aurora, ran 71 yards for the first Illini touchdown early in the initial period, until Charles Starks, another freshman halfback from Charleston, W. Va., pushed over from the 3 for the twelfth score shortly before the game ended.

Ten Illinois players counted against the Red Birds as Illinois set a new scoring record for Memorial Stadium. Claude "Buddy" Young, national sprint champion, made two touchdowns as did his former prep teammate, Don Johnson.

ILLINI OVERTAKE INDIANA

The Fighting Illini showed their courage against Indiana, coming from far behind to overcome a 12-point deficit and overtake a stubborn, dangerous rival with a high-geared second-half offensive to win 26 to 18.

Illinois' running attack was at a standstill in the first two periods largely because of Hoosier defense and Orange and Blue mistakes. Eliot's team found itself in the second half, rolled to a 20-12 advantage, then clinched the game when Don Greenwood intercepted a pass and raced 65 yards for a touchdown.

Individual star for Illinois was Patterson, who ran for one Illini touchdown and passed for another. Pat wound up in the end zone after long runs on two other occasions, but penalties cancelled both. He made six first downs, passed for one, recovered three fumbles, and intercepted an Indiana pass which set up an Illinois score.

ILLINI AND GREAT LAKES TIE

Illinois won from Great Lakes in the first half, lost in the third period, then staged a magnificent last-quarter rally to earn a 26-26 tie in a thrill-packed engagement at the Naval Training station Sept. 30.

Sparked by Buddy Young's 93-yard touchdown sprint in the first quarter, the Illini rolled up a 19-6 advantage by half-time. Then misfortune came suddenly. On ten plays of the third period, the Sailors counted three times, taking advantage of an Illini fumble, a blocked kick, and an intercepted pass.

Trailing 26-19, Paul Patterson and Young provided offensive punch for Illinois' last scoring drive after Tackle Walt Versen recovered a Lakes' fumble on the Sailors' 30-yard stripe. Patterson scored on a pass from Don Greenwood and Orville Hall converted the tying extra point.

PURDUE HANDS ILLINI DEFEAT

Purdue capitalized on Illinois fumbles and its own mixture of power football and a long passing game which clicked at crucial spots to hand the Illini their first 1944 defeat 35 to 19 in Memorial Stadium Oct. 7.

Illini backs fumbled on eight occasions and a ball-hawking Boilermaker team recovered on six of the Orange and Blue misplays. In defeat, however, the Illinois team again revealed startling offensive power and battled every step of the way.

Buddy Young ran 144 yards in 12 plays, scored two touchdowns and headed off at least three Purdue scores with his sensational speed. Ralph Serpico, stocky Illini guard, was outstanding as the Illinois forwards outfought a heavier and more experienced line through most of the game.

IOWA SMOTHERED BY ILLINI

Buddy Young, Mr. Speed himself, broke around his own right end for 64 yards and a touchdown on the first play of the Illinois-Iowa Dad's and "I" Men's day game in Memorial Stadium and his performance sparked a 40 to 6 victory for the Illini.

The brilliant freshman played only half the game and in seven plays ran for 139 yards. Illinois rattled 20 points off the score board in the first period, added a touchdown in the third on a one-yard plunge by Don Greenwood, and with subs playing the major role, tacked on 13 points in the fourth.

Bill Butkovich threw a 45-yard pass to Walt Kersulis, East St. Louis freshman, for one of the last period scores, and Mickey Perkins, St. Clair Shores, Mich., sophomore, plunged for two yards and Illinois' sixth touchdown.

ILLINI CRUSH PANTHERS

Illinois in the East for the first time since Bob Zuppke took an Illini eleven to New York City in 1930 to meet Army, registered its fourth victory of the season with comparative ease subduing Pittsburgh 39 to 5.

Don Greenwood took the first Pitt kick-off and aided by some brilliant blocking went 80 yards for a touchdown; Buddy Young skirted his own right end for 82 yards to score, and Paul Patterson broke through the Panther line for 62 yards and six points. These were the highlights of the tilt, except for a remarkable block which Young planted on the Pitt safety man on Patterson's run.

Coach Ray Eliot used all of the 34 players who made the trip and substitutes played most of the last half.

BIG-10 CHAMPS DOWN ILLINI

The nation's largest crowd of the season, 83,627 fans jammed into Cleveland's Municipal Stadium to watch Ohio State's undefeated Big Ten champions down Illinois 26 to 12.

The Illini threw a scare into the Scarlet Scourge by scoring on their second offensive play of the game as Don Greenwood raced over after a 35-yard sprint, but the Buckeye line, plus running of All-American Les Horvath and Freshman Bob Brugge spelled defeat for Illinois.

Ohio led 7 to 6 at the quarter, but put on a brilliant offensive show in the second period to go out in front 20 to 6. The teams played evenly in a bitterly-fought second half, both scoring in the fourth quarter.

Greenwood was Illinois' offensive star, although Paul Patterson did some fine plunging. Ralph Serpico probably earned his all-conference and All-American ratings that day with remarkable line play.

AN EASY VICTORY OVER N. U.

Illinois wound up the 1944 campaign with a comparatively easy 25 to 6 victory over Northwestern at Evanston. The decision gave Illinois a season's record of 5 victories, 4 defeats, and a tie. In the Western conference the Illini won three and lost three, winning from all-civilian teams and losing to schools with veteran or predominantly service-trainee material.

Buddy Young tied the scoring mark of Red Grange by counting his twelfth and thirteenth touchdowns against the Wildcats. Grange, however, set his record in six games of the 1924 season. Don Greenwood also counted two touchdowns for the Illini.

The Illini did not run at will against Northwestern, mixing power and passes for their scores. Greenwood made the longest scoring dash of the day, a 30-yard run from the left halfback position, which climaxed an 80-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

ILLINI OUTPLAY NOTRE DAME

A Homecoming crowd of 65,114, largest in Memorial Stadium since Illinois whipped Army in 1929, saw an opportunist Notre Dame eleven, outplayed all afternoon, snatch a 13 to 7 victory from the valiant Illini when Achille Maggioli, halfback for the Irish, gathered in a lateral pass from Bob Kelly and ran 60 yards for a touchdown in the fourth period.

Illinois' line, Johnnie Orr and Lou Agase, L. A. Bingaman, and Don Janssen, Babe Serpico and Chuck Smith, and George Bujan stopped the vaunted Notre Dame running attack cold. Illinois backs meanwhile piled up 377 yards from scrimmage, yet victory was not theirs.

Buddy Young ran 74 yards for Illinois' only touchdown on the first play in which he carried the ball. He was injured shortly before halftime and was unable to return.

Both Young and Greenwood ran for touchdowns, 48 and 70 yards, respectively, which were called back by officials.

MICHIGAN SMASHES ILLINOIS

A team which had smashed the modern Illinois scoring record with 236 points in seven games—besting the 10-game mark of Ray Eliot's 1942 team, 227 points —was held scoreless by an alert, hard-tackling Michigan eleven at Ann Arbor on Armistice Day before 43,000. The Wolverines won 14 to 0.

Misfortune hit the Illini early and the young team never quite got going afterward. After a sustained drive in the first period, Eddie Bray burst over left tackle seemingly for a touchdown, but an official ruled his knee touched the ground six inches short of the goal. The quarter ended on the play and following change of goals, Illinois fumbled, Michigan recovered.

Don Lund and Jack Weisenberger scored for the Wolverines on powerful offensive drives. Joe Ponsetto booted home two perfect placements. John Orr, Lou Agase, and Ralph Serpico turned in excellent defensive games for Illinois.

BASKETBALL

Although three-fifths of its lineup during most of the season was composed of freshmen, competing in inter-collegiate basketball for the first time, the University of Illinois team made a highly creditable showing during 1944-45. In all, this year's Orange and Blue squad totalled 13 victories in 20 games and defeated some of the nation's leading fives, including DePaul, Great Lakes, Iowa, and Ohio State.

In conference competition, the Illini went into the final two weeks of play with a record of seven victories, a single defeat, and an excellent chance to share in the Big Ten title. However, a virtual epidemic of injuries and illness which afflicted the squad at this time lowered its physical strength to the point that Illinois lost its last four league games and finished in third position with seven victories and five defeats.

The 1944-45 squad did everything which could be expected of it and no team defeated Illinois in the past season without also suffering defeat by the Illini. That indicates the spirit and sheer determination to win for which this squad was noted.

BASKETBALL

Illinois' basketball team of 1944-45, though a far cry from the fabulous Whiz Kids of 1942-43, enjoyed one of the Illinis' most successful seasons under Coach Douglas R. Mills. The 1945 five was the highest scoring basketball team in the history of Illinois, dumping 1044 points through the hoops in 20 games. They bettered the 1039 mark set by the Whiz Kids in 1943.

Jack Burmaster, freshman guard from Elgin, won the Ralf Woods Memorial trophy, awarded annually to the Illinois player who compiles the best free throw average. Burmaster made 19 free throws in 25 attempts for a .760 percentage. At the annual basketball banquet in February, Kirk was voted the most valuable player by his teammates, and was also chosen captain for next year.

Illinois opened its season by crushing Chanute Field 64-25. Howie Judson, sophomore from Hebron, led the Illini with 14 points. The squad travelled to Chicago on December 8 to meet the Bluejackets of Great Lakes at Chicago Stadium. Behind 19-16 at the half, the Illini put on a torrid second-period rally to win, 44-40. Junior Kirk led the Illini with 15 points. Don Delaney, V-12 center from Grand Rapids, Michigan, scored 10 points.

Playing at Great Lakes on the following night, Illinois again came from behind to whip the Sailors, 56-53. Behind 28-26 at the half, the Illini came storming back. The lead changed hands three times in the second period, but the Illinois closing drive, which was to be an important factor throughout the season, again made itself felt. Kirk, with 15 points, and Judson with 12 led Illinois. Jim Ove was high for the Sailors with 12.

Illinois defeated DePaul's Demons, 43-40, before 14,000 fans in Chicago Stadium on December 15. Led by George Mikan, 6-foot, 9-inch all-American center, DePaul appeared to have the game safely tucked away, but the Illini put on a breathtaking rally with a few minutes remaining to win.

BASKETBALL

Those games were the storm before the lull. Facing Great Lakes for the third time, and playing their first major game in Huff gym, the Illini bowed, 52-45. The tables were turned in more than the final score. For the first time since the Chanute Field game, the Illini were ahead at the half. And for the first time in the season, Illinois lost. Don Delaney led the Illini scorers with 14 points.

DePaul gained revenge for its previous loss by downing Illinois, 63-56 at Huff gym January 1. Mikan fouled out in the second half, but not before he had scored 28 points. It was a wild game, with the officials calling 50 personal fouls. DePaul led at the half, 39-32. Johnnie Orr was the leading scorer with 13 points.

In their first Big Ten game of the season, Illinois was upset in a sloppy game by Michigan, 43-38. The Wolverines, who were labeled "cousins" by the experts, turned the tables on the Illini and ruined their Big Ten debut.

Illinois traveled to Ann Arbor the following weekend—a sobered ball club. They settled down to business, and with Kirk burning the baskets with 21 points, the Illini swept through the Wolverines, 56-37.

Returning home, Illinois was host to Northwestern January 19. It was the same old story, with the Wildcats leading 22-18 at the half, and the Illini coming back with a powerful second half rally to win, 51-42.

Iowa's undefeated Hawkeyes, who were leading the Big Ten, invaded Huff gym January 26, and the battle that followed was one of the wildest ever seen. 6,000 screaming fans jammed Huff gym for the game which Illinois finally won 43-42. Each side used only one substitute throughout the game which had three jump balls and two times out in the final 50 seconds. Iowa pulled away to a 20-14 halftime lead but the Fighting Illini finally gained a tie, went out in front and stayed there. Junior Kirk was high man for the Illini with 13 points.

BASKETBALL

In another "crucial" game, Illinois defeated Ohio State's Buckeyes, 56-41, before 7,100 fans in Huff gym February 16. Illinois led 27-22 at the half, coming from behind five times before the final victory. Kersulis scored 14 points, making five baskets in nine attempts. Kirk scored 12 and Burmaster 10 to round out the Illini leaders.

Minnesota came to Champaign for a return engagement February 19 but they seemed a different team from the one that had bowed so meekly to the Illini in Minneapolis. Burmaster was the Illini "life-saver" with 16 points and Illinois won 49-48. Illinois led 29-22 at the half, but the Gophers came back strong in the second period and made a ball game of it.

And then came that final week in which the Illini played Ohio State at Columbus February 23. Ohio State won handily, 60-44, the loss taking away Illinois' last hope of undisputed possession of the Big Ten crown. On the next evening after an all-night train ride, the Illini lost to Northwestern in Chicago Stadium, 57-45. The game was a duplicate of the Ohio game, with the Wildcats pulling away after ten minutes. This game erased all chances for even a share in the title. They were now relegated to third place.

In the season finale, the Illini played Iowa at Iowa City. The Hawkeyes had suffered only one defeat all season—the 43-42 decision to Illinois. If they lost to Illinois a second time, they would share the Big Ten championship with Ohio State. If they won, they would gain undisputed possession of the Western Conference crown for the first time in their history. They won 43-37. Iowa led 26-14 at halftime. It was another rough game, with the referee calling 40 fouls. Seyler led Illinois with 11 points.

TRACK

The 1944 Illinois track team ranks among the finest in the history of a University at which renown in the track and field sport has become a tradition. Following noteworthy performances in the Millrose and Boston A. A. games in the East, Illinois compiled a winning record in indoor dual meets and ranked among the leaders in such events as the Cleveland K. of C., Chicago, and Purdue Relays. After placing second in conference indoor competition, the Illini opened the outdoor season auspiciously by capturing six titles in the famed Drake relays.

Illinois was second in the outdoor conference meet held in Memorial Stadium, but reached a peak a few weeks later to capture the Central Collegiates and bring to the University its third N.C.A.A. championship in history. Only two other Illinois track teams ever accomplished that feat, the Gill-coached entries of 1921 and 1927. Buddy Young and Captain Bob Kelley later added individual titles in the National A.A.U.

The performance of the Illini was remarkable since the majority of the team were freshmen competing for the first time in intercollegiate meets.

The 1944 outdoor track season, highlighted by an NCAA team championship, was easily the most successful in more than a decade for the Illini. Other team championships were recorded in the Drake Relays and the Central Collegiate meet. As indoor, Illinois finished second to Michigan in the Western Conference competitions. Employing only seven men, Coach Leo Johnson sent four winning relay combinations into the Drake Relays. Dave Best, Richard Young, Marce Gonzalez, and Buddy Young took the 440 and the 880 yard events; Dick Young, Gonzalez, Bob Hinkle, and Bob Kelley won the mile relay, and Dick Young, Gonzalez, Kelley, and LaVerne Campbell, the university sprint medley. Buddy Young added individual titles in the century and broad jump, while Hinkle took second in the high hurdles.

The Illini were next host to a quadrangular meet in Memorial Stadium and staged a runaway from Purdue, Northwestern, and Indiana. Young set a new Illinois record of :20.9 in the 220, and tied the existing Illini mark of :09.6 in the 100. He also captured the broad jump. Other Illinois winners were Kelley in the 880 and mile; Bob Ruther, high hurdles; Dave Best, low hurdles; LaVerne Campbell, high jump, and Bob Phelps, pole vault. After defeating Ohio State at Columbus in a dual meet which saw Illinois take 10 firsts and tie for another, the Illini were second in a triangular meet at Michigan. The Wolverines topped the meet, Purdue was third. Buddy Young hit :09.5 in the 100, outstanding performance of the day.

Young's performance in the Big Ten meet, in which Illinois was second to Michigan, had a dramatic ending. The youngster, seeking to become the first four-time winner in a Western Conference championship event since Jesse Owens turned the trick in 1935, took the 100, the 220, and the broad jump. In the finals of the 220-yard low hurdles, Buddy was four yards in front when he tripped on the last hurdle and fell headlong into the track, which had been flooded by a torrential rain with just two events to be run. Bob Kelley turned in two great performances, winning the 440 in :48.1 and the half-mile in 1:54. Dave Nichols took a championship in the high hurdles and Bob Phelps tied for first in the pole vault.

In the NCAA, Illinois with 79 points finished 36 ahead of its nearest rival, Notre Dame. Young won the 100 and the 220, Kelley the 880, and Nichols the high hurdles. The Illini had previously carried off the Central Collegiates handily, taking five individual titles and the mile relay. Winding up the season June 18, Young captured the 100-meter and Kelley the 800-meter championships in the National AAU in New York.

The University of Illinois, as in 1944, ranked as one of the nation's most powerful squads in the 1945 indoor track season. The Illini mile relay, which opened its season with second place in the Millrose games, ranked as outstanding foursome of the year, hitting its fastest time in its closing meet, the Purdue Relays, at which Illinois established a new record of 3:22.8. Bill Buster, Peoria, Captain Marce Gonzalez, Gary, Indiana, Joe Johnson, Richmond, Virginia, and Bob Kelley, Springfield, ran in that order as the team chalked up victories in the Big Ten and Chicago Relays as well as that at Purdue.

The dual meet season opened with a triumph over Indiana 70-34; Illinois winning nine firsts. Kelley captured the 880 and mile, George Walker the hurdles, Buster the 60, Paul Hamer the two-mile, Bob Phelps, the pole vault, Ken Aihara the broad jump, plus a relay victory.

In Illinois Armory, the Orange and Blue trackmen romped home in a triangular against Ohio State and Notre Dame, finishing with 81 points to 28 for the Buckeyes and 19 for the Irish. Illinois won ten firsts and swept the 880-yard run. The following week, Coach Leo Johnson's squad was victorious in a quadrangular at Minnesota with 69 points. Minnesota had 25, Iowa 22, and Wisconsin 16. The Illini had eight firsts and Bob Phelps hit a new high of 13 feet 6 inches in the pole vault.

Greatest dual meet triumph of the season was a victory March 3 over Michigan in Illinois Armory. The Illini won 58-46, again registering eight firsts and slamming the high hurdles and broad jump events.

In the Big Ten, Michigan's strength in the distance runs was too great and Illinois finished second with 54.1 points to the Wolverines 55.1, one of the closest finishes in Conference history.

Eight championships came to the Illinois campus with Walker's :08.0 time in the high hurdles and Phelps 13 feet 9 inch pole vault outstanding performances of the day.

Phelps set a new Illinois record at the Cleveland K. C. games March 23 when he cleared 13 feet 11 inches. The old record of 13 feet 10 3/8 inches was made by Verne McDermont in 1930.

BASEBALL

Illinois faced the 1944 baseball season with a squad composed entirely of freshmen. Not a man in the regular lineup during the season had ever played inter-collegiate baseball before. This fact becomes more remarkable when one considers that this team won nine of twelve games, with two ties, produced two of the Big Ten's leading pitchers in Howard Judson and Lou Possehl, and the conference's fourth ranking hitter in Bill Butkovich. In league competition, the Illini finished third winning five of seven games and might have finished higher had not a double-header with Michigan been rained out after eight innings of the first game with the score tied at 4-4. Members of the coaching staff feel just pride in this team which came through in commendable fashion to uphold the fine record in baseball which Illinois teams have compiled through the years.

Completing a second year of baseball under wartime conditions, the Illinois squad, under guidance of Coach Wallie Roettger, finished third in the Western Conference with a record of five victories, two defeats, and two ties. The Illini captured four out of five non-conference tilts.

Again, as in 1943, Illinois depended upon freshmen, but first-year men such as Howard Judson, Lou Possehl, Bill Butkovich, Roy Wiedow, Gordon Gillespie, and Leo Gedvilas made an excellent showing.

In the season's opening game, Chanute Field bowed to the Illini 2 to 1. Judson pitched brilliantly and Howard Palmer doubled in the ninth to break a 1 to 1 deadlock. Four days later, the Planesmen gained revenge 6 to 1.

Rain washed out two games with Camp Ellis and the Illini opened the Big Ten season at Columbus, Ohio, defeating Ohio State on successive days 7 to 1 and 6 to 0. Howard Judson had a no-hitter for seven innings of the opener and Lou Possehl held the Buckeyes to four hits in the second tilt while his mates pounded out 16.

April 28, after 11 innings of wild baseball, darkness halted an Illinois-Purdue game at LaFayette with the score 7-7. The Illini gained consolation from having outhit the Boilermakers 11 to 9. The Orange and Blue nine lost its first league tilt next day when Ed Timm bested Lou Possehl on the mound and Purdue won 7 to 2.

Illinois regained a winning stride against the Navy Signal and Diesel schools' team May 2. Bob Eads hit a tremendous triple and a long double to give the Illini a 3 to 1 verdict.

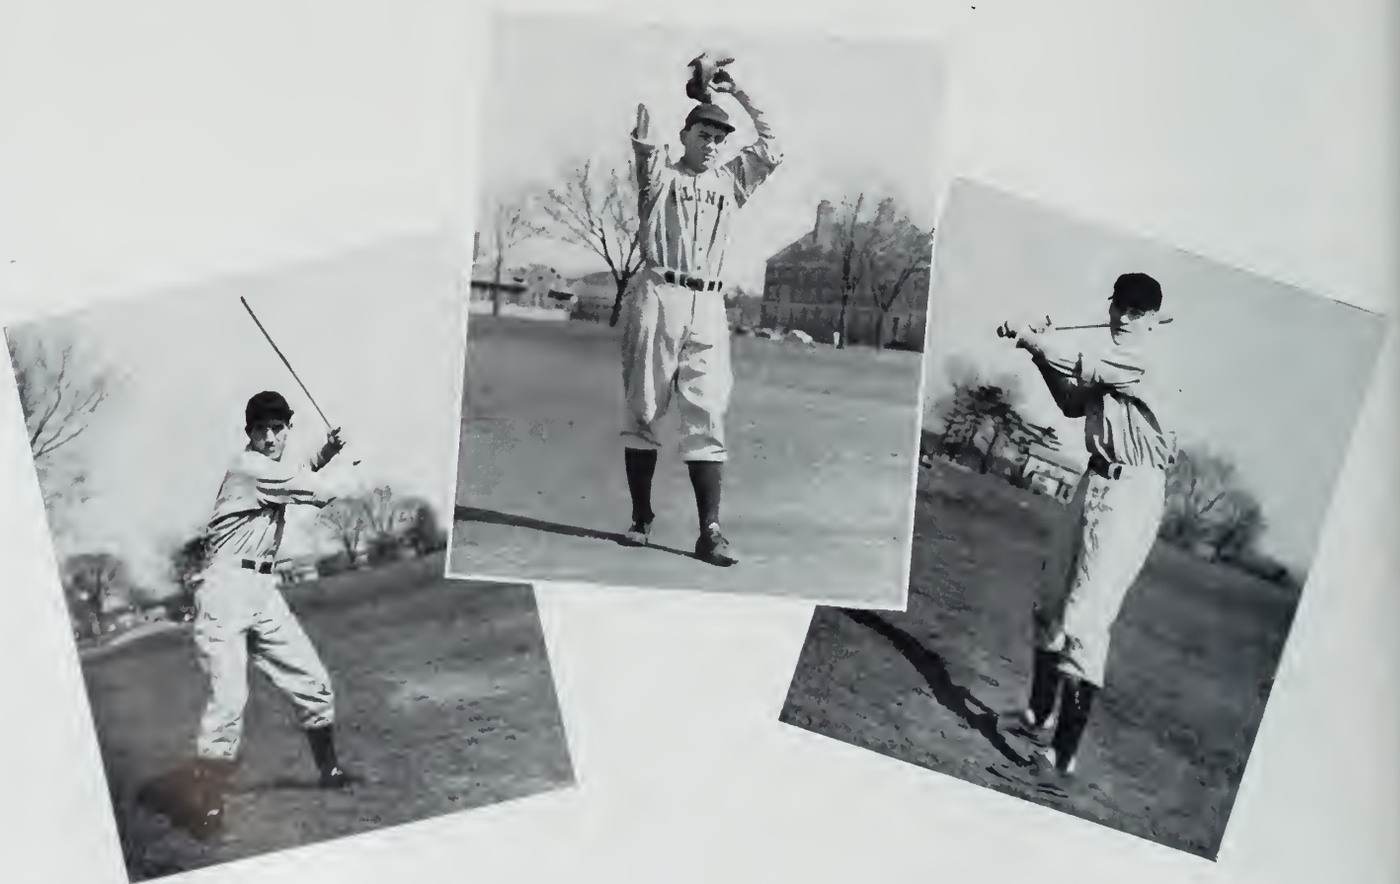

Conference victories No. 3 and 4 came that week-end with Indiana a double victim. Howard Judson fanned 12 of the visitors in the first tilt, which Illinois won 9 to 3, and aided teammate Possehl, on the mound in the second game, by slamming a homer and a triple to drive in 5 of Illinois' 9 runs. Indiana was shut out.

An 8-run rally in the ninth gave the Illini a second triumph over the Navy 13 to 7, after which Illinois journeyed to Minneapolis to split a two-game series with the Gophers, losing the first 6 to 5 and taking the second game 8 to 4.

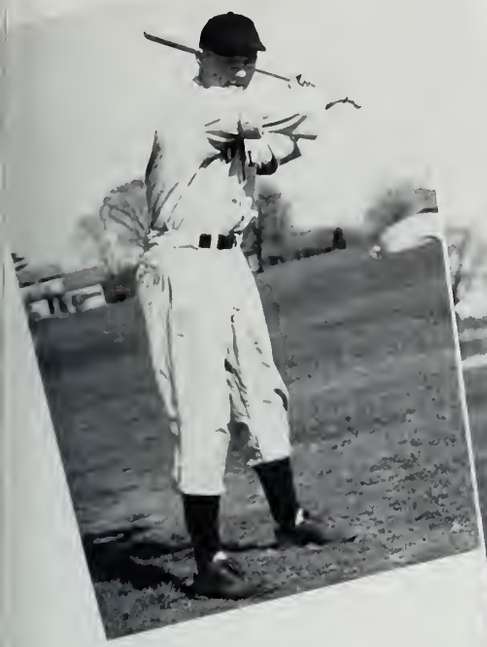

After defeating the Navy for the third consecutive time, 9 to 8, the Illini faced league-leading Michigan on Illinois' Field in the season's finale, a scheduled twin bill, May 20.

The Wolverines took an early lead in the first tilt, but Roy Wiedow slapped a long home run into right field, scoring behind two mates to knot the game at 4 to 4 in the seventh. After a scoreless eighth inning, a spring storm made any further play an impossibility.

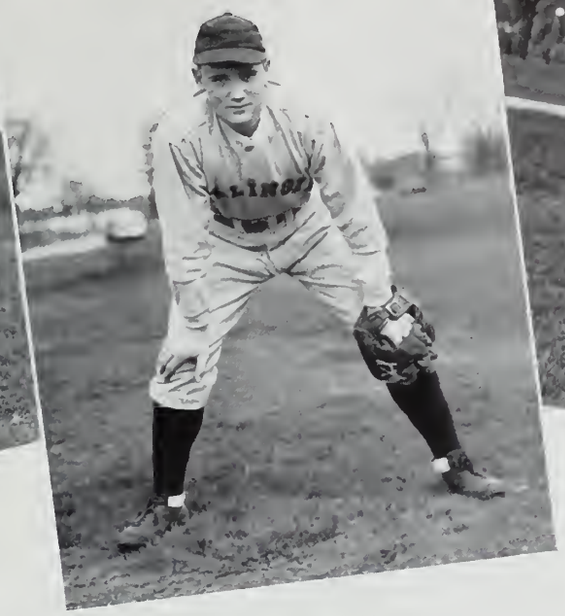

Bill Butkovich, freshman second baseman, led the Illini in hitting for the season with an average of .367, followed by Wiedow with .328, and Judson with .327.

OTHER VARSITY SPORTS

Although baseball, track, football, and basketball are the most publicized sports, Illini athletes have an outstanding record through the years in other sports. Many Big Ten championships have been theirs, and in gymnastics these championships have often been national.

In the 1944-45 season only five other teams were active besides those in the major sports. They were tennis, golf, swimming, wrestling, and cross country track. The tennis team which included many Navy V-12 trainees split even in six dual meets. In golf, the Illini squad dropped five of six matches, winning only from Purdue who later avenged the defeat. The swimming team finished their season with three wins, one loss, and a tie in their dual meet schedule. In the Big Ten meet at Northwestern the wrestling squad won a third place. They had a record of four wins and one loss for the season. The cross country team, made up of all untrained winners, ranked fifth in the Big Ten.

Almost all the teams were made up of inexperienced boys, some Navy V-12 trainees, some freshmen, and a few other civilian students. They all entered into competition with a lot of spirit and in most cases made a good showing.

Coach Ralph Johnson's tennis squad split even in six dual meets during the 1944 season, winning twice from Illinois Normal, defeating Wisconsin and losing to Ohio, Michigan and Chicago.

In the Big Ten meet the Illini doubles combination of Jared Davis and Sanford Jaffe finished second in No. 3 division.

Paul Riepma and Don Staake, both V-12 trainees met the conference's best in all Illinois meets and played excellent tennis.

VARSITY GOLF

As in other sports, Illinois could call on no experienced men in golf competition during the 1944 season. Ralph Fletcher's squad dropped five of six matches winning from Purdue, a defeat which the Boilermakers later avenged, and losing to Chanute Field, Indiana, Ohio State, and Northwestern.

Two players, Gene Emery and Robert Schroder showed promise during the season and were awarded letters. Schroder finished thirteenth in the Big Ten individual standings. The Illini were seventh in team standings.

The Illini tankmen closed their 1945 season with three wins, one loss and a tie in their dual meet schedule. In their only triangular meet, they placed third to Northwestern and Indiana. Opening the season against the Tech Hawks of Illinois Tech, they came to an easy victory 48-36. Following this was their second straight win, this time over DePauw University. The Illini team brought their record to three straight wins when they met and defeated the University of Wisconsin at Madison, their first meet away from home. Traveling to Purdue, the Illini received their first loss of the year when the Boilermakers downed them 52-32. Closing their dual meet schedule, the Illini tied with Iowa in a thrilling meet that was not decided until the final 400 yard relay.

John Haulenbeek, V-12 from South Orange, New Jersey, was the outstanding swimmer on the Illinois team. He lost only one race during the entire season, and placed second in the 50 yard free style event in the Big Ten meet. Bill Mann was elected team captain at the beginning of the season. The most serious loss to the team was that of Tony Kozakiewicz when he was called into the service. Kozakiewicz was a point getter in the sprints and third man on a strong Illini relay team.

The lettermen were: Hugh Olsen, Anthony Konstant, Henry Moore, Merrill Moore, William Mann, and John Haulenbeek.

Newt Law's 1945 wrestling squad compiled a 4-1 win-loss record, and third place in the Big Ten meet at Northwestern. Bob Burwell, next year's captain, was the 121 pound champ at the meet. Roland Harkness, voted "Most Valuable Wrestler," 165, and George Voorhees, 128, were able to place second in their respective weights. Bob Bohannon gained a third in the 136 class. Before even beginning Big Ten competition the Illini squad lost to the Iowa Seahawks, 3-27, Roland Harkness, winning Illinois' only match. In the Big Ten campaign the matmen first pinned Purdue 15-9. Ray Snyder decided the meet in the heavyweight bout winning over Purdue's Dave Thompson 8-4. At Ann Arbor Illinois' young wrestlers handed Michigan their first defeat in two years, winning two bouts by falls, the Illini swept through five of eight bouts for a 21-10 victory. Ed Bower, veteran in the 155 class, threw Stu Snyder of Michigan in two minutes and fourteen seconds for the meet's briefest bout. But fastest match of the year was Bob Smith's pinning his 136 pound opponent in forty-five seconds in the contest with Illinois Tech. Losing only one match the Illini came out with a 27-3 victory. Fourth straight Illini win was 22-6 over Indiana. Lettermen this year were Lou Agase, Bob Bohannon, Ed Bower, Bob Burwell, Roland Harkness, Ray Snyder, George Voorhees and James Watts.

It is interesting to note that the members of the 1944 Cross Country team were all untrained runners. Most of them were Navy V-12 trainees and not one of the boys under the direction of Coach Harold M. Osborn was a letterman. The team started training late and then the training period was interrupted by the official V-12 furlough. After the furlough the boys were called on to enter three meets within two weeks.

Considering the endurance and fortitude necessary for cross country running and the long period of training usually required to develop those qualities, the records made by the boys were not only creditable, they were worthy of the best Illini teams.

TRIBE OF ILLINI

In 1942 when practically every letterman on the campus was called into the U. S. Military Services, the Tribe of Illini was forced to abandon all school activities. During the summer term of 1944 a nucleus of some twenty athletes who had received "I" awards during the 1943-44 school year met and decided to reorganize the Tribe. An initiation was held, officers elected, and plans for the 1944-45 school year were made. At the end of the 1944 football season, the Tribe has an active membership of 61 lettermen, and both the coaching staff and the active members have shown a remarkable interest and willingness to make this year one of the very best. The Tribe Officers are Robert Kelley, President; Robert Hughes, Vice President; Don Greenwood, Secretary-Treasurer; Don Delaney, Sgt. at Arms; and Glenn C. Law, Faculty Advisor.

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals competition was revived this year with thirty-two teams entered in touch football and a total of 850 civilian students participating in the program. Soccer and football championships were decided as we go to press, and basketball was well on the way to a decision. Golf, tennis, track, and softball competition was contemplated. Previous to this year interest in intramurals was stagnant, but from now on big things can be expected. Intramurals are in a period of transition. With the ending of the war the former high spirit that once made the rivalry between organizations on campus strong will be renewed.

ILLINOIS LOYALTY

Chief Illiniwek, Kenneth O. Hanks

Loyalty Committee: Tom Smith, Ruth Loveless

On this page are the people responsible for the "Go, Illini, Go" spirit which was maintained at every athletic event throughout the year. Illini everywhere hold in their hearts the memory of the stirring strains of "Illinois Loyalty" and "Alma Mater," as well as the chant the cheerleaders lead. "Go, Illini" and "I-L-L-I-N-I" echoes through the stadium and high in the rafters of Huff Gymnasium. An all Navy V-12 group of cheerleaders kept the spirit high this year and no one can forget the traditional dance of Chief Illiniwek in full Indian costume. It's things like this that make college more like it was planned to be.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

"To promote the general welfare of the student body, to exercise the powers of student government granted it" is the purpose of the Student Senate. This organization is the student self-government organization of the University.

The Senate supervises general University social events, honorary organizations, and extra-curricular activities. The Senate is made up of twenty-one student members, six of which are heads of campus activities, and fifteen elected members from the various classes.

The Freshman Council, composed of ten members, acts as the governing body of the Freshman class throughout the freshman year. Membership on the Council is chosen by the Student Senate committee by interviews.

Much of campus activity radiates from the Illini Union. The work of the Illini Union Student Activities is to administer student activities of an all-University nature. The Union consists of the Departments of Dances, Recreation, War Service, Public Service, and Special Affairs. The latter is in charge of the arrangements for Homecoming, Mother's Day, Dad's Day, and produces the annual Illini Union Show.

Much enjoyment and valuable experience are gained through student organizations on the Illini campus. Other student activities at the University are the Illini Theater Guild, Star Course, The Illio, various musical organizations, The Daily Illini, and Illini Veterans.

STUDENT SENATE

With a purpose of promoting the general welfare of the student body, the Student Senate has under its jurisdiction such matters as University dances and all student elections. Meeting on alternate Wednesdays, the Senate is composed of ten ex-officio members as heads of campus organizations, and fifteen elected members.

The expenses of the group are defrayed by the Student Senate Fund, which is made up of 1.5% of the gross income of all dances.

A Student Council of six Senators meets with the Committee on Student Affairs in the administration of student matters. No regulation may become effective until it is acted upon by both of these groups. Proof that student representation on this campus is of a very high degree is shown in the fact that any Senator is required to introduce a measure requested in writing by any member of the student body.

Sub-committees of the Senate are: Men's and Women's Housing and Living Organizations committees, Organization Social Events committee, Student Audit and Supervision committee, Campus activities committee, Professional and Honorary Societies committee, Motor Car Permits and Bicycles Regulations committee.

The University Audit and Supervision Committee is a student-faculty board which is the administrative body for all general University social functions. It is composed of five students chosen by the Student Senate, one student and three faculty members chosen by the Student Affairs Committee, and a member of the Dean of Men's staff.

Programs, decorations, budgets, special activities, and all other phases of student managed dances are left in the hands of individual committees, with the Dance Committee retaining final control. The Committee supervises printing, issuing, collecting and auditing of tickets, and patron and complimentary ticket lists.

Before final steps can be made by the individual dance committees, approval of date, place, and budget of proposed dances must be had from the Committee.

ILLINI UNION COUNCIL

The function of the Illini Union Board is to unify and coordinate student activities. All special days and events, most dances, and student use of the Illini Union Building are under the jurisdiction of the Board. Any profits from Illini Union functions are redistributed to the students in the form of free services and entertainment, in accordance with a budget approved by the Board.

The Illini Union Board consists of five student directors who comprise the Executive Board, three faculty advisors, the social director and the manager of the Illini Union, the director of the Alumni Association, student representatives of independent and fraternity men and women, and the chairman of publicity and office management.

The Illini Union Council consists of all the major chairmen and directors of the Illini Union. The Council meets bimonthly and each chairman reports to the group on the work of his committee. In these meetings each chairman becomes better acquainted with his co-workers. He also gets a concept of the functioning of the Union as a whole and of the activities of departments and committees beside his own.

DEPARTMENT OF DANCES

Eloine Hedges, Director

The Department of Dances offers a full and varied selection of dances and dancing classes. On Tuesday nights square dancing, with instruction, is offered for an hour-and-a-half. Two social dancing classes, for beginners and advanced dancers, are given on Wednesday, and a free mixer is held after the classes.

Another regular feature is the Saturday night orchestra dance in the Illini Union Ballroom. Both orchestra and record dances are an attraction for the students and faculty as well.

The special dance committee of the Department also sponsors larger dances usually held in Huff Gym, such as the Homecoming Dance, Dad's Day Dance, and others during the year.

Homecoming attracted a large and enthusiastic crowd to such events as the stunt show, pep rally, and dance.

University Sings were held monthly with such themes as "College Days" and "Christmas".

Campus talent was recruited for the third annual Illini Union Show "Anything Goes," a musical by Cole Porter.

Although traditional Mother's Day was banned, Mothers were honored by a radio program, Sing, and written messages of congratulation.

The Coffee Hour Committee sponsors Student-Faculty Coffee Hours every Thursday afternoon. Sunday evening programs for servicemen are planned by the At-Ease Committee. The Music Hours sponsor classical recorded programs daily, while the Pine Lounge Records Committee provides favorite radio programs and popular music. Ping-pong, bowling, billiards, bridge, chess, and checkers keep the Tournaments Committee and sports-minded students busy. At the Illini Town Meetings topics of current interest are discussed. Special free entertainment is sponsored by the Friday Night Entertainment Committee.

In its seventy-second year of service the University Young Men's Christian Association, "an association of students and faculty," continues its program of meeting the needs of men on this campus.

Through another war year, the Y has maintained an active program and the membership level compares very favorably with other years.

One may find his interests met in the varied program which includes discussion groups, inspirational meetings, social events, and committee work. The Y seeks to reach every man on the campus, whether he is a member or not.

The traditional freshman camp, whose purpose is to orient new students to the University has been continued in an abridged form. Illinois always has in its enrollment students from other lands. Work with these guests is an important Y activity.

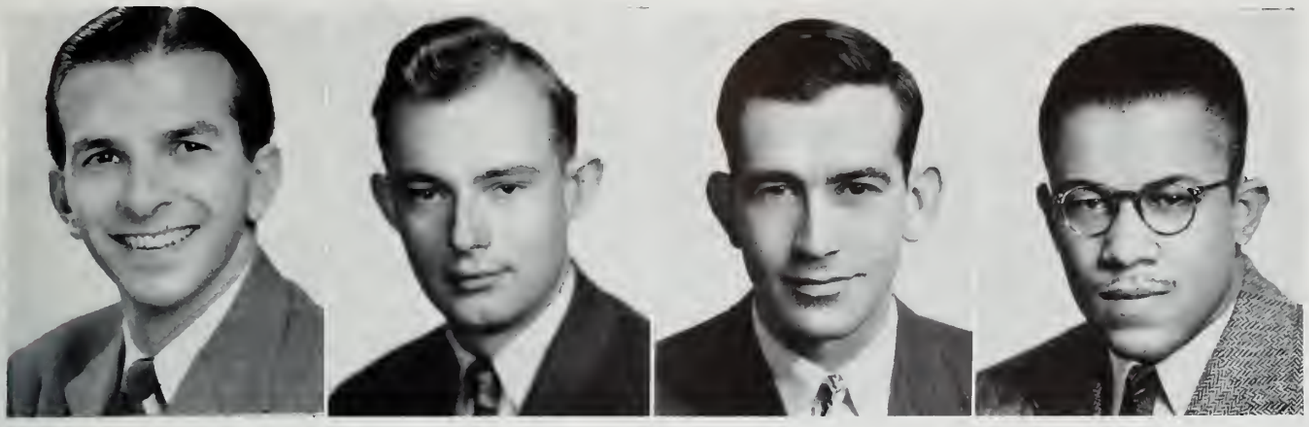

Servicemen and veterans on the campus use the facilities of the Y and participate in activities planned by their own group.

Along with other organizations, the Y finds its members scattered all over the world today. The "Round Robin," a popular news letter, is sent regularly to the Y's six hundred servicemen.

The Y is looking ahead and making plans for effective service in the post-war period when campus life is back to normal.

In May, 1944, the Illini Veterans organization was founded. The initiative was taken by Dean of Men, E. E. Stafford, and the president of Interfraternity Council, George Sturm. It started with twenty-five men and its present membership includes three-hundred-and-fifty veterans on campus. This organization took part in the Homecoming Stunt Show; it sponsored a War Bond and Stamp Drive, Dance, and Victory Ball; several All Campus Meetings; and a refresher course in scholastic work for new and old veterans. By aiding in Housing and Rehabilitation, many new veterans have been able to make adjustments more easily on campus. With the returning of more veterans to the campus, the membership and work of this organization will continue to expand in the coming year.

HILLEL FOUNDATION

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at the University of Illinois was created to serve as a "Home Away from Home" for Jewish students at Illinois. There friendly advice and guidance are given to the students by Dr. Sachar and Rabbi Silverman, the Foundation Directors.

Hillel aims to prepare young men and women for leadership in their home community through experience in the Hillel student program.

Some of the highlights of the Hillel year were: Hillel Credit courses in religious and cultural values, Annual Book Review Series, The Monthly Newspaper, Sing and Stunt Show, Religious Services, Sunday Evening Town Hall Forums, Cost Suppers, and the annual Hillel play.

ILLINOIS DISCIPLES' FOUNDATION

The Illinois Disciples' Foundation, maintained by the Christian churches of Illinois, is a religious and social center for students. Dr. Stephen Fisher, pastor of University Place Christian Church and Director of the Disciples' Foundation, Mrs. Hilda Ruth Hippensteele, and a representative cabinet-council cooperate in planning and integrating the active program.

Laughter and meditation are both common experiences shared by the fellows and girls who work and worship in the varied activities. Each Sunday night there is social nourishment for all who attend our Candle-tip Supper Hour. Parties and banquets are interspersed throughout the regular weekly events, so "there is never a dull moment" for the Discipillini.

McKINLEY FOUNDATION

McKinley Foundation is the Presbyterian center for all students. The foundation was established by the generous endowment of the late Senator George B. McKinley.

A student Council supervises all the activities at McKinley. Dr. James R. Hine, Reverend Russell Shaw, and Miss Jennis Barry, counselor, compose the permanent staff which works with the council. A threefold program is offered by McKinley Foundation; worship, Christian education, and recreation.

Church services are held in McKinley Memorial Presbyterian Church, adjoining the Foundation. Vesper services are held every Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock. Supper Club meets every Sunday evening for the McKinleyites. The Foundation is always open for informal gatherings; to sing, read, study, or play games.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is the center for Methodist students and servicemen, providing a church life especially designed for campus needs. The Student Council plans and directs this program with an adult staff, as advisers, and Rev. Paul Burt, as director.

Major phases of the program are the church service, a student class, a fellowship supper, and Vespers on Sunday, service projects of various kinds, and study and discussion groups on the Bible and on social problems. The service projects include support of a child refugee, Christmas gifts to children in Japanese-American Relocation Camps, and several community service projects. Choir and drama groups are also active.

The Newman Club is the official organization for Catholic students attending the University of Illinois. It has a threefold purpose: to deepen the spiritual and enrich the temporal lives of its members through a balanced program of religious, intellectual, and social activities; to weld the Catholic students into a common union; and to assist the University and its students whenever possible.

Activities of the Newman Club range from corporate communions, discussion study clubs, retreats, lectures and debates, to dramatics, parties, dances and picnics. In carrying out its widely varied program the Newman Club makes use of its own library, auditorium, lounge and recreation rooms, located in the Student Center at St. John's Catholic Chapel on campus.

ROGER WILLIAMS FELLOWSHIP

The Roger Williams Fellowship joins with other student organizations in colleges and universities throughout the United States in a vital program that has meaning for its members, for the campus community, and the Christian cause around the world.

Scheduled meetings include Wednesday afternoon relaxation hours, Vespers, Wednesday evening Bible Discussion groups, Student-Faculty Forums, a Candlelight Supper each Sunday evening, and the Sunday morning Bible Class.

The service of worship Sunday morning is central to the life of this "church beside the campus" which also provides a laboratory in which to work out the discovery of truths in the field of religion.

STUDENT RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

Interdenominational religious cooperation at the University of Illinois is accomplished through the Religious Workers Association and the Student Religious Council. The R.W.A. consists of the staff members of the several denominational foundations and the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. The Student Religious Council is composed of two student delegates from each of these same organizations plus a delegate from M.I.W.A., Inter-Fraternity, Pan-Hellenic, and W.G.S. Two advisors are appointed from the Religious Workers Association.

The Student Religious Council sponsors Campus Matins and with the aid of the R.W.A. sponsors special campus-wide services on Thanksgiving, Holy Week, Good Friday, and Easter.

MIWA is a campus organization for all independent men who attend the University. The main purpose of this organization is to provide a means for extra-curricular participation, to promote fellowship, and to develop qualities of leadership among the students.

The Ward Executive Council is the governing body of the entire organization. The Council is composed of the MIWA executive officers, the ward presidents, chairman of the Ward Intramural Council, and two faculty advisors. The Executive Council sponsors all group social and recreational activities of the Ward's programs.

MIWA divides the campus into wards in order to create competition between these units, for competition will provide the independent men with the incentive to better their houses, to participate in various campus activities, and to win recognition where it is warranted. Another function of MIWA is to promote a feeling of pride in the independent students—a pride that will cause them to do much toward greater unity and pleasant relationships with all other campus organizations.

The All-University Convocations series was started in February, 1944, to bring to the campus a group of competent speakers on subjects of general interest. The convocations are without charge and the series was an experiment which proved so successful that it was continued during the school year 1944-45. Nationally known speakers have lectured on the fields of politics, economics, literature, the arts, education, and events of current interest.

The first speaker was Gregor Ziemer, author of "Education for Death" which was made into the movie Hitler's Children. Ziemer, alumnus of the class of 1922, in his lecture on March 6 described Hitler and his war lords as he had observed them while in Germany.

CONVOCATIONS

Alexander Kerensky, premier of the short-lived Russian provisional government in the spring of 1917, spoke on "Russia in the International Situation" on March 17. Upton Close, radio commentator who spent many years in the Far East, spoke on current affairs with emphasis on the war in the Pacific. He lectured on April 10. George Fort Milton discussed "The Art of Being President" on May 4. Mr. Milton is an historian and has served as consultant to various government agencies in Washington, D. C.

John T. Flynn, journalist, author and economist, talked on "Prologue to Facism" on May 18. Col. M. Thomas Tchou, former secretary to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Chek, discussed China's role in world affairs on October 21. The final speaker in the first series was Edward Weeks, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, who lectured on literature in war time.

Always the Woman

UNIVERSITY WOMEN

To the casual observer—to her soldier overseas—the Illini coed looks the same as she did the day he left campus . . . cashmere sweater . . . plaid skirt . . . loafers . . . raincoats in the spring . . . gaily colored kerchiefs thrown over her shiny hair.

But she has more sisters today, the coed of '45 . . . 3,862 to be exact. She studies hard . . . her grades are good—a B- average. She works in activities . . . the Illini Union, she is president . . . the Illini, she is editor . . . on the Illio, she serves as both editor and business manager. She relaxes in Theater Guild . . . W.A.A. sports keep her in condition.

This year the Illini coed lives in twenty fraternity houses leased by the university . . . and decorates with frills what were last year's ASTP barracks. In the spring her Torch scarf, the Mortar Board cap and gown are her goal of service to the University. She works to be a part of American life . . . American society.

She buys war-stamps and makes servicemen's scrapbooks . . . or helps at the U.S.O. She waits in ques for hard-to-get cigarettes . . . and writes V-mails. She lives for the mail . . . for news of her serviceman. And her lipstick is just as bright. She hopes for his return.

PANHELLENIC

Panhellenic . . . the advisory organization governing all sorority members, each spring sponsors a workshop to foster inter-sorority spirit and cooperation, featured by the announcement of scholarship awards and officers for the coming year. The 1945 theme . . . "Fraternities in a World at War."

Department activities have followed this general theme . . . formation of the new Social and War department . . . promoting participation in the campus War Chest Drive . . . Sophomore Council's sponsorship of Panhellenic's part in the Red Cross "Illini Pow-Wow."

More traditional activities were the all-pledge banquet held in February, arranged by the pledge department, and formation of the Pledge Council, made up of the twenty pledge class presidents, a tea and bridge party for sorority chaperons sponsored by the social and war department, the exchange dinners sponsored by Sophomore Council, and publication of the Panhellenic rushing booklet. Each semester Panhellenic presents awards to the sorority and independent houses making the highest scholastic average and house showing the greatest grade improvement respectively.

Panhellenic is composed of the Council made up of the twenty chapter presidents and the Executive Committee, composed of the four officers, the court of appeals, and the departmental chairmen, listed below.

WOMAN'S GROUP SYSTEM

The Woman's Group System governs all Independent Women on the campus. Each house is considered one W.G.S. group. There are also Scatter Groups in which town girls and girls living in a very small group or singly may participate. Each house or group plans their own social and service activities for the year.

The standing committees which function during the year are: social, music, scrapbook, awards, publicity, and newspaper. Any girl may petition for a position on these committees.

Activities for W.G.S. as a group include the W.G.S. Stunt Show, Christmas Musical, President's Banquet, District Teas, and the Spring Awards Tea.

The group activities are governed by the Executive Council which consists of the president, vice-president and freshman adviser, secretary, treasurer, district chairmen, and committee chairmen. Elections are held each spring to elect the president, secretary, and treasurer for the following year. These officers are installed at the Spring Awards Tea.

Honor Council is the recognition of the houses which have done outstanding work in scholarship, in social activities, and in service activities during the year. The plaques on which the names of the houses appear that have made Honor Council hang in the first floor hallway of the woman's Building.

Y. W. C. A.

For sixty-one years, the Young Women's Christian Association has held an important and influential position on the University of Illinois campus serving as a laboratory for the daily practice of Christian living. This organization, composed of women students, faculty, and alumnae interested in maintaining the Christian ideals of brotherhood and good will, has helped many students realize "full and creative life."

This year, as in years before, the Y.W.C.A. sponsored weekly Thursday afternoon vespers and teas. Once again the annual Doll Show was a big success, and many underprivileged children became the proud possessors of the dolls. The "Y" has done its part also toward building up the morale of our servicemen through its War Service Department, and the Social Recreation Department did not forget the servicemen on the campus in its social program.

Y. W. C. A.

Freshmen should be honored by the special attention given them by the "Y"; for they are uppermost in the minds of those who plan the activities of the "Y". Through freshmen discussion groups and various social programs, new girls become more readily adjusted to university life.

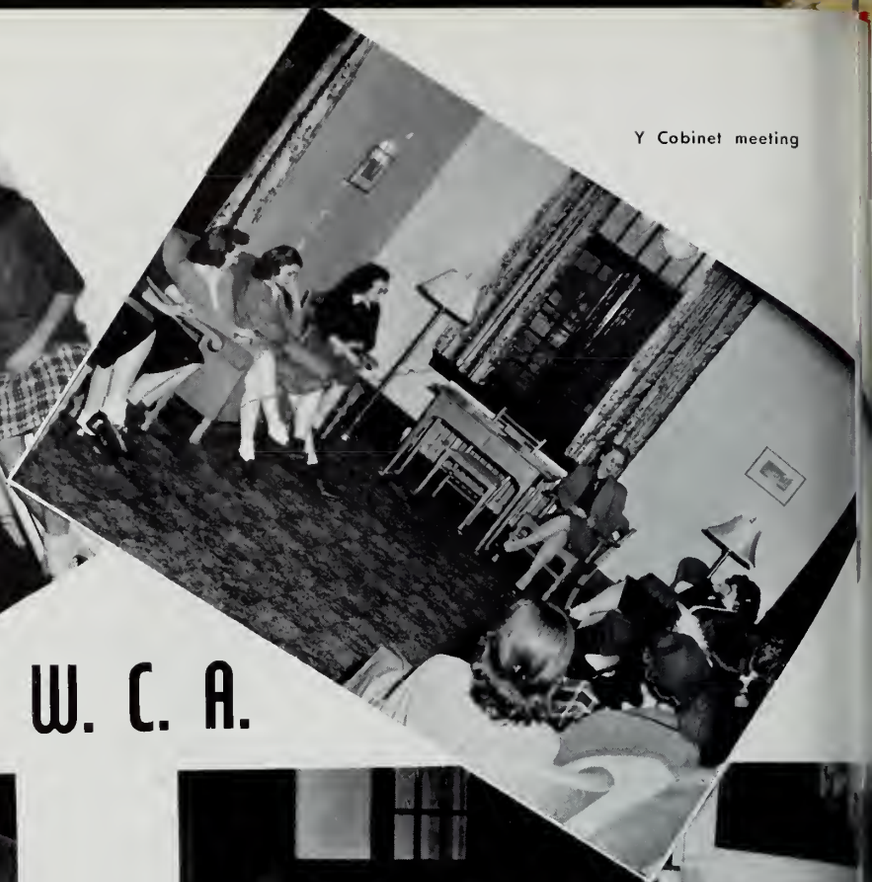

There is no definite membership fee, but each woman contributes voluntarily to the support of the "Y" program. All university women are invited to participate in any part of the Y.W.C.A. program.

We know that every girl cannot be a Mortar Board member or the May Day Queen. Limitations apply also to athletic ability, but this fact does not prevent a University of Illinois co-ed from participating in W.A.A. activities. This year, four hundred girls, more girls than ever before, took part in girls' athletics. Each girl had the opportunity to acquire skill in many different sports, for a place had been found for almost every sport in the four-season program.

Any girl may become an active member of W.A.A. upon completion of one sports season. Successful completion of ten sports seasons is the requisite for the highest award, the Major "I". Orange class numerals go to those girls who complete six sports seasons.

Besides the four sport seasons, there are several special events each year. This year the members participated in a Homecoming reception and in hockey games with two different Chicago teams.

Orchesis, an honorary dancing group, and Terrapin, an honorary swimming group, are under the sponsorship of W.A.A.

Alpha Sigma Nu, the W.A.A. honorary, has as its members those girls with a University average of "B" who have completed eight sports seasons.

From Freshman Week until graduation day, W.A.A. has some planned activity for all girls interested in athletics. These activities promote the aim of the Woman's Athletic Association—honesty, loyalty, and good sportsmanship.

ORCHESIS

A keen sense of rhythm, a flare for creative imagination, and an enthusiastic participation characterize the members of Orchesis, Illinois' honorary dance organization. With music serving as the inspiration, ideas are expressed in movements, and these movements grow into dances.

Each year, besides several dance recitals, this group gives a gala spring concert. Beautiful costumes and stage settings enhance the interpretative dances.

Orchesis is divided into two groups. The more advanced members constitute the concert group, while the others are members of the beginning group.

TERRAPIN

In an elaborate "Spring Aquacade," thirty girls displayed syncronized swimming and water formations, activities typical of Terrapin, the honorary swimming club. The members of this group through their swimming execute poise, grace, and rhythm.

This winter for the first time, a swimming meet was held. Trophies were given as awards to the winning interhouse relay team and to the outstanding individual swimmer.

Members are chosen after tryouts and placed in one of two groups—Major or Minor Terrapin, depending upon their degree of swimming skill. It takes outstanding swimming and diving ability to become a member of this organization.

PUBLICATIONS

Staffed almost entirely by girls, publications of the University continued to operate on an almost-normal basis during the 1944-45 school year. . . . The Illio staff was entirely feminine save for some male help on photography and sports writing. . . . The Daily Illini had its first woman sports editor, continued to come out five times each week during the fall and spring terms, four times in the summer session. . . . Shortages of help on the staff and in the mechanical department caused the two magazines, The Illinois Agriculturist and The Illinois Technograph, to miss some deadlines, but an all-girl staff of "sis ags" kept their publication alive, and V-12's provided the nucleus for the Tech's staff. . . . The parent institution of student publications, the Illini Publishing Company, endeavoring to hold down the inroads on its sizeable reserve fund, tried to strike a balance between war economies and prewar standards of quality in publications. A new chairman, C. A. Moyer, headed the Illini board of control.

In a remote corner of Illini hall is the Illio office where amid the rattle of typewriters, the odor of rubber cement, and the general confusion caused by busy people, Rose Anne Stewart, Editor, and Mayta Ballis, Assistant Editor, manage to bring order out of chaos and produce the Illio of 1945. Rose Anne and Mayta are responsible for the style of the yearbook and for the general supervision of its production. Their many headaches throughout the year they hope have been worthwhile. The Art staff headed by J. William Kennedy, assistant professor of Art, includes three students, Edson Newquist, Ruth Wahlberg, and Martha Gullett. From many sketches they designed the art work in the book.

They take care of the sale of books, the sale of advertising, and all the other financial matters for the yearbook. They patiently answer innumerable questions which people ask every day from two to five. The staff of photographers walk many miles over Campus taking pictures for the book and then spend a great number of long hours in the darkroom developing them. On the staff are Bill Blankenberg, Lee Sullivan, Quandt Adams, Bill Migon, Edward Dessen, and Stuart Rubin.

THE DAILY ILLINI

For the first time in seventy-three years the Daily Illini had an all-girl staff the first semester of 1944-1945. Jean Hurt headed the staff both semesters with Barbara Richardson, Patricia Freyman, Kay House, and Teresa Reese as senior editors. Jill Drum had the distinction of being the first woman sports editor. Second semester Merrill Pritchard was appointed a senior editor and Gene Shalit was chosen sports editor. Juniors on the staff in charge of various phases of reporting are: Mary Ellen Brown, Illini Union; Sam King, administration; Rosanne Marschak, Star Course; Martha Swain, Army and Navy; and Helen Green and Dick Kranz, sports. More than one hundred freshmen and spohomores work on the staff, spending week nights reading proof and days chasing stories.

The business staff of the Daily Illini with Virginia Mauney as Business Manager balances the budget and promotes reader interest. Peggy Melin was assistant business manager. At the beginning of second semester Jean Herron was also appointed an assistant business manager. Helping them are Kay Seed, circulation; Lois Black, statistics; Julia Rochow, advertising; and Delores Schwartz, copy. Underclassmen also have a place on the business staff. Twenty-two sophomores and forty-five freshmen are now being trained to take the places of the juniors and seniors. They help alleviate the staff headaches, distribution and statistical work, and they spend much time soliciting advertising from the local merchants and professional men for the Daily Illini.

ILLINI PUBLISHING COMPANY

The four student publications of the University of Illinois are under the management of the Illini Publishing Company. The publications are the Illio, a yearbook, the Illini, a daily newspaper, the Agriculturist magazine published by the students of the College of Agriculture, and the Technograph, a magazine published by those in the College of Engineering.

The company is under the control of a board of eight directors, four faculty members appointed by the president of the University to serve for one year and four student members elected by the student body to serve for two years each.

The board watches over the activities of the student editors and business managers, encouraging them to use their own initiative and judgment. Vacancies on the staffs of all the student publications are filled with selections by the board of control from the recommendations of the student heads.

Chairman of the board this year is Cecil A. Moyer, assistant professor of accountancy, and the company manager employed to operate the business and to advise the student leaders is Paul C. McMichael. The company serves the community and the University with high quality printing and publishing at low cost.

THE AGRICULTURIST

The Illinois Agriculurist has its third woman editor this year since the beginning of the war. She is Betty Ann Parkes. The woman's editor is Betsy Kindred. Handling the business staff is Lillian Schrader, business manager. The magazine, which is published six times yearly, covers the activities of the students of the College of Agriculture. Information about current happenings in the school and features of interest to the students find their way into its pages. The student staff is assisted by a Faculty Advisory Board: O. H. Sears, R. H. Wilcox, A. S. Colby, C. S. Rhode, and Miss Jesse Heatherman.

THE TECHNOGRAPH

The Illinois Technograph is a monthly magazine published by the students of the College of Engineering. Its contents include technical and semi-technical articles on engineering and biographies of outstanding student, alumni, and faculty engineers. Reports on the activities of various engineering honoraries and organizations also find their way into the pages of the Technograph. Very popular with students is a large section which is devoted to humor and gossip about engineers. This year in order to encourage and inform prospective engineers the staff adopted the policy of sending copies of the magazine to high schools. The Technograph staff this year included Melvin Long, editor, Anne Lindberg, Mike Martus, Bert Levey, and Hal Diehl, assistant editors, and Frank Holecek, business manager.

STAGE, CONCERT, AND MUSIC

To provide entertainment for students, faculty, and townspeople is the purpose of eleven campus organizations.

The Illini Theatre Guild with the aid of Mask and Bauble, Pierrots, and Arepo, honoraries associated with the Guild, produces five plays and one operetta each year. The University Concert and Entertainment Board supervises all paid entertainments which are brought to the University. Star Course usually presents just one series of well-known artists, but this year because tickets were sold out during the first few days, they arranged for another series of concerts by a string quartet.

The Illini Football band was featured at football games. The personnel of this group includes ROTC students, ASTR's and Navy V-12 trainees. The University Concert Band gave their anniversary concert March 28 in the Auditorium. Every Wednesday following Easter they gave their traditional twilight concerts on the Auditorium steps. The University Orchestra had a concert in Smith Music Hall March 18. Before the Christmas vacation the University Chorus presented "The Messiah" and Women's Glee Club sang their traditional Christmas cantata.

GUILD BOARD

Standing: John Senger, Professor Cameron Gullette
Seated: Professor Abner Knight, Louise Proehl, Mory Stevens, Professor Chester Anderson

Wesley Swansan, Generol Director; Charles Shattuck, Associate Director; Louise Proehl, Generol Manager

The jean-clad coed, the smell of grease-paint, and the ring of hammers are as familiar to the members of the Illini Theatre Guild as the sights, smells, and sounds of every day life. Mad dashes to the printers, the business of the box office, and the writing of playbills are another side of the vast organization of production and it takes ten or more students working on backstage crews who never reach the footlights, but who are vital in maintaining the high standard of Guild productions. The huge undertakings of the Illini Theatre Guild are supervised by Wesley Swanson as General Director and Acting Technical Director. Lt. Joseph W. Scott is Technical Director now on military leave. Charles Shattuck is Associate Director. During second semester Mr. Swanson was aided by two former Guild managers, Lyle Schwabe McKinney and Martha Messenger Thomas. The executive authority of the Guild is vested in the Guild Board. On this Board are representatives from the three dramatic honoraries and three faculty members, Professors Abner Knight, Cameron Gullette, and Chester Anderson. Mary Stevens represents Mask and Bauble, all-University dramatics honorary; John Senger represents Pierrot's, men's dramatic honorary; and Aline Fairchild is on the Board for Arepo, operatic honorary. The chairman of the Board is the Guild General Manager, Louise Proehl. To carry out the many aspects of theatre activity the Guild has a system of sophomore, junior, and senior managers. This year we have thirty-four sophomore managers, eight junior production managers, four junior business managers, and nine seniors to supervise the work. Something new this fall was the revival of our apprentice system, wherein each sophomore manager had twenty or so freshmen under wing. This system is merely another way of saying "hello" to new workers and helping them to feel at home in the Illini Theatre Guild.

THEATRE GUILD

THEATRE GUILD

Senior managers, each in charge of a special crew, help the juniors and generally supervise the work. Nancy Girhard is in charge of scenery-painting, Mary Alice Lambert, business, Vivian Marx, C-17, the soldier entertainment project. Jo Ann Perring, make-up, Virginia Train, costumes, Rosanna Webster, scenery construction, Lorraine Illich, properties manager, Toby Igler, assistant to the director, and Louise Proehl, General Manager. The juniors on production, which includes construction, scenery-painting, properties, make-up and costumes, are: Peggy Bachman, Sherri Becker, Miriam Buzzell, Betty Goulet, Ruth Johnston, Eleanor Lukens, Ruth Lewis and Mark Robinson. On business the following junior managers serve: Beverly Frank, Carol Quimby, Lee Slusser, and Blossom Smargon. The juniors rotate in supervising different departments. The Illini Theatre Guild is very proud of its contributions to the war effort. The C-17 project was established shortly after the war began, and since that time over 100,000 service men and women have entertained by University students under Guild supervision. Everything from Variety acts to Shakespearian drama has trouped to the various service centers and hospitals. In cooperation with the Special Services at Chanute Field, the GI Quiz show has been a popular feature every Wednesday night at the Service Club, with free cigarettes to the lucky winners! A series of one-act plays was presented in January, both for campus audiences and for service men at Chanute Field and in Champaign-Urbana. Joe Pawlish directed "She Was Only a Farmer's Daughter," and Florence Lynn was in charge of a one-act version of "The Warrior's Husband." Thus the scope of the Illini Theatre Guild is great; its productions include everything from melodrama to Shakespeare, its crews are large and varied, its audiences include high school students, University students, faculty, townspeople, and service personnel.

MASK AND BAUBLE

Running the dramatic gamut from William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" to Thornton Wilder's impossible "Skin of Our Teeth" interspersed with Anthony Trollope's "Barchester Towers," Mask and Bauble sponsored a highly varied season. Each year Mask and Bauble acts as sponsor to three or four Illini Theatre Guild productions. Students doing outstanding work on the stage, back-stage, and in the business office in these and other productions are elected to membership upon fulfilling certain requirements. Since its organization in 1905 Mask and Bauble has been an influential group on the Illinois campus. The honorary's founder, Thatcher Hawland Guild, is further distinguished as the author of "Illinois Loyalty." It is through the efforts and interest maintained by Mask and Bauble, and by Arepo and Pierrots, that the Theatre Guild has developed into the largest undergraduate campus activity. Mask and Bauble's membership is not restricted to men, nor its activity to musical productions. This gives it a broad outlook in encouraging interest in student dramatics.

PIERROTS

OFFICERS—Deon DuBaff, Jahn Senger, Sidney Rushakaff

Fair Hahvahd has its Hasty Pudding Club; Princeton presents the Triangle show; Penn State applauds for Mask and Wig; and Chicago has the Black Friars—but in Pierrots of the Illini Theatre Guild, the University of Illinois has an all-male dramatic organization that has earned for itself an enviable reputation.

One of the older campus organizations, begun in 1911, Pierrots was originally created for the purpose of staging student written musicals, presented by an all-male cast. Recently the work of the organization has been modified to present professionally written plays. The last of these shows was Clare Booth's "The Women" staged in the fall of 1942. Since then war-time restrictions on materials, and the instability of all-male personnel has restricted Pierrots dramatic activity to one act plays, and assistance in other Theatre Guild productions.

Pierrots' alums have been scattered to the many battle fronts sprawled over the earth. Several members are well known service entertainers, swinging from a one-night stand in India to another in China's interior by plane.

AREPO

Back in 1933 Theatre Guild members decided that they needed a musical honorary as well as a dramatics honorary. Arepo was founded to honor those students who have a part in the production of musicals and operettes. Today's organization with Virginia Train as president sponsors one operetta each year. This year it is Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Sorcerer." The four feminine leads are Carol White, Rita Styles, Patricia Smith, and Marguerite Laning. Sydney Rushakoff is John Wellington Wells, the sorcerer. Other officers are Lorraine Illich, vice-president, Jo Ann Perring, secretary, and Margaret Farr, Guild Board representative. Activities this year besides the show include a dinner and a party with Pierrots.

CONCERT AND ENTERTAINMENT BOARD

C. A. Webber, Frederic B. Stiven

Present members of the University Concert and Entertainment Board are: Director Frederic B. Stiven, chairman; C. A. Webber, executive secretary; Professor Lloyd Morey, treasurer; Professor G. L. Clark; Professor P. V. B. Jones; Professor J. G. Vanderpool; Shirley Bauer; Martha Hiett; Nancy Kollman; and Ann Miles. The board was created in 1930 to manage the Star Course and related activities. It supervises all concerts and public entertainments given by professional artists and organizations in University buildings. The six faculty members are appointed by the president of the University and the four students are elected by the Student Senate in the spring of their sophomore year to serve for two years. The board manages all funds arising from the sale of tickets and other income. Another duty is to select the Star Course Senior managers, Junior managers, and Sophomore assistants.

Margaret Robbins, Ann Benson, Co-Manogers

Ann Benson and Margaret Robbins were the senior managers of a very successful Star Course season this year. During the first week of ticket sales tickets were completely sold out. To satisfy the demand for more entertainment Star Course brought a series of chamber music programs to the campus. Music lovers may see and hear their favorite artists by submitting their suggestions to the Star Course office in the Illini Union building. Members of the staff also add their suggestions and the final choice is made by the University Concert and Entertainment Board. Today's organization grew from a lecture series sponsored by literary societies on the campus in 1883. From 1891 on the Star Lecture Course was given. In 1931 Star Course was place under the control of the Concert and Entertainment Board which supervises all public entertainment at the University.

STAR COURSE

Junior managers this season were: Allene Eberle, Lois Friedrich, Jane Jordan, Melba Miller, Carolyn Steele, and Mary Stevens. Under the seniors' supervision they take care of the accounts, make arrangements for publicity, check tickets, and help entertain the artists. At concerts the juniors are in charge of the box office and serve as squad leaders for the sophomores who sell tickets. Sophomore staff members also do filing, typing, and ushering. Besides attending the concerts the staff members have the privilege of closer, more personal contact with the artists backstage. The Concert and Entertainment Board selects the staff personnel. Sophomore managers are chosen for their work in freshmen activities, their scholarship, and their interest. By persistence they make themselves eligible for jobs in their junior and senior years.

Yehudi Menuhin, one of the foremost violinists of today, opened the 1944-45 season on November 8th. He displayed all the skill and beauty of quality for which critics of today give him his high ranking. Alexander Kipnis, Metropolitan basso, presented a concert of December 5th. Not only his artistry but his friendly and good natured personality impressed his audience. Greatly admired for overcoming infantile paralysis, Marjorie Lawrence captivated the enthusiasm of her audience with her performance January 17th quite apart from the sympathy they had for her. Helen Howe, monologist, demonstrated in her unusual program February 19th a versatility which constitutes the reason why she is considered as a possible successor to Cornelia Otis Skinner. The well-known Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Dimitri Metropoulos provided an attentive audience with a satisfying evening of music on February 28th. A month later on March 29th Artur Schnabel fascinated his audience with his seeming ability to make his piano come alive and to make the music live with it. This most successful year was concluded by the different but well-liked violin and harpsichord duets of Alexander Schneider and Ralph Kirkpatrick. In the chamber music series the popular Pro Arte String Quartet from the University of Wisconsin made four appearances on November 15th, December 19th, January 3rd, and March 13th. After this the staff relaxed a little and began making plans for next year.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

Leisure Time for the Service Men

THE SERVICE AT ILLINOIS

The Navy V-12 College Program continued at the University during the 1944-1945 year with a January enrollment of 336 men at Urbana and an additional 204 men studying medicine and dentistry on the Chicago campus. These students were training to be medical, dental, and engineering officers for the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. Following completion of their college work, the engineers normally proceed to Midshipman's School after which they are eligible for commissions as Ensigns. Medical and dental graduates become Lieutenants (j.g.) and the dentists are called immediately to active duty. Medical students are allowed an intervening nine months' leave of absence in which to serve as internes.

At midyear, the Army Specialized Training Program had 675 soldier-students in training at Urbana. Except for 26 men taking advanced work in Sanitary Engineering, these students were all reserves under 18 years of age who were pursuing basic engineering courses while awaiting their call to service. Curricula and course materials were prescribed by the Army, and Army officers handled the administrative and military phases of the program. Instruction was given by the regular faculty in University classrooms. In Chicago there were 357 ASTP men in medical curricula who will be commissioned First Lieutenants on graduation. Following a nine months' internship, they will be assigned to active service.

Due to war conditions and the demands of the army, which has drawn an imposing quantity of students from this campus, University military activities have been critically changed. From pre-war enrollment of 4800 students, the R.O.T.C. enrollment has dropped to 500 students. Just basic training is given to civilian students and members of the A.S.T.R. The six branches of service represented on the campus, including Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Coast Artillery, Engineers, and Signal Corps, are no longer in existence, to that all instruction is being presented as "Branch Immaterial" or "No Branch."

The fact remains, however, that this university, in spite of the many changes caused by the war, still maintains its record of military instruction offered each year without a break since 1868. This is an enviable record in view of the great number of institutions who dropped military training during peace time years.

NAVAL TRAINING SCHOOLS

Since July 1, 1943 the University of Illinois has been a base for the Naval College Training Program. Such a program was set up due to the need which the war brought about for Naval officers to supplement the relatively few graduates of Annapolis and Naval ROTC schools. Before the war Annapolis supplied most of the officers in the regular Navy, and the various NROTC programs were the main source of officers for the Naval reserve. Since its organization the NCTP has produced more officers than Annapolis has graduated in all its hundred years existence.

With the exception of a few pre-dental and pre-medical students all the men of the unit are engineers. Included in the ranks are various previously rated Navy men who qualified by taking tests while on active duty. After successful completion of their prescribed courses, the V-12s are sent to midshipmen's schools where they receive their commissions and advanced training in various branches of the Navy.

ILLI-NOISE

Because of that nemesis—Manpower Shortage—campus social life has been curtailed, and little resembles the "good ole' days" when the Girlpower Shortage made it necessary that dates—and there were many of 'em—be made several months in advance. However, as long as there is a coke joint for a hangout, as long as there are sunny days and bicycles for rent, as long as there are activity jobs and class offices for which to strive, and as long as there is a congenial group to gather around a table for beer and song, Illinois will still be the place for fun, love, and prestige.

Turning the tables on the formerly much-dated gals are the lucky Illini men —some civilians, war veterans, V-12's, and ASTR's—who now have their pick of local gorgeous women. (To testify the presence of pulchritude, see our Beauty pages.) Although such traditional dances as the Mil Ball, Headliner's Hop, and Pan-Hell Ball have been cut off the social calendar, the juniors still pick their Prom Queen, and the frosh still make their social debut at the annual Freshman Frolic.

Students still work hard at extracurricular activities (gals have fought to the top and now hold men's jobs—possibly their enthusiasm is prodded by lack of dates!) They still are proud of wearing Torch scarves every Wednesday, and later Mortar Board caps and gowns. Ma-Wan-Da and Sachem have had to struggle to survive, but are still carrying on.

The men overseas are fighting to keep American traditions alive. The privilege of going to college, of entering wholehearted into educational and social activities, is our tradition. We are taking good care of it—for post-war enjoyment.

The Senior Ball is still just a gleam in the eyes of the committee. If University petition goes through, the Senior Ball will be held in Huff Gym, Friday night, May 29. Length of the dance depends on interpretation of curfews, university and nation-wide. The orchestra is now being selected by the committee through the Music Corporation of America. When completed, the Senior Ball will be a social event of real note.

Sachem, junior honorary for activity men, initiated 14 juniors in March to form a nucleus for a revival of the traditional honorary. A group of sophomores were pledged in May and will be active members for the next two semesters. The Sachem Sing also was revived in May and fraternities and independent houses vied for possession of the Sachem trophy.

Members and their activities are George Bujan, football; Wayne Banks, Union; Ralph Dralle, YMCA; Gordon Hoke, athletic manager; Tom Kubelius, MIWA; Robert Jarrell, YMCA; Merill Moore, swimming; Wessley Peterson, MIWA and Illini Board of Control; Merrill Prichard, The Daily Illini; Jimmy Seyler, basketball; Jake Staab, basketball; Walton Kirk, Jr., basketball; Jack Rundquist, The Agriculturist; and Ralph Tribbey, athletic manager. Faculty advisor for the group is Dr. Harold M. Osborn.

Ma-Wan-Da, senior honorary for men, kept its tradition alive by electing, in May, 1944, these five activity leaders: George DeLong, wrestling; Don Greenwood, football; Stan Patrick, basketball; Glenn Roberts, The Daily Illini; and Adrian Wells, YMCA.

This organization was established in May, 1912, to honor senior activity men. Its purpose is to recognize students who have proved by personal attributes and participation in activities, "to be worthy as leaders in thought and action." Members are chosen each May for the following year.

ORANGE STAR ILLINI

The Orange Star Illini campaign for victory was launched to stimulate interest in and to increase campus war work. Recognition for work done by members of the campus front army is given by credits awarded for hours of war effort. The campaign was conducted by the war service council, made up of the student chairman of war service of various campus activities, two representatives from the Daily, plus the faculty advisors of the activities. The student chairmen who volunteered not to enter competition for the awards are Lauralynn Parkerson, Illini Union; Vivian Marx, Theater Guild C-17; Jean Buckner, YWCA; Robert Jarrell, YMCA; and Jim Griswold, Illini Veterans. Barbara Richardson and Terry Reese are the Daily Illini representatives.

Comprising the Orange Star Illini roll of honor are Barbara Atkinson, Miriam Buzzell, Lorena Moudy, Stanford Kaatz, and Blossom Smargan who made the next highest contributions to the war effort during the year.

Pictured above is Ina Ruth Palman, Ivria junior, Orange Star Illini Woman of the Year. She acted as chairman of the Illini Union war savings committee this year. Ina Ruth was in charge of all the stamps and bond sales for the Victory Ball, and has directed the activities of the Minute Maids and house defense chairmen.

Orange Star Illini Man of the Year, Ken Lundgren, is a freshman living at the Mansion. Ken earned more war service credits than any other man this year for work on the Victory Ball and for constant effort both in publicity and registration for the Veteran's rehabilitation and refresher course. Ken is pictured at the right.

FRATERNITIES

The fall of 1944 found the University of Illinois fraternities struggling through the third year of the war. Membership had apparently hit bottom in the spring of 1944, but still stood at a fraction of peace-time totals. From a high of 2,500, the total members and pledges had dwindled to 538.

The chapter houses, 46 of which had been occupied by trainees in the ASTP, were all returned to the fraternities by July 1, 1944. Twenty-three of the fifty-six fraternities resumed residence in their chapter houses at that time. Twenty were operated as women's dormitories, while twelve remained unoccupied.

A few organizations persisted without the advantages of a chapter house, taking up temporary quarters in student rooming houses or in residential apartments. Some chapters were kept alive by one or two active members, who carried on rushing programs against apparently hopeless odds. Several fraternities may exist on the postwar campus as a result of the heroic endeavors of one or two men.

Of the first two hundred war veterans to return to the University, 55 were members or pledges of fraternities. These were the vanguard of thousands of G. I.'s expected to attend the University following the war under scholarships sponsored by the Veterans Administration. Because of their experience, war veterans quickly assumed leadership in the campus fraternities.

The Interfraternity Council, with 32 representatives regularly attending, continued to hold weekly meetings, discussing and planning a postwar program for the University's fifty-six fraternity chapters.

ACACIA

Illinois Chapter
501 East Daniel Street

In 1904, at the University of Michigan, a group of Master Masons gathered to form the Acacia Fraternity. The membership at that time was confined to those who had taken the Masonic obligation. Since then requirements for membership in Acacia have been altered so that men recommended by Masons may attain membership. The Illinois chapter of Acacia was founded in 1906, and in 1914 an Old English country house was built.

The organization was built on principles inculcated by the vows taken at the site of its founding. It was actuated by a search for high scholarship. At present the Illinois chapter rates among the first five social fraternities in scholastic achievement. The Illinois chapter also has the greatest number of faculty members of any social fraternity on campus.

In October of 1944 the chapter returned to active status. A hayride and a dance inaugurated the current social activities, among which was a pledge dance held in November. As a climax to the social functions for this semester a formal dinner dance was a huge success.

Several of the members have returned from military service to take an active part in the Illinois chapter. Correspondence from members now in service indicates that they will return to Illinois after Victory.

ALPHA CHI SIGMA

Zeta Chapter
606 West Ohio Street

Alpha Chi Sigma, founded in 1902 at the University of Wisconsin, is a professional chemistry fraternity. As such, it seeks to foster a professional spirit among the students in the undergraduate and graduate divisions of the Chemistry Department of the University of Illinois.

The scholastic requirements of Alpha Chi Sigma are rigorous. No freshmen are admitted and only a few exceptional sophomores. Juniors and seniors are admitted if their scholastic average is above 4.0. In the last year the chapter has been composed almost entirely of graduate and post-doctorate students who work on government research projects in the Chemistry Department of the University. However, the chapter considers the undergraduate element extremely important, since the desire and enthusiasm for research must be fostered early in the chemist's education.

Although Alpha Chi Sigma is not a member of the Interfraternity Council, it endeavors to cooperate in campus activities. The professional activities of the chapter include frequent seminars, the sponsoring of many chemistry smokers and scientific lectures, and the maintenance of an adequate chemistry library. Alpha Chi Sigma gives annually a scholarship award to the student in chemistry who has the highest grade average for the freshman year. The chapter also maintains an active social program.

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA

Ioto Chopter
401 East Doniel Street

Gamma Chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda was organized on this campus on March 18, 1921, and in 1927 the present chapter house was built. Through the years AKL has had many men who have achieved high honors both as undergraduates and later as alumni. As an organization, AKL has achieved preeminence through its record in scholarship and in Sachem Sings.

In the past two years, it has had a YMCA president and two Bronze Tablet men in its group. The house president is Don Hallberg, a member of the Navy V-12 unit on campus, and is one of the cheer leaders for the fighting Illini. Dick Piersol, the vice-president, is also a Navy student and a member of the concert band. This past year AKL has won trophies in intramural basketball and bowling and it is always looking forward to participation in intramural athletics.

AKL is well represented in campus activities. Walt Kersulis is outstanding in athletics; Don Wise and other members are active in Illini Theater Guild and on The Illio.

ALPHA RHO CHI

Anthemios Chapter
1108 South First Street

Alpha Rho Chi is a national social and professional fraternity. It was organized in order to encourage a greater interest in the study of architecture and the allied professions; and also to organize and unite in fellowship the architectural students of the country in order to improve their artistic, scientific, and practical efficiency.

Beginning as two local societies, Arcus at the University of Illinois and Sigma Upsilon at the University of Michigan, it was organized into a national fraternity at a meeting held in Chicago on April 10, 1914. The name, Alpha Rho Chi, was chosen for the newly organized society on April 11, 1914.

Dr. Nathan Clifford Ricker, founder of the Arcus society, received his B.S., his M.S., and his Ph.D. at the University of Illinois. He was head of the Department of Architecture for thirty-eight years and from 1878 to 1905 was Dean of the College of Engineering.

Other charter members who served as officers were Chandler C. Cohagen, Allen H. Kimball, and Leo M. Bauer.

Each year Alpha Rho Chi awards annually the Ricker Key to the student writing the best research paper in Architectural History.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Gamma Zeta Chapter
210 East John Street

The Gamma Zeta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega came to the University of Illinois campus in 1895. After spending thirty-five years in the traditional "fraternity row," the boys decided to build their present house on Pennsylvania Avenue which was completed in 1930. This house was built in memory of the unforgettable Dean of Men, Thomas Arkle Clark.

ATO, like all other fraternities during the present crisis, has been struggling against inactivity. It has been very fortunate to maintain an active status since the outbreak of the war.

The Worthy Master, Jack Krejci, has already been in service and has returned to finish his education. ATO is expecting more brothers to come back, and it as a chapter is working together in order that they may have a place to return to. The Worthy Chaplain, "Junior" Kirk, is still with ATO and with the help of the other officers, Addison Foss, Stewart Daniels, and Johnny Carlson, the chapter is well on its way to a successful year.

Thus is concluded this brief summary of the chapter's activities with the hope that in the very near future all the brothers will return to carry on one of the finest phases of college life—that of enjoying the bond of union found only in a fraternity.

BETA THETA PI

Sigma Rho Chapter
202 East Daniel Street

Beta Theta Pi established its Sigma Rho Chapter at the University of Illinois on February 28, 1902. Now in its forty-third year, it is Illinois' ninth oldest fraternity. Leadership in scholarship and activities has always been a Beta tradition. This tradition is clearly indicated when a survey of Beta's activity participation over a long period of years is made. In past years there have been sixty-two Beta's picked for Sachem, the junior activity honorary. There have also been fifty-one Beta's picked for Ma-Wan-Da, the highest ranking senior honorary. Among the athletes this year were Roy Wiedow, and Jan Roosa, who were on the basketball squad. Roy was also an outstanding pitcher on the Illini Baseball Team. In Theatre Guild the Betas were represented by Jim Carruth who was in the cast of the Theatre Guild production, "Romeo and Juliet." The officers for the first semester 1944 were: Kenneth Wanderer, president; Richard Carlstrom, vice-president; James C. Bresee, recording secretary; and Walter Lynch, corresponding secretary.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

Illinois Chapter
605 East Daniel Street

The first chapter of the Corda Fratres Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs was founded at the University of Wisconsin in 1907. The Illinois chapter was founded in 1908, and is the only chapter which has a house of its own.

The purposes of the organization are: to cultivate social and intellectual intercourse among persons of different nationalities at the University of Illinois, to promote scholarship and character among its members, to foster the spirit of universal brotherhood, and to propagate the ideal of a higher standard of justice between nations. The club motto is: "Above all nations is humanity."

The present membership includes students from the United States, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Hawaii, Iceland, Mexico, Peru, Trinidad, Turkey, and Yugoslavia. The club engages in a full social and sports program. During the last year it was co-sponsor with the Union Building of the International Ball for the benefit of the Red Cross.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Beta Upsilon Chapter
302 East John Street

Delta Tau Delta stands among the highest, the country over, as an upright and sincere fraternity. No one can justly challenge its purpose: it stands above reproach. Its creed is typical of its thoughts and ambitions. The fraternity is a constructive adjunct to the system of higher education. Its objective is to educate, contributing to the young men within its sphere of influence, a moral, spiritual, and social development commensurate with the intellectual training supplied by the colleges and universities.

Delta Tau Delta in 1872 was the first national fraternity to establish a chapter on the University of Illinois campus. Since then over 750 members have been initiated, claiming among them such men as the former Mike Tobin, the grand old dad of all fighting Illini, George Bernhardt, most valuable Big Ten football player of '41, Andy Phillip, leader of the famous "Whiz Kids," and others too numerous to mention.

Although the war has left its impression on the chapter, it continues to have an active social life, a vigorous intramural program, and pursue a high scholastic standard.

As usual the annual pledge dance, the Christmas formal, picnics, serenades, and other fraternity functions have been sponsored in the true Delt spirit.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Chi Zeta Chapter
209 East Armory Avenue

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity is an international organization composed of 109 active chapters in the United States and one in Canada. Chi Chapter at the University of Illinois was founded in 1915. Chi's president is George Sturm, who is also president of the Interfraternity Council, and has served two terms on the Illini Union Board and one term on the Student Senate. After being honorably discharged from the Naval Air Corps, George helped organize the present powerful and growing organization of the Illini War Veterans of World War II.

Chi's vice-president is Paul Flum, who is the treasurer of the Interfraternity Council and a member of the Student Senate. He is a member of Star and Scroll, sophomore honorary. During his three years at Lambda Chi, Paul has held almost every office in the house, including the top position of president. Dick Kosobud is president of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary. Robert Purdy holds the position of president of Omega Beta Pi, premedical honorary. In addition, he received the annual Omega Beta Pi scholarship award. Bob was also secretary of the sophomore class in '43.

PHI DELTA THETA

Eto Chapter
309 Eost Chalmers Street

Phi Delta Theta has returned to its chapter house at 309 East Chalmers after a year of temporary residence. During the preceding semester, in spite of wartime adversities, it maintained a high fraternity scholastic average. Its members have also been prominent in campus activities. Don Greenwood, chapter president and quarterback on the football team, charter member and president of the Illini Veterans Organization, was a member of the All-Star football squad and graduated with college honors. Jim Wood with his portrayal of David in the play, "Claudia," won acclaim; Jim also held the position of secretary of Chi Epsilon, engineering honorary. John Senger, president of the dramatic organizations, "Mask and Bauble," and "Pierrots," is a member of the Theater Guild Board. Russ Beebe heads the cheer leaders. Clyde Perkins, Bud Ward, Pete Blom, Ray Irwin, and Don Greenwood are football letter winners. Hal Dragstrom, former intramural high point man, returned to school after service in the European theater of operations. Jim Ogden was chairman of the Victory Ball. Bill Dady was secretary of the Inter-Fraternity Council. Jack Prowell was a News-Gazette sports writer. Tom Poyer, V-12 senior football manager, served as chapter president last semester, and Bob McCarthy was treasurer of the Illini Veterans.

PHI EPSILON PI

Psi Chopter
907 South Third Street

Psi chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity is back at its old stamping grounds. 907 was "initiated" by the members and pledges of the summer session with a tremendous pledge dance, "907th Heaven." Since that eventful evening of August 5, 1944, Phi Epsilon Pi has been continuously buzzing with activity.

In the past year Psi was recognized as having attained the highest scholastic average of any social fraternity during the summer with a house average of 3.9. Not only in social and scholastic aspects has Phi Epsilon Pi been on top, but also in campus activities as well. With an ever-conscientious attitude, Phi Epsilon Pi boasts representatives in almost all of the major activities on campus.

At present it maintains one of the largest fraternities on campus. Under the fine leadership of Frank Siegel, Superior, the Phi Eps expect to keep 907 buzzing so that its many fraters serving in the armed forces of our country may come back soon to the U. of I. and experience the feeling that for the time being are but memories to them. The hope is that in the near future the ever-present fraternity spirit may start all of the alums marching—this time marching towards the pathroads of knowledge and clear thinking.

PHI KAPPA SIGMA

Rho Chapter
313 Chalmers Street

Rho Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma was established on this campus in 1892, the fourth national fraternity at the University of Illinois.

During the past two years, the Skulls, along with all other men's Greek organizations, have faced a crisis. All but two active members of the chapter joined the armed services in the spring of 1943. It was only with the help of Mr. F. Stanley Boggs, a founder of Rho chapter, that a Skull house was opened that year.

In the fall the house was opened and operated on a "full war-time basis." Even in these times it is felt that fraternity life has not changed essentially—either in purpose or effect. The scholastic, social, and athletic life of its members is being helped and guided by the fraternity.

During the year Skull figured actively in both football and basketball intramural games. The pledge party, "The Diaper Dance," was a rousing success. Torch light parades, serenades, and guest dinners filled in the short periods when Skulls weren't studying.

This year will be remembered by all the Skulls, as one which, while showing the profound effects on fraternities of the world at war, showed also the promise of the future.

PI LAMBDA PHI

Alpho Kappa Chapter
52 Eost Armary Avenue

Since 1924, when this chapter started on the U. of I. campus, it has had a varied history and many changes of its name. Originally called the Delta Club, it became Delta Pi, a local fraternity, in 1928, and six years later it nationalized with Phi Beta Delta. In 1941, Pi Lambda Phi merged nationally with Phi Beta Delta, and the combined fraternities took the name of Pi Lambda Phi.

During this past year, the social life of the chapter, under the direction of Bill Wasserman, has been very successful. A number of dances, the most outstanding of which was the Summer Formal given on May 13, 1944, have been presented in the chapter house.

Hand in hand with the social life, campus activities are an important thing in the house. There are many men working on The Illio and the Illini Union, and Bill Stein is now president of the Hillel Foundation Junior Council.

Milt Rohde, president of the house, heads a list of house officers who at present are: Phil Rosenblum, vice-president; Robert Kohlenbrener, scribe; Norman Tabachnick, treasurer; and Arnold Kaplan, marshall. With this competent set of officers at the helm, Pi Lambda Phi is looking forward to a very promising future.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Illinois Beta
211 East Daniel Street

SAE has come through the war emergency retaining its pre-war standards, and moved back to its fraternity house in June, 1944. Fred H. Turner, dean of students, is from this chapter and is Eminent Supreme Archon, highest office in the national fraternity. His help, together with numerous other alumni, has made it possible for SAE to get through the hard years of the war.

Of the four seniors from Illinois-Beta each has distinguished himself in some way. Bob Hughes and Bill Murray, V-12 students, were regular members of the Illinois wrestling team. Bill Schmelzle was former Daily Illini Sports Editor, a member of Sachem, and won second place in a national journalism essay contest, while Glenn Roberts was former Daily Illini Sports Editor and is president of Ma-Wan-Da, men's senior activity honorary.

Bub Bartholow, center, John Martin, halfback, and Bill Dichinson, halfback, saw considerable action with the Illini football squad.

The officers of Illinois-Beta are Len Anderson, Eminent Archon; Charles Dillavou, Eminent Deputy Archon; and Ted Wagenknecht, Eminent treasurer.

SIGMA ALPHA MU

Rho Chapter
1008 South Fifth Street

Rho chapter of Sigma Alpha Mu has come a long way since 1919 when twelve students convened and decided to form a new fraternity on the U. of I. campus. Six years later the fraters moved into their new home, the yellow octagon of 1008 South Fifth, designed after the pearl and ebon badge.

Today, with Norman Novack, prior, Harvey Bender, exchequer, and Arnold Dorfman, recorder, as officers, Sigma Alpha Mu still maintains her top rating. Three consecutive University softball championships, the teams being led by Al Zelken, Bob Salk, Norm Brainin, Joe Goldberg, and Hal Paddor, display their athletic abilities. Potential lettermen are Bob Silver, basketball; Bud Kopald and Howard Sachnoff, football; Joe Weiss and Bob Neirman, tennis; and Joe Cohen, swimming. First and second places in the 1943 and 1944 Homecoming Stunt Shows respectively, and with Bill Hamer as master of ceremonies of three University sings and of Club Commons demonstrates the stage talent present. High scholastic standard is evidenced by five members in Phi Eta Sigma and Omega Beta Pi.

Despite these achievements, Rho's forty-two men feel that they are only carrying on until their fraters in the armed services return and once more sing "Fast and Firm" in the chapter room.

SIGMA CHI

Kappa Kappa Chapter
410 East John Street

In February, 1944, after a period of comparative inactivity, the handful of Sigs on the campus, mostly service men, began again to make Sigma Chi tops on the campus. Under the leadership of Bert Fitton, they rented an apartment and pledged thirteen men. Although the Army had their house and the Sigs had to overcome many other difficulties, they succeeded in maintaining the enthusiasm and fraternity spirit so lacking on the wartime Illini campus.

During the summer two more classes were pledged, one Navy and one civilian. Fortunately, the house was again available; and after a great deal of work by the Sigs on campus, who gave up most of their free time to open and furnish the house, the civilians were able to move in.

When the fall semester started, Sigma Chi was one of the leaders in fraternity activities. They began a very active social program and became prominent in campus life. In short, in only a few months Sigma Chi changed from an inactive status to that of its powerful prewar position at the University of Illinois.

SIGMA PI

Phi Chapter
402 East Armory Avenue

Sigma Pi's Phi chapter is the second oldest chapter in the National Sigma Pi organization, having received its charter in 1907.

Sigma Pi's past is full of memories of great athletes, outstanding scholars, and activity leaders, and of a lot of just plain "swell guys" who have taken their place in the world of realistic endeavor and achievement. The membership this year includes six civilian actives, two V-12 actives, and eight pledges. Although hard hit by the war, the chapter is still very much alive, and, with the help of faithful alums, is operating as a true fraternity should.

The chapter's most important social event is the annual Orchid Formal, which never fails to attract many alums back to the campus. Other events are the usual pledge dances, hay rides, and seasonal dances.

The Sig Pi's are participating in several campus activities: the Interfraternity Council, the YMCA, and in intramural sports. The chapter edits a monthly newspaper called the Phi Cry, and the national organization edits a newsmagazine, the Emerald. Both publications are sent to subscribing alumni and members in the armed services.

The present house at 402 East Armory, last year as ASTP barracks, is again occupied by the Phi chapter and has been its home since 1920.

TAU DELTA PHI

Pi Chopter
1105 S. First Street

On October 24, 1925, Pi chapter of Tau Delta Phi was founded on the University of Illinois campus by nine aggressive and determined men. Their objectives were to foster the true fraternalistic feeling between men, create good will, and mold youth into manhood.

One of the main objectives of the fraternity is to instill upon the freshman the importance of scholarship. Within the last year four fraters were initiated into Phi Eta Sigma and seven men became members of Omega Beta Pi, pre-medical honorary fraternity.

This year Pi excelled in producing BMOC's. George Weinstein, formerly director of the Department of Public Service of the Illini Union Board, was secretary-treasurer of the Board. Howard Browdy is president of Hillel Foundation, and Jerry Rudman is co-chairman of publicity for Club Commons.

The Tau Delts did well this year in intramural sports. During the summer its baseball team won the Sectional University Championship. The all-star roster found Bernard Gordon, Ed Sherman, and Herb Dubnow on the first team. During the year Pi entered the football, soccer, basketball, golf, and tennis intramurals.

During these war years the Tau Delts have strived to make it the kind of a fraternity that the fighting fraters throughout the world will be proud to come back to.

TAU EPSILON PHI

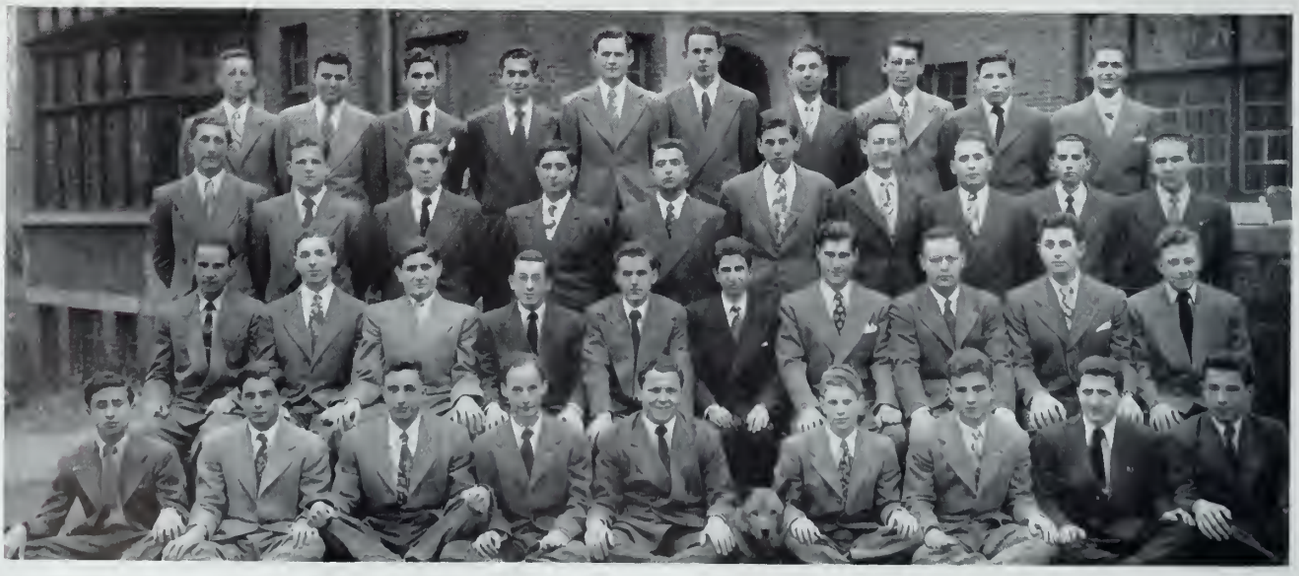

Psi Chapter
105 East Armory Avenue

Tau Epsilon Phi was founded at Columbia University in 1910, by ten students in the School of Pharmacy who wished to continue their friendships after their college days had passed. So successful were they in their ideals and thoughts that today the fraternity numbers 7500 members. There are now thirty active chapters throughout the United States and Canada.

Psi chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi was founded on May 31, 1924, at the University of Illinois. From its founding by ten men at the original site of 404 S. Mathews, the fraternity has grown to number 282 strong. Its chapter house, built in 1927, is located at 105 E. Armory.

There are about 125 men in the service of our country, of which a great majority are commissioned officers, but this war has also brought sorrow to the fraternity. Our Chapter Eternal, composed of those brothers of the chapter who have died, has been greatly increased by those gallant men who have given their lives in the cause of freedom.

The house today is composed of men from all walks of life who are striving constantly to better themselves and preserve their college friendships through fraternity.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Gommo Chopter

With the coming of the war so came a shortage of men in TKE as well as other fraternities on the Illinois campus. With most of the members in service, the house was closed last year and was occupied by the University's A.S.T.P. unit. However, when the house was vacated after the Army had cut the unit's number of men, four loyal fraters, with the help of the Ralf Woods graduate chapter of the alumni, started making plans for reopening the house. Now, although there are only a few men enrolled in the University this year, TKE has a full house with the pledging of 32 men, making a total of 44 members.

Sitting in the president's chair is Louis Howard, ably assisted by William Krueger, vice-president; Washington Char, secretary; Edward Paeltz, treasurer; and Richard Calhoun, sergeant-at-arms.

Many social events have been planned for the year. Homecoming and Dad's Day were big events on the TKE calendar. The pledge dance was a big success with Mendel Riley's orchestra.

With the combined efforts of the alumni and graduate chapter, TKE has again been put back into operation.

THETA XI

Alpha Beta Chapter
205 East Armory Avenue

Theta Xi has had a phenomenal development at Illinois. Although comparatively young, it has one of the most beautiful homes on campus. Its active chapter has been exceptionally strong financially, scholastically, and in fraternal spirit. Its members have always played a prominent part in campus affairs. The excellent standing of the Illinois chapter today is partly due to its sturdy beginning as the local fraternity, Pi Pi Rho, which was founded in 1915.

When the enlisted reserves were called to active duty, Alpha Beta lost most of its boys. Consequently, the house was closed. In August the Army took over, and between that time and June 20, 1944, the house was a military reservation. Upon cancellation of the lease held by the University for use by the army, the alumni decided to open the house again as an active fraternity.

At present Alpha Beta has twenty-five members—twelve actives and thirteen pledges. Most of the active members are discharged veterans.

The first social activity after reopening the house was a record dance. At Homecoming a reunion and alumni meeting was held. Additional social functions for the remainder of the year included a Christmas and spring formal. Dances held by Alpha Beta have become known on the campus for the elaborateness of the decorations and music by the best bands obtainable.

ZETA BETA TAU

Rho Chapter
907 South Fourth Street

Since its founding in 1898, Zeta Beta Tau has been a recognized leader on every campus at which it is represented. Rho chapter, founded at Illinois in 1912, is now led by Harold Victor, president; Eddie Schwartz, vice-president; Ed Glatt, secretary; and Norman Krevitt, treasurer.

The ZBT's were especially active this year in the Illini Union and in student politics. Edwin Krigel was appointed chairman of the Illini Union Dance Committee and the Special Dance Committee in the summer session. Hank Snyder was also active in the Illini Union, serving as chairman of the Guide and Travel Service Committee and the Tournament Committee. As a member of Key '46 he was put on the ballot for student senator. He also served as an IF team captain in the Community War Chest Drive. Eliot Katz is the smallest member of the Illinois football squad, playing quarterback. Harry and Gerry Strum served on the fall Registration Dance Committee, and Chuck Wilens and Shelly Harris are members of the Union Dance Committee. Zeta Beta Tau has four Sachem and three Ma-Wan-Da plaques. It won its division championship in basketball and bowling.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

The date 1832 is found on every Alpha Delt pin. This is the year Samuel Eells, then a senior at Hamilton College, founded the fraternity. He backed his organization, which he named Alpha Delta Phi, with so much energy that within the next ten years there were ten active chapters.

Alpha Delta Phi was the first fraternity at eleven colleges and second or third in eight others. The founders looked for men of literary tastes, and the fraternity began to have literary characteristics.

The Illinois Chapter was organized in 1903, at first under the name of Pi Theta. The members were given their Alpha Delta Phi chapter in 1911.

PHI KAPPA PSI

Phi Kappa Psi fraternity was born at Jefferson College in Pennsylvania in 1852. Illinois Delta chapter was founded forty years ago by Dab Williams, the original founder of Homecoming.

SIGMA NU

When Sigma Nu was founded at the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Virginia in 1869, its founders chose the white star and rose for its emblems.

After seventy-five years of development and expansion, there are today ninety-seven chapters.

Through its Permanent Endowment Fund, Sigma Nu has invested more than three-and-a-half million dollars in eighty-seven homes for housing college students.

The chapter at the University of Illinois was established in 1901, and officers for the year 1944-45 were: Gene Emery, Commander; Fred Good, Lieutenant Commander; Lee Draper, Recorder; John Pronger, Treasurer; and Edward White, Inter-Fraternity Council Representative.

Top Row: John Doyle, Chorles Nelson, George Remington, Robert Fronks

ZETA PSI

Zeta Psi was founded by a group of men possessed of unusually high principles, and the constitution and ritual which they formulated emphasized character, and social and Christian ideals.

Alpha Epsilon Chapter has followed carefully the national policy of conservative expansion and its uncompromising efforts to uphold the lofty premises of its founders have drawn many persons destined to become distinguished Illini into its membership. Among these are Brother George F. Barrett, Attorney General of Illinois, and Brother Harold E. "Red" Grange.

The chapter will soon return to its house and it is planned that traditional Zeta Psi contributiveness shall quickly re-assert itself in campus affairs.

SORORITIES

THE PANHELLENIC CREED

"We, The Fraternity Undergraduate members, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for whole-hearted cooperation with our college's ideals for student life, for the maintenance of fine social standards, and for the serving, to the best of our ability, of our college community. Good college citizenship as a preparation for good citizenship in the larger world of alumnae days is the ideal that shall guide our chapter activities.

"We, The Fraternity Alumnae members, stand for an active, sympathetic interest in the life of our undergraduate sisters, for loyal support of the ideals of our Alma Mater, for the encouragement of high scholarship, for the maintenance of healthful physical conditions in chapter houses and dormitory, and for using our influence to further the best standards for the education of the young women of America. Loyal service to chapter, college, and community is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

"We, The Fraternity Women of America, stand for preparation for service through the character building inspired in the close contact and deep friendship of fraternity life. To us, fraternity life is not the enjoyment of special privileges but an opportunity to prepare for wide and wise human services."

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Ioto Chopter
904 South Lincoln Avenue

Despite the war, social activities at Alpha Chi were highlighted throughout the year. The pledges proved their worth by starting the season with their annual pledge dance—a galaxy of advertisements from decorations to costumes.

Amid a background of holly and mistletoe, the Christmas formal was true to pre-war tradition. To add to the merriment, there was a buffet supper when dates were taken on an inspection tour of the house. All this climaxed the holiday season for the Alpha Chis. Hats off to Pat Callaghan, social chairman!

On campus this year the Alpha Chis were on the scene in all activities. Theater Guild, headed by Louise Proehl, boasted Jayne Alice Groves and Sue Clark in "Barchester Towers" and other productions. Betsy Ross, general Homecoming chairman, led the grand march at the Homecoming dance. She also placed second in the Victory Ball Contest. The can-can chorus added color to the Alpha Chi "Paris Pick-Up," a part of the stunt show.

ALPHA DELTA PI

Sigma Chapter
1202 Nevada Street

Alpha Delta Pi holds the distinction of being the first secret society for college women in the world. Appropriately enough, Alpha Delta Pi was founded at the first college to recognize women's rights to attain an academic degree, Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia.

The executive slate of Alpha Delta Pi for the 1944-45 year consisted of Carol Johnson, East Moline, president; Mary Ellen Reardon, Delavan, vice-president; Patti Stevens, Westfield, secretary; and Doris Judson, Oak Park, treasurer.

Patti Stevens served as vice-president of Shi-Ai during the current school year as well as being a cabinet member of the Y.W.C.A. Betty Berg, Maywood, was elected to Alpha Lambda Delta and is secretary in this organization. Betty and Helen Green are the ADPi's Shi-Ai members. Doris Judson is the secretary of Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, and a member of Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary. Jeanette Phillips also has the distinction of being a member of Pi Mu Epsilon. Helen Green holds the position of junior sports editor on The Daily Illini. Adding to the list of honoraries are Carol Johnson and Patti Stevens, both members of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary.

ALPHA EPSILON PHI

Mu Chapter
904 South Third Street

"There'll always be Champaign." To this theme the AEPhis were once again in the midst of another gay pledge dance. This, along with many other social events, served to make the past year an outstanding one for the girls of Mu. Much credit for the success of these affairs goes to the wonderful housemother, Aunt Lil, and to the officers, Sally Bloom, dean; Gloria Novitsky, subdean; Doris Levy, treasurer; and Gladys Gittleman, secretary.

AEPhis were seen again this year in all of the campus activities—prominent junior jobs were held by Doris Levy, The Illio; Eunice Wolff, Y.W.C.A. cabinet; and Cara Heller, Pan-Hellenic executive council. Shi-Ai members, Roselle Osoff and Carol Andich, headed the sophomore list of activities for their work on Star Course, Y.W.C.A., and The Illio.

The Illinois chapter has many traditions, among which is the annual Senior Breakfast held each spring to honor graduating sorority members. At that time the girls expecting to become engaged or married within the next year "bite the lemon," which provides much merriment for everyone.

It seems hard to believe that it was only twenty-five years ago that a small group of thirteen girls founded Mu chapter, which has since become an active democratic organization on the Illinois campus.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Sigma Chapter
1102 Sauth Lincaln Avenue

It was at Syracuse University in 1904 that Dr. Wellesley P. Coddington founded Alpha Gamma Delta. Sigma, the Illinois chapter, started in 1918.

Alpha Gams are in nearly every campus activity. In the 1944 Shi-Ai Sing they took first place. The Alpha Gams gave a skit based on the song, "Lili Marlene" for the Homecoming Stunt Show. Active in Theater Guild productions are Gladys Lapham and Wilda Palmer who have been seen in "Arms and the Man," and "Guest in the House," respectively. On the football field, leading the "Cheering Illini" you saw Vivian Marx and Virginia Harlan. Vivian is also a member of Shorter Board and the chairman of C-17, a special division of Theater Guild. Our Torch members are Virginia Bauer and Vivian Marx. Shi-Ai pledges this year were Mariella Mapes and Judy Graham. 1944 pledges to Sigma Delta Pi, the Spanish honorary, were Helen Below, Vivian Marx, and Lois Roe. Jean Hoffman is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, the journalism honorary. Alice Wilhelm is in the music honorary, Sigma Alpha Iota. Also, Alpha Gams will be found in Y.W.C.A., Terrapin, and Orchesis.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Iota Chapter
706 South Mathews Street

"In the land of AOPi, where dreams come true"—the theme song and the experiences of Alpha Omicron Pi. It is in this land that pledge days live in the memories of actives. Days of growing friendships and growing ideas are spent at 706 South Mathews.

Favorite tunes of the four dances each year are filed in precious albums. The traditional barn dance in the fall converts the house into a barn. Christmas trees and fancy bows trim the house for the Christmas formal, which is in honor of the pledges. In the springtime, the dance makes the house a living flower garden.

In this land, schoolwork and good times are balanced by activities. Peg Bachman is a junior manager of Theater Guild. Jean Spencer, another junior, is the Pan-Hellenic scholarship chairman. Annabelle Scott is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary. Jean Starkey, a member of Torch, is a freshman discussion leader of the Y.W.C.A. Barbara Doering is social department chairman of the Y.W.C.A. Alice Wolff, a freshman, received bouquets and forecasts of a starring future for her performance in "Barchester Towers."

AOPi's in Alpha Lambda Delta are Pat Winter, Jean Spencer, Jean Starkey, and Margaret Waldo.

ALPHA PHI

Beta Alpha Chapter
508 East Armory Avenue

The Alpha Phi's got their start at Syracuse University in 1872. Beta Alpha, the Illinois chapter, was founded in 1922.

War activities are heading Alpha Phi's program this year with Jean Buckner acting as chairman of the Y.W.C.A. War Service, and as secretary of the War Chest Community Drive. Alpha Phi faces can be seen in nearly every campus activity. Barbara Richardson, a member of Shorter Board, is one of the originators of the Orange-Star Illini, an assistant editor of The Daily Illini, and handles Illini Union publicity. Martha Swain is a junior editor and Barbara Gilbreath has a sophomore position on The Daily Illini. Shirley Jacobs and Mary Ellen Attebery are active on the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Sophomore managers in Theatre Guild are Jean Rogers and Martha Swain, while Star Course representatives are Mary Ellen Attebery and Virginia Holl.

The honoraries have many Alpha Phi members, among whom are Betty Carlson, treasurer of Zeta Phi Eta and of Delta Sigma Phi. Martha Swain and Barbara Gilbreath are this year's Shi-Ai's, while Betty Dean and Ruth Miller are members of the Society of Illustrators. Wilma Pratt is a member of Chi Psi Theta.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Kappa Chapter
715 West Michigan Avenue

In taking the winding forestry walk from campus, one comes upon the large Old English home of the Alpha Xi Delta's—sixth oldest chapter on campus. From the outside, the house appears serene, set back as it is by spacious lawns, but this calm atmosphere immediately vanishes as one enters the house.

The rooms are alive with ambitious Alpha Xi's busy with studies and activities. The president of the Union Board, Juliette Coderre, is off to one of her many conferences, while other committee heads are planning various programs. The president, Betty Isaacs, and vice-president, Helen Glenn, of Pan-Hellenic are in Senior lounge discussing sorority functions. The Daily Illini, The Illio, Theatre Guild, band and choir groups, Pep Rally chairman, and U.S.O. committees are dividing their time between studies and activities.

Last spring Alpha Xis were awakened twice by Mortar Board candles. Previous visits had been made by Torch, Shi-Ai, and Alpha Lambda Delta during that year. This was topped only by a Phi Beta Kappa Key and Scholarship award to one of the Alpha Xi's.

Not only is Kappa chapter active, but its alums are well known on campus through the Union and the faculty. By their interest and frequent visits, they guide Alpha Xi Delta.

CHI OMEGA

Omicran Chapter
907 South Wright Street

Chi Omega sorority was organized at the University of Arkansas in 1895. It now has 98 chapters in 42 different states. Each year Chi Omega presents a National Achievement Award to the woman who has done outstanding work in her field. This award has been presented at the White House in Washington to such women as Katherine Cornell, Carrie Chapman Catt, and Mme. Chiang Kai-Chek. In keeping with this national policy, Omicron chapter annually gives an award to the most outstanding girl in the field of sociology.

Leaders in scholarship, Chi Omega girls, nevertheless, find time for campus activities, too. Witness for evidence, the six girls holding major senior positions: Jeanette Chumbley, president of Y.W.C.A.; Alice Meserve on the Illini Union Board; Marjorie Earl, vice-president of W.A.A.; Virginia Train in Theatre Guild; Peg Melin on The Daily Illini; and Ann Benson in Star Course. Included in the list of social events were the annual Christmas Party and a formal dance in honor of the pledges. The Kentucky Breakfast, which is a true Chi Omega tradition, was a highlight in May. Chi Omega this spring celebrated its fiftieth birthday, and is eagerly anticipating the fifty years to come.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Delta Pi
508 East Chalmers Street

Big event of the year at Delta Delta Delta was their "Smooth" Christmas formal with Johnny MacBryce's orchestra. The house was filled with cotton snowballs and everyone was dreaming of a white Christmas. Other social events were a gay informal pledge dance, a tea for Chanute officers, a fireside for the Champaign-Urbana alumnae, a faculty dinner, and an open house for the ASTR's.

Besides all this entertaining with the help of the housemother, Mrs. Florence Thomas, Tri-Delts found time for activities. Flo Jean Wylie, house president, and one of two Mortar Boards, was Director of Public Service at the Illini Union Board. Dorothy McGorrisk was Pan-Hellenic rushing chairman. Lynn Sandquist, Shorter Board, served as vice-president of the Y.W.C.A., and Sara Thomas em-ceed her program, Sorority Charm, on WDWS. Lois Black, Torch, and Del Schwartz, both held junior jobs on The Daily Illini as did Ann Lewis, Torch, and Dottie Strong on The Illio. Shirley Dean, Torch, and Eleanor Lukens, both members of Mask and Bauble, worked hard as junior managers at Theatre Guild. Betsy Ladd and Shirley Anderson were initiated into Shi-Ai, too.

The twenty-two pledges should have credit, too, for contributing to a very successful year under the direction of their pledge president, Naomi Benters.

DELTA GAMMA

Iota Chapter
1207 West Nevada Street

Three young ladies at Lewis Institute in Oxford, Mississippi organized the first Delta Gamma chapter in 1873. Iota chapter was founded at Illinois in 1906. DG life is colored by traditional social events each year. The pledges' "Walk Out" necessitates a mock hazing party when the prodigals finally return home. The advent of Santa is heralded by a Christmas formal. Moms are feted at a banquet each Mother's Day weekend, while seniors are bid a fond farewell at a breakfast given in their honor late in the month of May.

DG anchors are on many prominent activity women: Rose Anne Stewart, editor of The Illio; Marian Jenkins, assistant business manager of The Illio; Lois Friedrich, junior manager of Star Course; Marilyn Chapman, Illini Board of Control; Jean Baysinger Herron, junior business manager of The Daily Illini; and Miriam Buzzell, junior manager of Theatre Guild. Dorothy Barney is chapter president.

Expert alumnae and active guidance last year were responsible for the fact that Delta Gamma took fourth place on the local Pan-Hellenic scholarship roster last spring. Each year pledges are challenged to make higher grades than expert actives; the results of the race are announced at the annual scholarship banquet held in February. Losers must entertain the scholarly winners at a "fireside," popular DG songfest, complete with culinary delicacies.

DELTA ZETA

Alpha Beta
710 Ohio Street

1945 marks Delta Zeta's twenty-fourth year on the Illinois campus, and its forty-second year as a sorority. A highlight of the Delta Zeta's is its success in winning the Pan-Hellenic scholarship achievement cup twice in succession. It also held second place in Pan-Hellenic scholarship with a 3.994.

Social life is evident, beginning with the pledge dance in the fall and continuing throughout the year with a Christmas formal and spring dinner-dance.

Delta Zeta's enter into University activities, as well as University church activities. Last year they were awakened by a serenade of Mortar Board, who had come to receive Pat Miller Freyman. Pat was assistant editor of The Daily Illini, and also a member of Theta Sigma Phi, Kappa Tau Alpha and Torch.

Torch also visited Delta Zeta to pledge Betty Van Doren, who was inter-house manager of W.A.A.

This year the "Bat of Shi-Ai" flew late one night to rouse two sleeping sophomores, Margaret Jo Heck and Nadine Ransom.

Yes, Delta Zeta can be justly proud of its service to the University and the many women it has had in Mortar Board, Torch, Shi-Ai, Alpha Lambda Delta, and other scholastic and activity honoraries.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Omicron Chapter
1110 West Nevada Street

High in the New York hills at Syracuse University, Gamma Phi Beta was founded in the year 1874. Illinois' chapter, Omicron, received its charter in 1913. Now with sixty girls in Omicron, it is trying to carry on the high ideals set by its founders.

"You can spot a Gamma Phi; she has that twinkle in her eye—." Gamma Phi Beta is proud of her Mortar Board President, Ruth Ann Schwager, who also served as The Daily Illini editor during the summer of 1944. Along with "Rufus," you can spot a Gamma Phi as a junior editor of The Illio. Barbara Clayton holds this mighty important job and has Torch to her credit. Karyl Fraley and Eleanor Pickett, also Torch members, can be spotted working at The Illio office as outstanding junior business managers. Another Gamma Phi junior is Alice Koehler, who is president of Torch and a member of the Y.W.C.A. executive cabinet. Melba Miller can be seen industriously working as a junior manager at the Star Course office. In the freshman honorary, Alpha Lambda Delta, Gamma Phi Beta has Jean Hiller, Publicity Chairman, and Mary Lou Barber. They are proud to be able to spot their sisters everywhere on campus.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Delta Chapter
611 East Daniel Street

Anne Grover leads Kappa Alpha Theta on the University of Illinois campus this year. Theta is the oldest women's fraternity at Illinois; it was established here in 1895. Among the traditions that have been handed down are the annual Founders' Day Banquet, the Pledge Banquet, and the Senior Breakfast. Each year at Christmas time, the Thetas go caroling. Another cherished tradition is the annual ducking of seniors by the pledges. Among the Theta's looking forward to their ducking this spring are Shirley Bauer, Mortar Board, and Dorothy Ritter. Shirley is vice-president of the Y.W.C.A.; Dottie is its secretary. Dottie is also a member of the Illini Board of Control, and Shirley is on the University Concert and Entertainment Board. Terry Reese is an assistant senior editor of The Daily Illini. In the Student Senate are Dottie Ritter and Virginia Kendall, who is also secretary of Pan-Hellenic. Ready to carry on the traditions of Kappa Alpha Theta next year will be our juniors among whom are Annis Steinley, chairman of the Y.W.C.A. Doll Show this year, and Queen of '44's Plowboy Prom. Rosanna Webster, Torch, is construction manager of Theatre Guild; Barbara Atkinson, is Red Cross chairman of the Union. Not traditional, but fun, is Theta's participation each year in W.A.A. interhouse sports.

KAPPA DELTA

Sigma Omicron Chapter
1204 South Lincoln Avenue

The year 1923 was a significant one for the Kappa Delts, for it was then that the local chapter, Sigma Omicron, came into existence. 1944 has been an exceptionally busy year for Betty Mathews, our prexy, and the rest of Kappa Deltas. Beside the usual house functions, many campus activities have reached out and picked Kappa Delts to act as their leaders. In publications we have Jean Hurt, who is the editor of The Daily Illini, and Dottie Whipp, who is the business manager of The Illio. The Illini Union activities have also taken their toll; the chairmanships of Dad's Day, Homecoming Badge Sales, University Sings, and Club Commons Entertainment were all held by ambitious K. D.'s. The Theatre Guild is acting as patron to our aspirants to the place of Sarah Bernhardt in the theatre. The casts of "Claudia" and "Barchester Towers" had representatives from the Kappa Delt house. Shirlee Johnson, the Dinah Shore of the campus, has done much to entertain not only the students, but also the servicement on campus and at Chanute. Have you ever heard her sing "Summertime"? The honoraries too have smiled upon Kappa Delta. A busy year? Yes, but fun.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Beta Lambda Chapter
1102 South Lincoln Avenue

Ever since its establishment in 1899, Beta Lambda chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma has remained active on the Univeristy of Illinois campus. This year, chapter activities have continued under the leadership of Joan Ralston, president.

In the spring of '44 Kappa beauty, Mary Jean Koritz, was chosen queen to preside over the May Day festivities. Margaret Robbins figured prominently in campus affairs as a Phi Beta Kappa, co-chairman of Star Course, Mortar Board, and formerly was chairman of Special Dances of the Union. Shorter Board added as a member, Jane Bickel Greenwood, whose earnest work on The Illio staff must also be applauded. The campus newspaper, The Daily Illini, is now being ably edited by Kay House, one of the four editors. Fredrica Karber and Atha Tehon were initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta. Other honoraries, such as Phi Chi Theta, Phi Upsilon Omicron, and Psi Chi also have representatives in the house. Polly Kuby is pledge chairman of Panhellenic Council.

Kappa Kappa Gamma has participated in the Shi-Ai sing and inter-sorority sports. Especially outstanding was its enthusiastic response to all the war activities. Interspersed with these activities were many varied and interesting dances.

By this and similar past records, Kappa Kappa Gamma has retained an outstanding position on the University of Illinois campus for forty-five years.

PHI OMEGA PI

Gamma Chapter
713 West Ohio Street

"Dreaming, yes, dreaming of the girls of Phi O Pi." So goes a familiar POP song, and proving the truth of these lines are many outstanding chapter members. Carol White walked into campus hearts and first place in the solo-quartet section of Shi-Ai Sing of '44 with her rendition of "You are Free." Helen Scherer is a member of Sigma Delta Pi Spanish honorary, Carol White, a member of Sigma Alpha Iota music fraternity, and Lib Leighly is a speech honorary member. Other outstanding Gamma members are lovely June Schussler, Fraternity Queen candidate, Michy Hecteman, talented violinist, and a new crop of sterling pledges.

Dad's Day found a galaxy of fathers present for the POP house festivities, a special spread, and an appropriate serenade for the parents. A successful reunion with Phi Omega Pi alumnae during Homecoming increased fellowship and spirit among Gamma members.

PHI SIGMA SIGMA

Theto Chopter
306 E. Gregory Drive

Phi Sigma Sigma was founded at Hunter College in 1913, and Theta chapter is one of her twenty-two offspring. Theta, founded on November 26, 1923, includes forty-two girls hailing from points as far south as Birmingham, as far east as Boston, and with a majority of twenty-five from nearby Chicago.

This is a house full of queens, five in all, three of whom were added last year. They are Pauline Wang, Bombardier Queen of Ellington Field, Texas, Jean Seligman, Queen of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Gloria Berman, Queen of Illini's Junior Prom of '44. Phi Sig is proud of its last year's scholastic activities with its new honor students. Blossom Afremow was initiated into Psi Chi, Frances Klein is a member of both Iota Sigma Pi and Omicron Nu, while Helen Sher, besides making Sigma Delta Pi, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in her junior year. In '44 it won the Scholarship Achievement Award, the Panhellenic trophy awarded each year to the sorority making the highest gains in scholarship.

Piloting the Phi Sig's to many happy landings are: Barbara Colen, president; Marjorie Bernstein, vice-president and pledge-dean; Blossom Afremow, secretary; and Pauline Wang, treasurer.

PI BETA PHI

Illinois Zeta Chapter
1005 South Wright Street

Founded at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, in 1867, Pi Beta Phi has grown to be represented by eighty-three active chapters. Illinois Zeta Chapter was established at Illinois in 1895.

All in all, it has been an unforgettable year.

SIGMA DELTA TAU

Kappo Chapter
1104 West Nevada Street

"The March began with seven strong" wearing the golden torch at Cornell University in 1917. Kappa Chapter added its name to the Sigma Delta Tau roll call on March 6, 1926.

Kappa girls have always shown a great interest in campus activities. The president, Ruth Lippman, is active in Theta Sigma Phi, while the vice-president, Charlotte Lipoff, is a member of Kappa Delta Pi. Layne Shefferman, secretary, and Elaine Epstein are members of Alpha Lambda Delta, and Mayta Ballis, treasurer, is Shorter Board, Sigma Delta Pi, and the assistant editor of The Illio of 1945. Sorel Zoline, Torch, is a junior editor of The Illio. Beverly Frank is a junior business manager of Theatre Guild and is a member of Masque and Bauble and of Arepo. Arlene Linton is chairman of the Illini Union Committee-Cooperation with the USO. This year's members of Shi-Ai are Bobbie Polk and Charlotte Krasne.

SDT's point with pride to the toy shop skit which took first place in the 1944 Homecoming Stunt Show, adding another cup to Kappa's collection, and to their place at the top of the list of War Chest contributors. Sig Delts are known for their spirit, activities, and SDT hospitality.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Chapter
808 W. Vermont Street

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at the Virginia State Normal School at Farmville, Virginia, October 15, 1898. Alpha Kappa chapter was established on the Illini campus October 24, 1921, the seventeenth national fraternity for women to be affiliated at the University.

Zeta Tau Alpha has taken an active part in the round of Illini activities and honoraries. Some of these activities are the Home Economics Club, Glee Club, Theater Guild, W.A.A., Y.W.C.A., The Illio, The Daily Illini, and Orchesis. The Shi-Ai members are Bette Bennet, Ruth Kohlhauff, Rose Marie Minnis, Marian Patterson and Elaine Sell. Martha Benson and Lois Snyder are members of Kappa Tau Alpha and Theta Sigma Pi.

First place in the Y.W.C.A. Doll Show of '43-'44 was won by Zeta Tau Alpha. The prize winning presentation was that of the "Planting of the Elm Trees along the Broadwalk."

Presby Gals "Keep the home fires burning"

INDEPENDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Every independent man is automatically a member of the Men's Independent Ward Association and every woman a member of Woman's Group System when she enters the University. These are the most prominent organizations of independent college men and women in the United States.

W.G.S. includes all organized groups of independent women living in town homes, co-operative houses, and resident halls. It was the first organization of its kind on any college campus. Since its origin in 1922, it has grown until it now includes approximately 3,000 members.

In unity, there is strength! The object of these organizations is to unify the independent men and women of the University, thus promoting leadership, scholarship, and fellowship. This is accomplished by group participation in such activities as the W.G.S.-M.I.W.A. Stunt Show, the Christmas Musicale, banquets, weekly council meetings, and freshman orientation meetings.

Closer co-operation between Woman's Group System and Men's Independent Ward Association has been shown this year, even though the ranks of M.I.W.A. have been depleted as a result of the war-time conditions.

ACHAEA

In Achaea, the house of welcome, (but don't walk across the lawn) is Arlie, the versatile pre-med, who entertains us with various antics displaying her Terpsichorean talents. Holding boogie sessions are the femme fatales, Uhll, Dee, Swanny, Black, and Jo. "Arkansas," the purtiest lil' gal ever, is the glamour puss who trips off on dates. Verna's love for Bob, and Carole's flaming hair are the envy of the girls. When Anna yells, "Soup's on," Ada, Vin, and Ruby hit the stairs on the double. What variety—artistic Nada, witty Lois, cute Jean, queenie Ruth, wifey Charlotte, athletes Brenner and Becker, journalists Oodie and Marty, feminine Geneva and tall Metropolis, who is getting stooped from hiding from the probing eyes of the instructors.

ALCESTIS

Who's who in Alcestis! Lois is the social chairman. She plans the house dances and parties, and they've had some swell ones. Remember the pledge dance with all the decorations and even the lights in the Alcestis "blue and wine"? Mary Lou's the gal with the "sense of humor"—she and her ideas! Mary Lou and Ida Mae and Peggy are all helping to pull down scholastic honors, and some of these freshmen records look mighty good. Margie is another one of those dizzy blondes, but cute—always something to say. Betty Iles and Marilyn furnish our queen candidate material. Audrey is the vice-president and keeper of the scrapbook, and the two Louises are compiling a history of the club to be presented at the Senior Spring Banquet.

ALPHA HOUSE

Remember the day you first saw Alpha House? You walked down Springfield Avenue, paused as you saw the smiling girls chatting in the sunlight on the porch of the house. You watched one of the girls as she swept the porch, as she stopped now and then to call or wave to someone. You meant to continue on your way, but there was something of wholesome fun about the house that prompted you to learn more. In the living room, you found girls playing and singing; you strolled over to the piano and observed with admiration the picture of the Union Building, awarded to Alpha House for attaining the highest scholastic average. Remember how you were told about the parties, the dances, the hay rides and wiener roasts, the "masquerade" dinners, how they flapped about in ghostly sheets and ducked the seniors one early spring morning? You laughed at the descriptions of the trials and triumphs of the kitchen, the activity on Saturday mornings, dusting and dishes, exam week . . . you were told of the sense of comradeship they found in working together, of the way seventeen girls come to grow individually as they work cooperatively. Remember?

BELLE MANOR

Belle Manor is a house of twenty-one freshmen and transfer girls. All but four live in Illinois; the others are from Ohio, Michigan, and Minnesota. Officers are: Betty Tower, Chicago, president; Marjorie Hoobler, Holland, Michigan, vice-president and social chairman; and Betty Sanders, Alton, secretary-treasurer.

Workers in church organizations are: Pat Stenvick, Wesleyan Foundation; Marie Frankenburg, Newman Club; Catherine Curtis and Marjorie Hoobler, Y.W.C.A.; and Shirley Levin, Miriam Lew, Charlotte Kline, Marjorie Ottinger, and Betty Norton, Hillel.

BEAU CHATEAU

Beau Chateau, a newly organized house on campus, has been enjoying the many activities which the University of Illinois offers. Its two distinguishing features which may be called handicaps are—all of the girls are new to the Illinois campus, and most of them are freshmen.

Despite these drawbacks, the girls have taken part in many of the university's extra-curricular activities. The names of the girls and the activities in which they have participated are: Joan Rosenthal—Senior Hillel Representative; Joyce Feldman—Theater Guild.

Under the able leadership of the house officers: Bettie Sinadinos, President; Joan Rosenthal, Vice-President and Social Chairman; and Trudy Sandler, Secretary-Treasurer, a good foundation has been laid on which may be built a college career.

BETA HOUSE

They're a co-op, and do they have fun cooperating—only sometimes they don't cooperate. And that is very bad, because then they let kitties accumulate under the beds; crumbs accumulate on the dining room floor; dust collects up on the door jams.

They do just lots of things besides cooperating. One fowl example is the Beta hen society into which every innocent chick is initiated during her first month of residence. Those who are exceptionally exasperating are pledged as devils in the burned custard clan. Their function is strictly upsetting and—censored activities.

Between cooperating, deviling, and clucking they manage to throw an occasional hop, and stick their noses into a few campus activities.

BETHANY

1008 West Nevodo Street

Bethany—the name makes you think of peace and quiet doesn't it? Well, it only goes to show something or other! What with Shirley practicing the flute, and Kit playing the piano—you see what they mean, don't you? And then there's Foxie who types English papers in the living room at 3 a.m. A popular Bethany gal is Connie from Kansas. What a drawl! Bridge fiends are Annie, Loeta, Ruth, and Ruby, while Katie and Phyl like to practice the latest jive routines. The unusual, and sometimes startling, table decorations are planned by Ruthe. Ber spends her spare time painting scenery for Theater Guild. They haven't seen much of Sunny this year. She's practice teaching. Her letters keep up her "sunny" reputation though. Sue, the fashion expert, makes and designs "gorjus" clothes. Eunice, house secretary, keeps the books in order, sometimes assisted, they suspect, by roommates Carolyn and Edna. Freshman Peggy, Dot, Mary Alice, and Betty are still hitting the books, Hm-m! Wonder how long that will last? And then there's that inseparable threesome Arline, Helen and Georgia. Their pet pastime seems to be giving parties, complete with refreshments, in their room. The green ceiling, they say, adds to the atmosphere.

BRANDEIS HALL

There are forty-eight in Brandeis Hall. Their Who's Who is quite extensive, but above all they are proud of their president, Jerry Spitz, also junior manager of Theatre Guild, Charky Aaron, vice-president who is social chairman, and Blossom Rowe, secretary and also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta. Then they have Dotty (Morgenthau) Sachsel, the wealthiest girl in the house. —why?—she is treasurer, of course.

November 5, Open House; October 31, Hallowe'en Party; December 9, House Party; entertaining at Chanute Field, freshman walk-out, slumber parties, and countless other things keep them all hopping continually. When you drop into Club Commons, notice Myrtle Eisenberg, their blues singer, who currently appears there. Then, too, we have Arlene Greenberg, pledge to Terrapin.

COLONIAL MANOR

For the twenty-four girls who live here, Colonial Manor is not just a place in which to stay for a few months—it is a home away from home. Besides all the comforts of home, the "colonists" find an understanding companionship in their house-mother and a fellowship with each other. The house meetings and impromptu gatherings have brought them together in a spirit of hearty friendship. At 7 P.M. every Monday they discuss and decide upon their activities. Every girl is a member of the W.G.S. and of various other campus activities. Each is striving to attain, for Colonial Manor, a place among the most active of independent houses.

CAGLE HALL

708 Sauth Mathews Street

Early in the fall amid the confusion that accompanies the first few weeks of a new semester, Cagle Hall rounded up its members for the first house meeting of the year. They had on their minds the matter of electing their new officers. After some hot electioneering, a good crop of officers came from the ballot. These turned out to be Hazel DeWall as the president, Phyllis Shimkus as vice-president, Hilda Pugh as secretary, and Mary Rose Belland as the treasurer.

Plans were laid for activities to be held all during the year, and some of these included Homecoming week-end with a buffet dinner and musical program to entertain the alumni, parents and friends. The next social function was to be an "Armistice Day Dance" for the boys from Chanute Field. Following this a Sunday afternoon tea was held for the benefit of all organized houses.

Cagle Hall is constantly a "bee-hive" of activity. Across the street is the Music Hall and the campus; and on both sides are inhabited sorority houses. The kids at the Hall cause no end of continual rush to and from classes, and the shrieks and shouts of a typical Illinois coed.

DELANO HALL

1106 South Third Street

It's not "all work and no play" at Delano. They keep up their morale by helping others to keep up theirs. When Sadie Hawkins Day rolled around, they didn't sit back and read about it in the comic strips. Instead, they took advantage of Al Capp's invention and decided to do a little chasing themselves. They invited all the Li'l Abners from Chanute Field and the Daisy Maes did a fine job upholding the Sadie Hawkins Day tradition.

The Christmas party for the underprivileged children which they have each year, gives them as much pleasure and happiness as the boys and girls who attend them. Their effort of playing the role of Santa Claus may not be too realistic, but the spirit of the holiday is still there.

Rolling bandages for the Red Cross, selling defense stamps for Hillel, and being hostesses for the servicemen at Chanute are all part of their contribution to the war effort.

But Delano also boasts of Alpha Lambda and Psi Chi members, which proves that lots of play and little work does not make Jean a dull girl.

DORNOCH

Dornoch is an independent men's house organized under this name at 1109 South Fourth Street, Champaign, in the year of 1941. The name was derived from the type of interior decoration and the ancestory of the Sutherland family which is associated with the house. A town of Sutherlandshire, Scotland, Dornoch is located on the Dornoch Firth of the North Sea. It was here that the Sutherland family tree took root and gained prominence as soldiers during the Celtic Wars and reconstruction period which followed. Today the town is noted as a health and holiday resort.

Members of the house have taken active interest in band, glee club, theatre guild, Y.M.C.A., and intramurals. Success has been attained in all of its past social functions, and the house is endeavoring to uphold this standard. Until the present time, eighty members are serving in the armed forces, and five of the present members are veterans.

FRAKER HOUSE

Fraker House, 1112 West Oregon Street, is one of the most actively organized houses this year. With the excellent cooperation of Mrs. M. L. Fraker, the housemother, the girls have enjoyed teas, dinners, dances, and other social functions. In addition to the social activities, the house members have wholeheartedly joined into supporting and participating in the more serious work of the campus. Various drives and collections made this year were backed with an enthusiasm by all. They have also contributed time, energy, and effort to the many war activities. The fine cooperation which has characterized "Fraker" this year has resulted in better understanding of one another. And the working and playing together has been responsible for the many fine friendships that have been formed.

FOREST HALL

809 West Pennsylvania Avenue

When the Farm House fraternity, Ag-lads, packed up their stock and beat it, in the fall of '43, thirty-two girls took over, much to the delight of their neighbors, Wenatchee and Sigma Nu. With due respect to the Farm House, the new occupants retained the initials F. H. for Forest Hall. The appellation is also derived from the fact that F. H., the most beautiful independent house on the campus, is kitty-corner from the Forestry.

Jean Cunningham, as president, strenuously took over the advancement of the Indee cause by seeing that the house voted one hundred per cent straight Indee. Ann Henderson, vice-president and freshman adviser, corralled all the freshmen into seminar to insure the maintenance of the high house average. Laurel Shurson confined her activities to scribbling madly at the love fests, known as housemeetings, while Jean Brickman was the diligent watch-dog of the ducats.

Margaret Noonan, Mavoureen Brauman, Sylvia Vidalakis, Ruth Weimer, and Maribel Campbell, known collectively as the hungry five, kept the house on pitch Christmas carolling. They also represented us at Chanute festivities and in the University Band and Chorus.

FOUR-H HOUSE

202 East Green Street

"Activity girls" might be the name for the Four-H House girls. W.G.S. president, Phi U president, Mortar Board vice-president, Shorter Board, Torch, Home Economics Club president, editor of Agriculturist, treasurer of Omicron Nu, Illini Union Board, Star Course Staff, Theatre Guild, Alpha Lambda Delta, University Chorus and Band, and U.S.O. are only a few of the campus activities participated in by Four-H girls.

Membership in the Four-H House isn't just an accident either. Girls are chosen by detailed applications and recommendations from their Farm and Home Bureaus and from personal interviews. Each girl must have a 4-H Club record of achievement and outstanding work. High school activities, scholastic rating, character, personality, and qualities of leadership are necessary. Girls are pledged for one year and if scholarship, character, and leadership standards are met, they are initiated at the end of the year.

Four-H House has its share of social events too. Formal and informal dances, faculty teas, heart sister week, big sister week, "pin" parties, etc., all play an important part in each girl's life. One of the highlights of the social calendar is the Alumni Banquet during Homecoming for the Four-H House Alumni Association.

GAMMA HOUSE

"The girls of Gamma House act just like people!" was the way in which one girl characterized them. They have dances, houseparties, teas, and picnics. They hate to go to their eight o'clocks; they cut lectures in favor of cokes; their constant query is "Is the mail here yet?" They also cram for exams, for they have a scholastic tradition to uphold.

The house affairs are kept in smooth running order by President Grace Hatcher, assisted by Vice-president Mary Jacobson. Catherine Snow keeps the minutes and the money as Secretary-treasurer, and Virginia Johnson provides the fun in the office of Social chairman.

GREGWOOD

One more newly organized house on campus, Gregwood, has given Illinois coeds another place in which to live. As of 1944, the house at 310 Gregory Drive is not Alpha Epsilon Pi, but Gregwood. No longer do the memories of the "frat" linger through the halls.

At the beginning of the year, they elected Elsie Fohrman as the prexy. She has been active in Hillel Senior Council and numerous other campus activities. Shirley Cohen has made a good vice-president, and there have been no complaints against Phyllis Kabakoff, the secretary. Naturally, they all envy Elaine Blacker who has the "niftiest" job in the house—that of treasurer.

Gregwood had an open house on November 5th, which proved very successful; and other social functions included the Christmas party, with a theme of "Winter Wonderland."

GRANADA CLUB

1104 Sauth Fourth Street

Granada Club, the largest men's independent on campus, is a smooth running, well-organized, active house.

Active in campus activities, its members have generously contributed to the war and community funds sponsored by the University. Granada also sponsors two social functions every semester such as hay-rides, picnics, dinners, and dances. Active in politics, Granada boasts of having the vice-president of the sophomore class, Joseph La Palombara; senator of the sophomore class, Sam King; and senator of the junior class, George Koptik, among its members.

Granada is proud of its ten World War II veterans, who, by living in this organized independent house, have been greatly aided in their readjustment to civilian life.

Every Monday night Granada holds a house meeting, when, under the eyes of its able officers—Howard Kasik, president; Joe La Palombara, vice-president; Wilbur Sauer, secretary-treasurer; and Don Koppel, social chairman—the Granada men give vent to their opinions and express any gripes which they may or may not have.

The house functions as an integrated and combined unit under the able management of Mrs. Albert Tuxhorn and our "housemother," Jack Hasch who conscientiously tucks the boys in bed every night and supplies warm milk for all those who so desire it.

HARRISON HALL

Harrison Hall, former residence of Delta Kappa Epsilon, was opened for independent women just this year with forty-four girls from many different states representing this house on campus. The formal opening was held on the afternoon of November 13, during which time the entire house was on display to numerous guests.

Blossom Friedman wields the gavel as president of Harrison Hall with Helene Berman as her pinch-hit assistant. Other house officers include Barbara Feldman, treasurer; Laynor Nover, secretary; Nancy Goodman, house manager; Norma Jean Rephan, social chairman.

Mrs. Dougherty, as housemother, presides over 902. In her capable hands the house has made a wonderful start. Due to the grand cooperation of Mrs. Dougherty and the spirit among the girls, Harrison Hall has proven to be an ideal place to live.

HILL HALL

As the first independent house to be organized on the Illinois campus, Hill Hall still maintains a high goal of scholastic, athletic, and social activities. In 1937, when this house was first organized, it was for the purpose of improving independent men's social opportunities, intra-mural sports activities, group records of scholastic averages, increased political prestige for the independent men in campus elections, and an organized effort to improve men's rooming house standards.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Hill, conductors of this enthusiastic group of men, have done a wonderful job of providing a home for each student residing there.

ILLINI HALL

725 South Wright Street

Illini Hall has the unique distinction of having been a residence hall for men, then for sailors, and finally this year, for the first time, it was open to women. All the eighty-three women of the Hall are either transfer or freshman students, but despite their newness to the University campus they have made a name for themselves both in activities and in scholarship.

This year's group at Illini Hall was known as an all around house. Gals with scholastic averages, gals with skills, and gals with dates! The residents of the Hall will long remember the fun and good times, and none will forget that one great experience of "getting to know the University" which we all learned together.

There have been house activities galore, dances, parties entertaining the service men, district W.G.S. teas, and midnight spreads. Some of side line doings include such activities as ping pong contests, bridge battles, gab sessions, pulling pranks, and, of course, a bit of studying now and then help to keep us busy throughout the year.

The officers of this year have been for us: Mary Ellen Lewis, president; Mary Ann Campbell, vice-president; Allie Keighin, secretary; Loanne Nye, treasurer; and Betty Noley, social chairman.

IVY HOUSE

303 East Chalmers Street

They're a new house on campus, but they're not a bit behind in campus achievements. They puff with pride to think that each girl is participating in at least one campus activity. Honors Day will see Alpha Lambda Delta well represented by the house.

Many of the pretty, formal-clad usherettes, who direct you to your seat at Star Course concerts, are Ivy girls. Theater Guild holds the popular interest, and the budding Sarah Bernhardts study their lines with a zest.

They're doing their bit for the war effort, too, with USO Cooperation Committee membership, minute-maids, and their one hundred percent weekly purchase of defense stamps.

The house was duly warmed, broken in, and unanimously praised at open house, November 5. And now a glimpse of what goes on behind ivy covered walls—stumbling over perpetual easels and paint cans reminding them of soooo many art majors—pre-meds scaring long-suffering roommates out of their wits with cat skulls—accents fighting Civil Wars between Southern belles and Easterners—knitting argyle socks—exchanging pictures—pajama parties with hamburgers and cokes—always singing "Is there any little thing that we can do for you?"

ILLIWANIS-KEOWA

The independent houses of Illiwanis and Keowa were combined this year into one organized house. The social activities and other functions were sponsored jointly, and with the participation of both houses the annual events which took place were a great success.

Among their many talented students are Betty Borchers, who is a member of Phi Chi Theta, and Olga Skoblikoff, University Sing performer. Ann Ada Krull is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, and many other Illiwanis-Keowa coeds have been pledged to scholastic honoraries.

Keowa has taken a genuine interest in drives for war funds, and has contributed 100 per cent to all these charitable functions.

LOCKE MANOR

Locke Manor initiated the 44-45 year by a get-together wienie roast which was extremely informal. They neglected to pack any silverware and had to dip the well-charcoaled frankfurter in the mustard jar.

Their hayride was rained out despite the Twin-Cities Chamber of Commerce predictions, but they transformed it into a theatre party that was almost as much fun.

They had a bowling party after competing for several weeks with league nights; and although their scores were not professional, they got lots of exercise and laughs.

On Hallowe'en, in answer to a late doorbell, they discovered a well-stuffed pair of pajamas propped against the bell. As the pj's belonged to one of the household they invited the stranger in.

They have had numerous card parties, including every game from double solitaire to bridge. Some of the games are rather cut-throat, especially the double solitaire.

Locke Manor looks forward to an interesting and active year with these past events as examples.

LA TREINTA

706 West Ohio Street

In 1941, the La Treinta was built in Spanish architecture and thirty girls assumed their college life at this large, brick house. The name La Treinta is the Spanish designation for the number thirty; therefore, approximately thirty girls reside in La Treinta each year.

Betty Farley, a member of Union Council and Spanish Club, is this year's president. Vice-president, Jean Lovendahl, is in the Illini band. Cynthia Camp, who is an Alpha Lambda Delta, plans all of the social activities. The secretarial work is done by Illio member, Thelma Riggin. Joan Baldry, who takes care of the financial business of the house is a Sub-district Chairman in W.G.S.

La Treinta is a member of the W.G.S. Honor Council, a member of W.A.A., and has for three consecutive years distinguished itself by winning first or second place in the Watcheka Sing. The girls are also active in Star Course, the Illini Union, The Illio, The Daily Illini, Spanish Club, Theatre Guild, and several honorary fraternities.

LEEMAN LODGE

309 East John Street

Girls from Leeman Lodge have always been active in extra-curricular activities. For the year of 1944, they won second in the W.G.S. Stunt Show and were awarded the Pan-Hellenic Achievement award. They belong to honorary organizations such as: Alpha Lambda Delta, Torch, Arepo, Sigma Delta Pi, Illustrators, Mask and Bauble, Zeta Phi Eta, and Sigma Alpha Iota; and function with various church foundations, the Student Senate, Theatre Guild, Union committees, W.G.S., The Illio, Y.W.C.A., and The Daily Illini. This year they gave one of the W.G.S. District Teas.

However, the girls' activities do not terminate with these. Leeman would not be Leeman without "Pop and his fiends' " bridge game . . . pajama parties around the fireplace . . . spreads and bull sessions . . . Friday afternoon teas . . . the early morning bells that fail to awaken everyone . . . freshman initiation . . . pinned or engaged girls being thrown into the showers . . . and in the spring of the year our traditional senior breakfast. The end of each semester finds each one cramming for knowledge they should have learned but somehow did not, (unintentionally, of course) and resolving to enforce a new slate come the next semester.

LOMBARDY LODGE

Lombardy Lodge, the former Delta Upsilon fraternity house, now converted into a residence for forty-six girls, was organized early in October. At the first meeting of the year, the house chose Audrey Simpson as president; Loretta Reuter, vice-president; Margot Flock, secretary; Ann Dayton, treasurer. On October 31, the upperclassmen conducted an initiation ceremony for all the new girls. This ceremony was preceded by a week of "torture and servitude" for the green freshies. During the customary ritual, each girl was led blindfolded down several flights of stairs to receive the "brand" of Lombardy Lodge. The ritual was followed by a skit cleverly presented by the initiates, who gave a "fashion show" which satirized the many costumes worn by a typical coed.

The house entertained the V-12 with an informal "At Home" in November. The year's highlights included several gala house dances, faculty and exchange dinners, and participation in the various W.G.S. activities. The house can proudly boast enthusiastic cooperation, and into its activities has gone plenty of hard work with lots of fun as a result. In the background was the guiding hand of their capable housemother, Mrs. Charity E. Pidcock.

LOWELL HALL

310 Gregary Drive

Lowell Hall, 310 Gregory Street, in Champaign, is one of the houses in the Women's Group System. This is its first year in existence as a women's house, for it was formerly the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. However, henceforth it will be used for the girls' group.

Lowell Hall is situated exactly right, for it is near the campus, yet far enough away to give a spacious view of the Stadium and athletic grounds.

It is comprised of a representative group of girls, forty-six in all, some upperclassmen and some freshmen. The house officers are: president, Patricia Critchlow; vice-president, Missie Stevenson; secretary-treasurer, Goldie Swango; and social chairman, Rosann Bugarsky.

The downstairs rooms of the house are very large, consisting of a reception hall, a large living room and dining room, and the housemother's living quarters. Each has a large wood-burning fireplace in it, lending itself nicely to social functions.

THE MANSION

410 East Green Street

The lack of stiffness in hospitality, and the warm friendly atmosphere are but a few of the many criteria for judging The Mansion favorably. Among its members are natural leaders, and the best men are selected to execute the group's ideas, and to honor all individual enterprise.

The majority of the men in the house this year are freshmen; thus, there is little chance of boasting activity leaders. But in four years, members shall be in the race for important campus positions. Only two seniors, Thomas Davison and Elmer Jones, are living in The Mansion this year.

All house functions have gained many compliments for courtesy and gentlemanly conduct. Members strive to maintain this reputation. Dances and informal fireside hours combine with regular curricular functions to make a well-rounded existence. Long-remembered are Mansion hayrides, at which pretty girls and full moons were responsible for pleasant occasions.

The friends made at The Mansion remember each other as "Auld Acquaintances," for each man tries to fulfill the ideals of friendliness, courtesy, and joviality.

MEDEA

412 East Green Street

Medea's house activities for the year started when Mother Winters prepared a spread for all the girls on October 10. Then, Dads were entertained on October 14, and following the Dad's Day football game, a Koffee Klautsch was held for them. Also, after Homecoming Game, Medea held a homecoming tea.

In the 1944 W.G.S. Stunt Show, Medea entered with a skit entitled, "I'd Love To Dance With You," and that same night, dates enjoyed a "Snow Fall" dance. At the Y.W.C.A. Doll Show, which was held December 9 and 10, this house interpreted "Hula Hula Dancers." Medea Annex gave a formal tea for Medea girls on December 10, and before going home for Christmas vacation, a formal dinner and Christmas party were held. To start the New Year, Medea held a faculty tea on January 14.

Promoting all these house activities are the following officers: Dorothy Rasmussen, president; Alice Ford, vice-president and freshman advisor; Rosemary Gage, secretary; LaVerne Bloomberg, treasurer; Barbara Howard, social chairman; Loretta McCutcheon, alumnae secretary; Deloris Argianis, scholarship chairman; and Mrs. J. C. Winters, house mother.

McKINLEY HALL

801 South Wright Street

The oldest women's dormitory on the Illinois campus is McKinley Hall which was built in 1913. Because of Senator William B. McKinley's generous contribution toward the building, it was named for his mother, Hannah McKinley, as a memorial to her.

Many undergraduate, independent women have since made this building their campus home. At the present time, however, McKinley Hall gives dining and dormitory privileges to seventy girls. The University YWCA, also, occupies the first floor of the building.

McKinley Hall is certainly more than a rooming house for independent girls. It has a social program of its own sponsoring dances, house parties, and faculty teas. Mrs. O. O. Rin, chaperon, and an executive council of class representatives aid the officers in planning the house program. The officers are: president, Lola Clark; vice-president, Winnie Harmon; secretary, Janice Aldrich; and treasurer, Shirley McKay.

The Hall is a well organized group participating in campus activities. The girls have always been active in W.G.S. functions, since R.G.S. was discontinued some years ago.

MENSEN MANOR

911 South Fourth Street

No longer do the strains of "Old Phi Kappa Psi" ring through the halls at 911 South Fourth. Instead, the soft melodies of "To Mensen Manor" fill the air. Where once tweeds, Argyle socks, pipes, and bow ties filled dresser drawers, long sweaters and bobby socks now take their places. Frilly curtains hang at the windows, and woolly animals clutter the beds. Mensen Manor is completely feminine now.

This organization is brand new, this being the first year of its existence. Meetings were held and officers elected. Jeanne Harmon is house president; Shirley Hamilton is vice-president; Cathy McGinnis, secretary; and Lynn Kobel, treasurer. A house council has also been set up to treat matters pertaining to house rules.

Fun-loving members have held open house and mixers for the servicemen, and parties among themselves. Many of the girls are USO hostesses and activity women. Such activities as Terrapin, Illio, Y.W.C.A., and Theatre Guild are well represented in Mensen Manor.

Mensen Manor girls are off to a good start. This organization promises to acquire even more prominence in the years to come.

MINER HOUSE

Miner House is one of the many independent houses for girls, but it is an important cog in the wheel of campus life. Forty-two girls are guided and helped in some way each day by Mrs. Miner herself, who is always ready with a word of counsel. All the girls are grateful to this model housemother and feel that they have gained something fine through knowing her.

The open house which Miner House gave last fall was a success due to the cooperation among the girls. They all gave generously to the War Chest drive, and showed their willingness to join in the war effort by going with the Gray Ladies to Chanute Field to help entertain the wounded men there.

MULL MANOR

Mull Manor—located within a convenient birds-eye view of the Chemistry Building, and greatly enlivened by the cut-ups of the mascot, Bob Baker's mutt, who for some reason is named "Sexy"—has been home to eighteen men for the past year.

Presidential guidance is in the form of Charles Vusich, ably assisted by vice-president, Gene Tom; and secretary-treasurer, Lewis Hicks. The social activities, which have been two hayrides with cracks and corn by John Kromery and John Doyle, are planned by social chairmen Don Larson and Chuck Nelson. The boys have been quite active in politics, and George Remington was one of the organizers for the Indee party.

NEW SIGMA

1009 West Pennsylvonia Street

The year's activities at New Sigma started with a wiener roast given by the house mother, Mrs. Howell, to welcome the girls on October 12. Wenatchee boys and V-12's were guests at the Hallowe'en party November 3, where the traditional ghosts, skeletons, and pumpkin faces peered out from unexpected corners. Dancing, bobbing for apples, dart throwing, and ping pong playing kept the guests entertained. In December the house gave a formal dance with Christmas as the theme.

During the second semester the first social function was a Valentine Day party. The other festivities for the spring were a formal dance, picnic, and formal dinner. Throughout the year, service men were entertained at Sunday dinners. Exchange dinners were given, and birthdays were celebrated.

The officers are: Marjorie Conklin, president; Charlotte Tanton, freshman advisor; Barbara Nicklaus, secretary; Joan Curry, treasurer; Priscilla Jacobs, social chairman; and Carol Tourtellott, honor council chairman.

NOAM HALL

When the Army withdrew from 308 Armory, thirty-five girls moved into the 'old frat house' and changed the name to Noam Hall.

Although the house is new on campus, the girls have participated in many campus activities. The aspiring journalists—Dot Urdangen, Judy Gottlieb, Sue Braveman, Sharon Rash, and Natt Burstein have spent their spare time at the Illini office. Devora Schiff entered into W.G.S. athletics, and several Noam Hall girls have given a helping hand to the Navy Technograph Staff.

Under the able leadership of Sue Braveman, president; Mille Diamond, vice-president; Adele Goldberg, secretary; and Rose Garson, treasurer; the house is carrying on in the typical Indee stride.

The high light of Noam Hall's career is its social function. A Christmas dance was given before the vacation which proved to be a great success.

ONONDAGA

The Indian lore of 1722 brought forth a powerful warlike confederacy known as Onondaga. In 1944 the modern connotation suggests a powerful house of true Illini maidens.

Onondaga girls have gone into the Illini Theatre Guild, The Daily Illini, and individual church organizations. In order to do their share in the war effort, they have enrolled as Gray Ladies.

Onondaga began its social season with a gala Hallowe'en "pop wow," birthday parties, coke dates, and a hayride leading to the "Wigwam Wiggle" on December 2.

The maidens of Onondaga can be identified by white hats lettered with a blue ONDA.

PRESBYTERIAN HALL

405 East John Street

Presbyterian Hall, a memorial to the daughters of Mrs. Livia Ball, was established in 1927 as a home for girls while they study at the University of Illinois. A church board determines house policies, while the House Council, composed of the house officers: Phyllis Nelson, Ann Ogan, Mary Potts, Mary Kennedy, and Nancy Gray, meets with Mrs. Welsh each Sunday night to plan business and discuss problems.

The sternness of the beautiful "Four Pillars Strong" is somewhat deceiving. Once inside the door one will find friendly, happy girls who enjoy participating in such activities as the Illini Union Board and Committees, McKinley Foundation, YWCA, Theatre Guild, Daily Illini, USO, WGS, WAA. They belong to such honorary societies as Mortar Board, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Sigma Alpha Iota, Illustrators. Last year they had the Valedictorian and the Salutatorian of the graduating class among them.

But Presby means more than all this. Presby means memories of singing around the piano, bridge games, spreads and bull sessions, Freshman Walk-out and Fun Week, Senior Breakfast with their spoons from the board, singing "I Love You Truly" to pinned and engaged girls. Presby has truly come to be a "home away from home."

REETER CLUB

907 South Sixth Street

Organized into a girls' house in the fall of '43, yet today, right on top with all the other leading independent houses on campus, is Reeter Club.

The Homecoming dinner for Reeter "alums," the Christmas and Spring formals, a children's party for members of the Cunningham home, and a Senior breakfast are a few of the traditions of the house.

In war activities Reeter is represented by five USO hostesses, Helen Marie Hawthorne, Doris Kessler, Ramona Lubejko, Rose Sollome and Rosalie Stupka. Rosalie is a certified Red Cross Canteen member.

The first real achievement was the winning of the Interhouse Sports trophy in the spring of '44.

Other activities in which Reeter girls are active are the Spanish club, of which Ramona Lubejko is treasurer; the McKinley Student Council, of which Jean Hamilton is vice-president, and of which Mary Jane Ritchie is Chairman of Publicity.

Not only are the girls at Reeter Club socially inclined, but scholastically as well. Four girls are members of Alpha Lambda Delta: Emily Frank, Mary Jane Ritchie, Ruth Stark and Winona Schroeder.

REGENA—906 CLUB—LE CHATEAU

Big things come in small packages, as is proved by the fact that the girls in these houses are participating in campus activities.

The Regena girls not only participate in church activities, but Virginia Kimet is active in Gamma Delta and Accountancy Club; Mary Wilson is active in Theatre Guild; Helen Trummel is a member of the Agriculturist staff, Home Economics Club, and Theatre Guild; and Ursula Kuizin is a member of Theta Sigma Phi.

Le Chateau also takes an active part in activities here on campus. Gloria Stremsterfer is on Union recreation; Betty Scott has participated in Club Commons and the W.G.S. Stunt Show; Laurel Hruda is a member of the University band and orchestra; Frances Baker is a member of the O. T. club, and Kathleen Frame is president of the Unitarian Youth Group.

REUTHA HOUSE

A busy coed's life is the life for these members. Studies, activities, and dates round out the day. During the school year there are soldier and date parties, bike-hikes, pajama parties, heart sister week, and a host of other house functions. The girls are in a variety of campus honoraries and many are active in campus organizations. Theatre Guild rates high and Reutha boasts of senior, junior, and sophomore managers in that organization. Also there are district, sub-district, and various other committee chairmen of W.G.S. The Daily Illini and Illini Union committees are well represented. Helen Auerbach wields the gavel while Edith Fisher acts as social chairman. Minutes are read by Sherri Becker and the treasury is kept by Harriet Lazerson.

RUSTE ARMES

404 East Jahn Street

Among the residents at Ruste Armes are three outstanding men who graduate this year. They are George Smith, Senior Class prexy, active in MIWA, Theatre Guild, Homecoming activities, and the Union Board, but whose real ambition is to be a successful industrial designer; Glenn Craft of Architecture School prominence; and Ted Bendel who hails from the Law School.

It's been a busy year . . . with Wednesday night trade dinners, hayrides and picnics, successful dances, and the sensational Ballet de la Peux that kept going until costumes fell off. In spite of conflicting activities, as well as school work, members managed to have a good time and an unforgettable year. Of course, Lecie Mann, Ruste Armes housemother, deserves the lion's share of the credit for such a successful year.

Due to the large number of freshmen that arrived both semesters, and also due to the fact that the upperclassmen were in demand at the draft board, the turnover was terrific.

SAGER HOUSE

307 East Jahn Street

Sager House, founded at 504 East John Street by Mrs. Leslie W. Sager, was moved to its present location at 307 East John Street in the fall of 1938. It was organized from the beginning as a member of W.G.S.

For twelve years, Friday afternoon teas have been a cherished tradition at Sager House. Hot tea, cookies, and a blazing fire furnish an atmosphere for an afternoon of relaxation and companionship. Another tradition which seems to be rated especially high is the annual Harvest Party. It is held each fall on a Sunday afternoon preceding Thanksgiving. Autumn leaves and flowers furnish the decoration, while pumpkin pie, coffee, apples, and toasted marshmallows provide refreshment for Sager House girls, their dates, and friends.

A glance at the mantle laden with cups and trophies reveals that Sager House has been active in campus activities and has won considerable recognition, while the plaques show that Sager House girls have always won individual recognition for activities and scholarship.

This year Sager House had an active part in the organization of the Indee party on campus. It contributed three members to the sophomore campaign committee and one member to the Student Senate. Other girls are active in all the major campus activities.

SHAWNEE

1004 West Nevada Street

Shawnee house is celebrating its sixth year on campus. The Shawnee girls have always been active in student affairs such as Illini Union, Theatre Guild, Daily Illini, Student Senate, W.G.S., W.A.A. dance committees, Alpha Lambda Delta, Torch, and Shorter Board. This year, in addition to other activities, Catherine Palecek was elected president of the sophomore class, the first woman to hold that office in the history of the university. The house was also named the campaign headquarters for the Indee '46 party.

In furthering the war efforts, the thirty-one girls have cooperated with the Nurses' Aide Corps, Red Cross, USO, and War Chest Drive. Three Shawnee alums are serving in the WAVES and others are planning to join on completion of school.

As a house, Shawnee has had the usual number of formal, informal, and service dances, an open house tea in the spring, and an Easter party for colored children. The house participates in the Watcheka sing and has made the W.G.S. Honor Roll every year. The house mascot is a fourteen-year old black and white dog named "C.B.," frequently seen in class rooms and eating places on campus.

SHERWOOD HALL

Sherwood Hall was first organized this year, having formerly been the Phi Gamma Delta house. Officers for the present year are: President, Anna Campana; Vice-president, Marjorie Faust; Secretary, Murial Stuart; Treasurer, Cathy Leone; Social co-chairmen, Ruth Baker and Mary Trebellas; and Freshman advisor, Elvira Thouvenot.

Starting off the social activities for the year was the November "Harvest Hop,"—the theme being carried out in decoration and refreshments. Other affairs included a dance for the Chanute Field Air Cadets, an exchange dinner with a next-door neighbor, Presby Hall, a winter formal at the Union, held in cooperation with two other houses, and climaxing all, the Spring Formal at the Hall.

The house has entered into many campus activities—serving as hostess at the Illini Union at Sunday afternoon tea dances, and participating in the W.G.S. Stunt show.

Heart Sister week was observed in the house from December 4 to December 10, during which time all sorts of surprises "popped up" in the form of small gifts and minor tasks for each other.

STONEHAVEN

1011 South Sixth Street

Stonehaven, one of the newly organized independent houses, began the social year with an exchange dinner with the Cosmopolitan Club. On November 4, with a house-warming dance, Stonehaven introduced itself to the campus. The W.G.S. district tea was given as an informal "kick-off" party during the afternoon of the Illinois-Michigan game. The girls have taken an active part in many war activities—going regularly to the USO, Red Cross, Chanute Field dances and the S.O.S. The entire house contributed to the War Chest Drive.

Christmas was celebrated with an old fashioned party wtih games and dancing. The juke box and sweaters were the theme of the New Year's dance. During the evening a bridge tournament was held.

After the rush of registration the new semester was opened with a bowling party. The losing teams treated the winners to a steak dinner. March was ushered in with a waffle supper, and engagement and birthday parties were scattered throughout the year. The girls participated in many W.A.A. activities, and painted many a scene in Theatre Guild. Stonehaven closed a very successful and happy year with a beautiful Spring Formal.

STRATFORD HOUSE

311 East Daniel Street

They don't spend all their spare time polishing their fifteen trophy cups, but they're proud of them. They don't detour every acquaintance through the Library to show the names of Alice Glennon and Barbara Johnston on the Bronze Tablets, but they'd like everyone to know they are there. Since it was organized in 1935, Stratford House has participated in many major activities on the campus . . . Theatre Guild, the Stunt Show, Watcheka Sings . . . Its had several officers of W.G.S. . . . It used to shine at pre-war Homecomings in badge sales and decorations. There are Stratford House girls in Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Alpha Lambda Delta, and numerous honorary and professional fraternities. And they've enjoyed making themselves an active part of campus life at the University of Illinois and will continue to do so as long as they are here.

The officers of this year include: president, Lorraine Illich; vice-president, Opal Gibson; secretary, Mildred Noble; treasurer, Dorothy Botteron; social chairman, Loretta Pizzini; our housemother, Mrs. M. C. Gragg; and the mascot, "Wags."

TERRACE MANOR

912 South Second Street

Imagine—Girls living in a fraternity house!!! . . . A strange phenomenon but nevertheless a true fact. The Chi Psi fraternity house, under the name of Terrace Manor, is now an independent house for girls. At first the idea seemed a little fantastic but it has become a usual thing around the campus. With ruffled curtains, perfume bottles, shrieking female voices, nick-nacks, and "hen-parties," the atmosphere has become more feminine. Familiar phrases such as, "Phone for Sue," "who wants a blind date?" and "Joan, your 'man' is downstairs," echo through the halls. The final touch is added by the presence of "unmentionables" hanging up to dry.

Our social events started off with a house-warming dance, and included a Holiday formal and the traditional hay-ride. Hard work and pleasure has comprised one year of a well-rounded life.

At the beginning of the year we elected Alyce Apoyan as our president, our vice-president is Eleanor Wilfred, Audrey Cranzell has handled the secretary's position, while our able treasurer has been Sue Sheridan. The freshman advisor for Terrace Manor is Marcia Good.

Terrace Manor has activity girls, too. Lois Proctor and Alyce Apoyan teach dancing for the Wednesday night dancing classes at the Union; and Nancy Blakemore and Lorraine Diers slave daily at the Illini.

TARA HALL

When you think of Tara Hall, you see a quiet, peaceful edifice, passive and restful—that is the Tara Hall of which Margaret Mitchell wrote. However, she didn't have a group of exhuberant college girls living in her hall, where youth and liveliness are the passwords. Just this year it hung up its shingle and celebrated its second birthday since it became incorporated as "Tara Hall," population, fourteen. This infant of two years is situated on one of the busiest corners in Urbana and its presence here helps to make it so. Much can't be said of its record as it is too young, but one of these days you will be hearing from Tara Hall.

TRELAWNEY

Trelawney is the temporary name for the Alpha Delta Phi house. Although the Alpha Delts shudder at the thought of frilly curtains in every window, the house is a charming place for the forty girls who now live there. The spacious and beautiful parlor with the huge fireplace is a perfect setting for—yes, the bridge players, who fiendishly play the game at all hours. We must not forget to mention the most popular girl in the house—our delightful housemother, Mrs. Mauzy. Friendly girls and a charming housemother make Trelawney a pleasant home.

TWIN GABLES

1105 South Fourth Street

October finally came and with it hundreds of coeds to the University of Illinois. Changes had taken place. Fraternity houses still stood and were occupied not by the army this year, few by fraternity men, but many by girls. Such is the story of the Sigma Phi Epsilon house.

New girls, transfer students, and former Illini stormed within its portals to make it their home. With feminine accessories, dance programs, and knickknacks of forty-seven girls, a transformation took place. The former Sig Ep house became known as Twin Gables.

Both service and social functions were held this year. One of the brightest spots on the calender of Twin Gables was the crowning of Donna Shad as Queen of the Victory Ball.

The officers for the year were: president, Patricia Owens; vice-president, Patricia Murphy; secretary, Ruth Day; and treasurer, Marie Walsh.

No longer are there footballs, pipes, and other masculine knacks lying around the house, but kerchiefs, "bobbie pins," and compacts take their place. There's never a dull moment at Twin Gables.

WARNER HALL

1106 West Oregan Street

Established in 1922, Warner Hall has since had a long record of activities and scholarship on campus. It has been an organized house and member of WGS since soon after that organization's beginning. Four times the presidents of WGS were Warner Hall girls, and on the honor plaques of the house there are many girls listed on Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, Torch, and various other honoraries. Gals at Warner Hall are blessed with brains, skills, and dates. This makes an all-around house.

Each year Warner Hall enters the YWCA Doll Show, WGS Sing, and the stunt show, and the girls are kept busy planning the two annual formal dances, other informal dances, Christmas carol-singing party, Heart Sister Week, and Senior Breakfast which are now a part of the house traditions.

Since the first WGS Honor Council Plaque was unveiled, Warner Hall has been named on it each year. Its record of high scholarship, activity work and service to the University is the goal of the girls this year as it has always been.

WEBSTER HALL

106 East Daniel Street

This is the first year that the Delta Sigma Phi house has been open to women. It is called Webster Hall after the housemother, Mrs. Jessie Webster. The girls that make up this grand group are all at Illinois in order to further their education in the field in which they are most interested. Their courses vary from Liberal Arts and Sciences to Physical Education. The officers of this new residence are Janice Carter, president; Marion Smolen, secretary-treasurer; and Phyllis Cruzen, social chairman.

Homecoming was a gala event this year, with all the alumni visiting Delta Sig, only to find it occupied by women. They were quite happy and well pleased to find that their house was still full of life and activity; in fact, going strong! Webster's first dance was the weekend of Armistice Day. It was quite a success, and so with this encouragement, the girls are planning more activities for this year.

Even though it is their home, the girls at Webster Hall hope with all their hearts that after the war the Delta Sigs can return once again to this house which has meant "home" to the "fellas" and now means "home" to the girls.

WELSH HOUSE

1005 West Nevada Street

The year 1944-45 finds the girls of Welsh House carrying on the traditions of living the lives of active, spirited, loyal Illini. One finds them sharing in the honors as well as the fun in the fields of scholarship, activities, and leadership. They have a Shorter Board member, four Torch members, two junior managers of Theatre Guild, four Illini Union major chairmen, and the vice-president of W.G.S. Two members of Phi Omicron Epsilon, the president of the junior class, the vice-president of the senior class, three district chairmen of W.G.S., two members of Phi Chi Theta, and the vice-president of the Student Senate, all give an indication of the ability and interest of the girls this year in the campus life about them. A scholastic average, the first semester of last year of 4.06 placed them in third place among all W.G.S. houses. Since the war they've even broadened the field and taken time to contribute to the national need of energetic Americans in the way of bandage rolling, U.S.O. work, and nurses-aides. Welsh house is living up to and building beyond the standards set by the girls of previous eight years, and Illinois coeds of the past seventy-four years.

WENATCHEE HOUSE

805 West Pennsylvonio Street

In September of 1940, Carl Chapman, a transfer student from Blackburn College, conceived the idea that there should be a men's residence designed to provide a high standard of living at a minimum cost on the University of Illinois campus. Aided by his Blackburn colleagues, and wholeheartedly backed by Dean Earl Thompson of Student Housing, he headed the organization at the site of 712 Oregon with a membership of twenty-four. The following year Wenatchee moved to 805 West Pennsylvania with forty-four members.

One year later, Wenatchee was granted a Charter by the University designating it as being an approved cooperative house, by virtue of having been provided with proper study conditions, moral surroundings, a competent house-mother, and a high standard of living with a twenty-five dollar per month cost per person.

Wenatchee offers a fraternal atmosphere. The work of maintenance is handled entirely by the members, and the interior government operates in a democratic manner, rotating its executive officers each semester.

Chronologically, Wenatchee was the third approved "co-op" on this campus. The war has threatened the closing of the house each semester for over a year. However, through the ambition of its members, it has remained open and is the only men's cooperative house that is open this year.

WESTAIRE

Westaire has been in existence only four years—but a terrific amount of memories have piled up in that time. The old friends of Westaire—gals now off the campus and pals who have scattered over the world—say they look back and chuckle over the memory of house dances, song-fests, teas, open houses, and so on and on through four years of fun.

And just this past year, some of those friends came back to a Westaire Homecoming tea—a gay, brightly decorated tea—orange and blue from welcoming posters right down to the pastry.

It was Homecoming fun for all, yet it really meant more to everyone; for it was the making of another treasured Illini-Westaire Memory.

WYNGATE HOUSE

Wyngate House, situated at the corner of John and Second streets and composed largely of transfer students and freshmen, made its initial appearance as a women's independent house this year.

This fall found it humming like a dynamo from the very start. The Dad's Day dinner was the first social function and the dads present seemed to enjoy it immensely. It also had the "Harvest Hop" in November with a group of sailors from Company D in the Navy V-12 unit on campus, and an exchange dance the latter part of the year with a men's independent house.

Wyngate is proud of its housemother and dad with their little three and one-half year old daughter, Mary, who has stolen the hearts of Wyngate girls.

WHYTE PILLARS

1111 South First Street

Take a Swedish house mother, a congenial group of women, and a spirit of participation and the result is Whyte Pillars.

These women have been active in many activities and have made a name for themselves and their house, newly organized this year. They were in on everything from WILL and Theatre Guild to Illini Union committees.

With a Homecoming open house to which parents and friends on campus were invited, Whyte Pillars began a year of social activities which included a Hallowe'en wiener roast, dances and teas. The women acted as hostesses at a Union coffee hour.

Whether phone duty or house committees, the women of Whyte Pillars did their part willingly under President Carol T. Brand. Songleader Jan Engel and her unlimited supply of college songs drew them together in many an after-dinner sing. Betty Lipari was an efficient W.S.S.F. chairman; Jean Howerton handled Homecoming badge sales.

Whyte Pillars is another of the "Frat houses," which was transformed into an abode of long tresses, "sloppy Joe's," and plaid skirts. Pipes, Petty girls, and engineering books have been discarded for pin-ups of Ty Power, perfume, and other feminine luxuries.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

More than ever in these years of war, is the value of true learning realized in preparing intelligent citizens for the world of the future. Scholastic honor recognizes those students who have distinguished themselves by outstanding scholarship . . . little keys of metal, their symbols. Surrounding these symbols in tradition at Illinois are Honors Day each spring, set aside to recognize the highest ranking students in their respective classes . . . Bronze Tablet . . . placed on library walls . . . the upper two per cent of the entire university . . . its reward, the University of Illinois scholarship key . . . the five national honoraries founded at Illinois . . . Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Tau Sigma, Beta Gamma Sigma, Phi Lambda Upsilon.

It is only fitting, therefore, that on the following pages we place the names of those students who, to the highest degree of excellence, have learned to acquire knowledge.

Phi Kappa Phi is the only all-university scholastic honorary at Illinois. Eligible students are elected from all colleges and schools of the University. Membership is restricted to the upper twentieth (five percent) or less of the graduating class. A student must be a senior to be eligible for election. There are forty-nine active chapters of Phi Kappa Phi. Chapter president for the year 1945 was Elmer Roberts.

HONORARIES AND PROFESSIONALS

As in all phases of college life, the consequences of war have taken their toll of the campus honorary and professional fraternities, chiefly through decreased enrollment. However, although this has forced some of them to become inactive for the duration, the remaining 24 are a tribute to the spirit of the University and to their own firm foundations in endeavor and achievement.

Perhaps the results have not been so great as might have been expected, for these organizations now are more than ever a part in the student life. Those whose will to learn is recognized by invitation to membership are those who realize their duty in the world to come and who are eager to perform that duty to the best of their abilities; they are those citizens of the future who have a hope and belief in progress and in a greater and better civilization.

To bring together students interested in particular fields . . . to develop ideals of service, loyalty and friendship . . . to advance learning and achievement . . . to foster character . . . to encourage and promote high standards . . . all have been the aims of these groups; and, therefore, in spite of the war, they will continue to be an important influence in University life.

THE ACCOUNTANCY CLUB

The Accountancy Club was established for mutual profit and pleasure by a group of students who were attracted by common interests in the field of accounting. The organization attempts to foster and maintain a sincere interest in the accounting science. This is accomplished by holding four or five meetings a semester at which meetings, either members of the faculty or businessmen give talks relating to accountancy.

The club is one of the few academic societies that has been able to continue operating during war-time conditions. It has been able to operate because of the interest taken in the club by a small group of students and faculty members.

One of the main reasons that the Accountancy Club has been able to operate so successfully is the very able guidance of the faculty members. All accounting professors are members of the club. One of them is the club sponsor, Doctor Theiss.

During the last few years, membership in the club has decreased to about one-fourth of its prewar size. It was because of this decrease that the entrance requirement of credit in two semesters of accountancy was changed to one semester's credit.

AGRICULTURAL CLUB

The Agricultural Club, a social and technical organization of undergraduate men in the College of Agriculture, was organized in 1888 and is the oldest student organization on the Univeristy of Illinois campus. In 1925 specialized clubs were instituted as subsidiary organizations to the Agricultural Club. These are known today as the Hoof and Horn, Horticulture, Poultry Science, Agricultural Education, Field and Furrow, Dairy Production, Dairy Technology, Agricultural Economics, and Agricultural Engineering Clubs.

Since its beginning, the aim of the Agricultural Club has been "to train agriculture students to be men of affairs in later life; men who will be prepared to lead thought and action in their home communities and to promote the moral, intellectual, and social welfare of its members as well as the furtherance of agriculture." Membership in the Agricultural Club is voluntary, the only requirement being enrollment in the College of Agriculture.

The Agricultural Club has achieved the founding of The Illinois Agriculturist, a student publication since 1896, and the sponsoring of the "Plowboy Prom," the annual agriculture dance since 1912. Other functions have been the sponsoring of judging contests, the "Ag Banquet," the "Little International," "All Agriculture Field Day," and other educational and entertaining activities.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Alpha Kappa Psi, the first and oldest commerce fraternity, was founded on October 5, 1904, in the School of Commerce at New York University. Since 1904 fifty-nine student chapters have been installed in leading educational institutions throughout the country.

The fraternity is a charter member of the Professional Interfraternity Conference composed of the leading professional fraternities in the various professional fields.

The aims of Alpha Kappa Psi are "to further the individual welfare of its members; to foster scientific research in the fields of commerce, accounts, and finance; to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals therein; and to promote and advance in institutions of college rank, courses leading to degrees in business administration."

Epsilon of Alpha Kappa Psi was the fifth chapter to be installed, and it was formed in 1913 at this University.

Membership is based on good character, scholarship, and satisfactory ability for potential business success. Throughout the year, we have meetings, parties, and educational lectures which pertain to our aims in the business world.

ALPHA PI DELTA

Alpha Pi Delta is a sort of home-away-from-home for Girl Scouts now here on campus. It was first organized as a meeting place for girls who were still deeply interested in scouting even though contacts with their home group have been broken. With a three-fold purpose, to offer service to the scouting program, to the community in which they live, and to the university they attend, Alpha Pi Delta has enjoyed a busy schedule of activities. Its membership is offered to all U. of I. coeds who care to exchange scouting experiences.

A. S. C. E.

The chapter of A.S.C.E. at the Univeristy of Illinois is one of the largest student chapters of the organization in the United States. The objects of the Society are: to acquaint the students with the practical phases of engineering, and to develop in him a professional point of view; to provide for and foster fraternal spirit among engineering students; to familiarize the student with the purpose, parliamentary procedure, and objectives of a professional engineering society; to encourage, promote, and support student publications, and professional and social activities of the College of Engineering; to arrange for and sponsor inspection trips. Bi-monthly meetings are held and the country's foremost civil engineers are our speakers. Slide lectures are also given throughout the semester by the civil engineering faculty.

A. S. M. E.

The purpose of the Student Branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers is to familiarize the embryo engineer with a knowledge of the various fields open to him, as well as to develop in him a professional spirit and code of ethics. At the monthly meetings leaders in mechanical engineering, both professors and men in industry, discuss significant developments and new ideas pertaining to mechanical engineering. To further acquaint the students with recent trends in mechanical engineering, the parent society publishes a monthly periodical which contains informative and interesting articles.

CHI EPSILON

Chi Epsilon was founded on the Univeristy of Illinois campus in the spring of 1922 and has since organized chapters all over the country. Chi Epsilon is an honorary fraternity for civil engineers and it recognizes scholarship, character, practicality, and sociability in undergraduate students. The basic objective of the fraternity is to increase the efficacy of the civil engineering profession as an instrument of social betterment by gathering together a nucleus of capable men of high standards who will apply the widening scientific principles to the practical needs of society.

On this campus Chi Epsilon enters into the social life of the college by sponsoring dances and parties. Frequently the faculty and student members meet and discuss pertinent engineering ideas and factors affecting the civil engineering profession.

DELTA SIGMA RHO

Delta Sigma Rho is a national honorary forensics society which elects to its membership upperclassmen who have represented the University in intercollegiate activities.

Until 1906, there were several honor groups in debating and oratory, but no national society of this type. The University of Illinois was one of the seven universities which started this movement and became a charter chapter of Delta Sigma Rho. The society has grown immensely, so that now seventy-three large universities and colleges are members. The Illinois chapter, although temporarily inactive when Prof. Alfred Huston left for the army in 1943, is active once again under the supervision of Prof. Windesheim.

The purpose of the society is to encourage sincere and effective public speaking; even the name, Delta Sigma Rho, means oratory—the key to power.

ETA KAPPA NU

As with other honorary organizations, the depletion of ranks with calls to the services was pronounced, and Eta Kappa Nu's degree of activity on the Illinois campus has been markedly decreased during the last few semesters. Fortunately, many Navy students are registered in Electrical Engineering and at present comprise nearly the entire Illinois chapter. Represented among the Alma Maters of the active members now at Illinois are the University of Pittsburg, Kalamazoo College, Western Michigan College, Kansas City Junior College, the Univeristy of Detroit, and many others.

Despite wartime conditions Eta Kappa Nu has continued to maintain thirty-six active national chapters, and on January 21, 1945, granted the thirty-seventh charter to Beta Omicron Chapter at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The end of the war will find many members returning to their home chapters and will undoubtedly be accompanied by a rapid expansion and consequent resumption of activity.

ISABEL BEVIER HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Membership into the Isabel Bevier Home Economics Club of the University of Illinois is open to any university girl who is enrolled in the home economics curriculum. The major purpose of the monthly meetings is to acquaint girls with leading personalities of their field, for at each meeting a prominent leader of home economics speaks on current problems and opportunities related to home economics.

The monthly social parties, as the roller skating party, weiner roasts, joint dances and parties with Agriculture Club, offer opportunities for the students enrolled in the College of Agriculture to become better acquainted with their classmates. A project related to war activities or other community service activities is sponsored by the Home Economics Club.

The highlight of the year is the Plowboy Prom sponsored by the Agriculture and Home Economics Clubs. The fellows, donned like farmers, greet the gingham-dressed lassies with vegetable corsages. An Ag. queen and her court are announced during the evening's entertainment.

To sum up the year's activities, a spring banquet, at which the newly-elected officers are introduced, is held.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi was founded at the University of Illinois in 1911 by William C. Bagley, Truman L. Kelley, and Stephen S. Colvin. Through the years the Society's main purpose as an honor society has entailed a three-fold objective—scholarship, an educational profession, and the development of the power to serve. Its policies, administrative machinery, types of meetings, publications, and investment of funds, have all been developed in the interest of this triune purpose. It is the only national coeducational honor society in American education that includes both undergraduate and graduate students and members of the education and allied faculties. Alpha Chapter maintains a loan fund and makes an annual award to the outstanding senior in the College of Education.

OMEGA BETA PI

Omega Beta Pi was founded at the University of Illinois, April 2, 1919, as a professional fraternity. This fraternity had its own chapter house at one time, which was later abandoned. It then became an honorary professional fraternity with a 4.0 average, and election on the basis of personality and character necessary "for an entirely successful physician," required for initiation.

The purpose of the fraternity is "to promote a better understanding among pre-medical students, and to further the best interests of their profession." The organization sponsors a series of lectures throughout the school year, which are of especial and current interest to the pre-medical student.

Two awards are given each year by the fraternity. One is given to a freshman and one to a sophomore pre-medical student who has the highest scholastic average.

PHI CHI THETA

Tea and cookies in the Commerce Seminar? No, it does not mean that refreshments are served while you study. It means that the members of Phi Chi Theta are having one of their several social functions of the year. Phi Chi Theta is a professional organization for girls enrolled in the College of Commerce. Sigma Chapter, one of twenty-five active chapters over the nation, has rushing, pledging, and initiation of selected girls (who have at least sophomore standings and 3.3 averages) once each semester. The planning and execution of these functions and others, such as sponsoring lectures and having teas for commerce instructors, require the girls to cooperate with and direct each other—valuable training for would-be career women.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON

This fraternity is the national professional organization in the field of Home Economics. Its purpose is to establish bonds of friendship, to promote the moral and intellectual development of its members, and to advance and promote Home Economics. Pi Chapter of Phi Upsilon Omicron has several projects. Each year a tour of the Women's Building is conducted to acquaint freshmen and transfer women with the work of the various divisions of Home Economics and their location. The historical project is to dress a figurine in the prevailing fashion of the year. Pi Chapter has also for some time been collecting material for a biography of Miss Isabelle Bevier, former head of the Department of Home Economics here at Illinois and a pioneer and outstanding leader in the field.

PSI CHI

Psi Chi, national psychology honorary, is composed of students who are majoring or minoring in Psychology. Candidates must present at least a 3.5 all-University average and a 4.0 average in Psychology and (1) must either be engaged in, or have completed some research problem, or (2) must have completed at least twelve hours of Psychology or its equivalent. Meetings are held monthly at which faculty members, outside speakers, or students address the group on some timely subject of interest to students preparing to go into the field of Psychology or its related branches. Surveys and research projects are carried on under the direction of, or with the cooperation of members of the faculty.

SIGMA TAU

Sigma Tau was founded February 22, 1904, when a group of upper-classmen of the Engineering College of Nebraska held a banquet and announced the organization of a new honor society in engineering. The initial study of the problem was carried on by a group of civil engineering students, who, after two meetings in the fall of 1903, agreed to broach the matter to other engineers, and to invite the advice of certain members of the faculty. In 1912 the first National Council was elected. On March 3, 1930, Sigma Tau was admitted to full membership to the Association of College Honor Societies. The number of active chapters at the present time is twenty-five.

SHI-AI

Shi-Ai is an activity honorary that was founded to promote a truer friendship among the women of the various fraternities. Each year two sophomore members from each of the eighteen sororities in Shi-Ai are chosen as pledges, and wear the emerald and straw pledge ribbons of this organization. During their pledge period, the girls are required to work up an original stunt, and they must go to all the member sororities during the dinner hour to perform their stunt in the dining rooms. The fun comes when the pledges must be able to recognize all active Shi-Ai girls in each house, and do so by asking each for her autograph. Shi-Ai sponsors each year a milk drive, designed to collect money to provide milk for needy families in this community. Shi-Ai girls deposit over one hundred half-pint bottles in Pan-Hellenic and Independent houses, and everyone on the campus is urged to drop in coins during the intensive drive. Shi-Ai has put forward many inter-sorority activities as a means of better acquainting the girls. Before war-rationing, exchange dinners met with great success. Since 1925, Shi-Ai has sponsored an inter-sorority Sing as part of the campus Mother's Day week-end program. It is always a thrill to see the girls in their multi-colored formals, singing the favorite songs of their sororities. All this goes to create fun and enthusiasm among the girls of Shi-Ai, and to keep it one of the "friendliest honoraries on the campus."

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Sigma Alpha Iota is a professional fraternity for women in the field of music, its purpose being to uphold and further the highest ideals of music and to promote and dignify the musical profession. Membership is based largely on scholarship and musicianship. Throughout the year S.A.I. does a large amount of musical work and programs. They have an informal musicale each month where the members and advisors gather for an informal evening of music. They also present a radio program every Saturday at 10:30 over WILL. Every semester there is rushing of those girls who have proved themselves eligible. This includes musicals, parties, and other gatherings. Every Christmas the organization gets together and goes Christmas Carolling. They give at least two public recitals a year. One is called the Spring Recital and the other the Victory Musical. The alums are always entertained at a Homecoming Breakfast. In the Spring the seniors are honored with a Senior Breakfast. Since the war S.A.I. members have been acting as ushers for all musical programs at Smith Memorial Hall.

SIGMA DELTA PI

The purposes of the national organization of Sigma Delta Pi are to foment a wider knowledge of, and a greater love for the Hispanic contributions to modern culture; to stimulate a greater interest therein on the part of our students in colleges and universities of the United States; to foster friendly relations and the co-operative spirit between the nations of Hispanic speech and of English speech; and to reward those who show special attainments and interests.

The national officers assume the responsibility of planning each year a general program of worthwhile activities in which each chapter may participate. Such a program may embrace projects such as national essay contests, the publication of a national bulletin for active members, and other activities which will further our aim. Our local chapter has sponsored a tea for Latin-American students on campus so that we may become better acquainted with their ideals and culture.

Membership in the local chapters consist of three types: active, honorary, and affiliate. Active members include university students who are nominated on a basis of high scholarship in a specific amount of academic work in Spanish. Honorary members are members of the Spanish staff and other scholars of Hispanic culture.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, or more properly, the Circulo Literario Espanol, has had a long and varied career on the Illinois campus. In the early days of its existence it met in the house of Professor John D. FitzGerald. When it became too large for a private home, it began to meet in the Woman's Building. Its best known function has been the annual "Noche Espanola" which used to be given as nearly as possible on May 2, date of the Spanish National Holiday. In Professor FitzGerald's time the performance usually was divided between a one-act play and a species of Andalusian "tertulia" where various numbers were performed. In later years more importance has been given to the performance and with the cooperation of faculty and students, such ambitious undertakings as Juan Moreira, and Argentine gaucho play; Cancion de Cuna; Zaragueta; and Don Juan Tenorio have been offered.

The Circulo Literario Espanol has also stimulated other semi-public activities in addition to its regular bi-weekly meetings. In collaboration with the Spanish honorary fraternity, Sigma Delta Pi, it promotes a declamation contest every year. Another activity is the celebration of Pan-American day on April 14.

This year the club has sponsored an "Information Please" program conducted in Spanish; a talk by Professor Enrique Rodriquez Fabregat from Uruguay on "The Region of the Amazons"; a Mexican movie; and a lecture by Professor James Van Der Pool on El Greco, a famous Spanish painter.

ILLUSTRATORS

The Sketch Club was organized on April 1, 1927, for promoting the study of art. On March 13, 1930, the name was changed to Illustrators and it became a social-professional fraternity fostering the ideals and interests of art and artists outside the regular curriculum of the class room. It places a mark of distinction on the undergraduate who has shown unusual ability and interest in the field of art, or who has been outstanding in any one of its many branches.

Activities consist of pledging, formal initiation, mixers for art students, smokers for the faculty, receptions for prominent lecturers, musicales, and picnics. One of its most important activities has been the sponsoring of the Fine Arts Ball. One of its main objectives is the promotion of good-fellowship between the students and faculty.

THETA SIGMA PHI

To unite and honor women who distinguish themselves in the field of journalism and to inspire its members are the objectives of Theta Sigma Phi, founded at the University of Washington in 1909.

Pi chapter is now the only active group in the University of Illinois School of Journalism. The fraternity assumes responsibility for editing the School of Journalism Alumni News which is published four times a year.

Other activities of Theta Sigma Phi included a Christmas banquet to honor the faculty and a School of Journalism picnic. Members of the fraternity also served as hostesses at the Annual Homecoming Tea in the Journalism library and at various press conventions held at the University throughout the year.

TURKISH STUDENT SOCIETY

The Turkish Student Society is a social and cultural society of the Turkish students on the campus. It was formed by a decision given in November 1944, and later by approval of the faculty.

The main object of the society is to introduce the Turkish group to the campus and thus create a stronger belief in their ideas of mutual friendship and international brotherhood.

The Turkish group consists of two parts—the military and the civilian students. The majority are in the Graduate School and are studying Civil Engineering.

The youth of New Turkey feels much obliged for the interest the University of Illinois campus has shown them and we would like to extend our thanks to the faculty and to all our friends who have helped us form this society.

ZETA PHI ETA

Zeta Phi Eta, national professional speech arts fraternity, the oldest national group of its kind, was founded at Northwestern in 1893. Tau was made an active chapter in 1937. The project of Zeta Eta is to sponsor each year some well known speaker. In the past such persons as Eve Curie, Margaret Bourke-White, Amelia Earhart, Drew Pearson, Edna St. Vincent Milay, and Ilka Chase have appeared under the auspices of the organization. This "curtain raiser" is in harmony with the policy of encouraging all worthy speech activities both on this campus and nationally.

Light on the Way

Proudly she holds her torch high, guiding men in the way of freedom—freedom of religion, of speech, of enterprise—freedom from want and fear.

Today, we are engaged in a war to preserve that freedom for ourselves and to make its blessings available to the world.

This freedom carries with it an obligation . . . an obligation that calls for sacrifice from all of us . . . a sacrifice we make gladly, proud of our part in retaining and in sharing the blessings of freedom.

More than 4,450 John Deere employees are in the armed services. Those at home are buying War Bonds, working for the Red Cross, carrying on defense activities, cultivating victory gardens. John Deere factories are busier than they have ever been, producing farm equipment to the limit permitted by government regulations, as well as turning out large quantities of war materials.

And looking forward to the day when the world will again be at peace, John Deere is continuing research and development of new machines and improving old ones, lighting the way to an easier, happier, more abundant agriculture.

COWBOY BRAND---SHIPS FOR THE NAVY

are built and launched at the Darby Shipyards located at the junction of the Missouri and Kaw Rivers, Kansas City, Kansas. These large landing ships are now being used on every invasion shore. We're manufacturing bombs for the Army, too, and today Victory is our only aim. After Victory our unique war production experience will be available to our customers in many new and improved products of steel plate.

When the call to arms thundered across the vast Pacific from Pearl Harbor, all America responded, and Weber was among the first to effect a transition from peace-time to full-scale production for Uncle Sam.

Foresight in the completion of a rehabilitation program and the complete modernization of the Weber equipment line months before our country entered World War II, placed Weber in a position to supply modern, down-to-date, dental appliances to our government for urgent dental clinic use. Today, Weber manufactures one of the most complete lines of scientific equipment offered the dental profession . . . Motor Chairs, Foot-Pump Chairs, Shock-Proof X-Rays, Scientific Lights, Cuspidors, Units, Engines and Stools . . . all embodying the last word in electrical and mechanical ingenuity, appearance, and utility.

IF YOU ENTER THE ARMED SERVICE
you will find it a privilege and a pleasure to work with Weber Equipment which has been designed and built to meet rigid Government specifications.

IF YOU ENTER PRIVATE PRACTICE
you can probably qualify for new Weber Equipment (post-war design). Ask your Weber Dealer for particulars—or write us direct.
